1 (9:05 a.m., proceedings commenced).

2 THE COURT: All right. You can be seated.

3 All right. We're here in United States versus Lorenzo
4 Black, et al. The case number is 16-20032. We'll start
5 by having the parties state your appearances, please.

6 MR. CLYMER: Good morning, Your Honor.

7 Steven Clymer for the United States. I'm accompanied 8 this morning by United States Attorney Stephen
9 McAllister, Criminal Chief Duston Slinkard and Special
10 Agent John Seubert.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 MS. BRANNON: Your Honor, the Federal Public
13 Defender appears through Melody Brannon, Kirk Redmond,
14 and Branden Bell.

15 MR. GUASTELLO: May it please the Court.
16 David Guastello on behalf of Karl Carter, who's filed a
17 waiver of appearance.

18 MR. HOFFMAN: Good morning, Your Honor. Mr.
19 Aiono appears by and through counsel, Jason Hoffman.
20 He's also filed a waiver of appearance.

21 MS. DODGE: Good morning, Your Honor.
22 Cynthia Dodge on behalf of David Bishop, who appears in 23 person.

24 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Sorry. David Cohen,
25 Special Master.

1 MS. VANBEBBER: Alleen VanBebber. I'm
2 appearing today for the first time, Your Honor, by
3 appointment of the Court as counsel to the Special
4 Master. I am a member of the bar of this court. My
5 Kansas court number is 10214.

6 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. All
7 right. There are a number of, of course, pending
8 motions in this case, not that all of them are
9 necessarily noticed up for today. But there are a
10 number of Rule 41 motions filed by defendants, there is 11 the FPD's motion for order to show cause. Mr. Carter
12 has filed a motion to dismiss indictment.

13 There are-- there's a motion for order
14 lifting stay by the FPD that relates to subpoenas duces
15 tecum which I may hear argument on but basically as of 16 today continue to be under advisement. There are some 17 motions to quash. One of those I ruled on yesterday, I
18 believe it was to quash the subpoenas of I think Mr.
19 Bigelow and Ms. Thomas, I don't remember which-- who are 20 CCA or CoreCivic employees. But there's been an order
21 entered on that as of yesterday evening. Yes, Mr.
22 Bigelow and Ms. Thomas. That's ruled on, that's
23 Document 470.

24 There's a motion to quash Special Master's
25 subpoena duces tecum that was directed to Tom Beall.

1 That's pending. There-- and that's Document 461. And
2 then there were some prior motions to quash subpoenas
3 duces tecum that related to subpoenas issued on Mr.
4 Clymer. I consider those moot. Mr. Clymer has not
5 received a subpoena duces tecum for purposes of today's 6 hearing, so those are essentially moot. So that's 7 what's pending.

8 This case was originally noticed up, I think
9 I described it as a hearing on the Special Master's 10 latest report which indicated that the government was 11 not complying with his investigation despite a court
12 order that everyone comply. And the FPD also filed a
13 motion for order to show cause on that same issue.

14 So this has been noticed up as an 15 evidentiary hearing. I know that both the FPD and the 16 defendants and the Special Master have subpoenaed a
17 number of witnesses, I'm unaware if the government has,
18 but I am considering this an evidentiary hearing.

19 So I don't know that we necessarily need
20 opening statements, maybe we can go directly to the 21 evidence, but I don't know, there may be some 22 preliminary matters that someone wishes to raise.

23 Mr. Bell.

24 MR. BELL: Thank you, Your Honor. First, as 25 the Court noted, this is going to be an evidentiary

1 hearing so we'd request to sequester the witnesses.

2 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Bell has
3 requested that the rule be invoked so the witness
4 sequestration rule will be invoked. So anyone who's
5 present in the courtroom now who is subpoenaed as a
6 witness must leave. Obviously Mr. Seubert-- is it Mr.
7 Seubert, is the case agent and represents the party, he
8 can stay. But anyone else who's been subpoenaed.

9 I will leave it up to the parties to police
10 their witnesses, but the meaning of this rule is that 11 the witnesses are not to discuss their testimony with 12 anyone, any other witnesses.

13 MR. BELL: And just a point-- I'm sorry,
14 just a point of clarification, Your Honor. I understand
15 Agent Seubert will be allowed to remain seated at the 16 counsel table for the government, but I just want to 17 make sure that he's also covered by the sequestration
18 order to the extent that he can't discuss other
19 witnesses' testimony with other witnesses who have yet
20 to testify or things of that nature.

21 THE COURT: All right. I think that's fair.
22 So, Mr. Seubert, do you understand that you're under the 23 rule. You're allowed to stay in the courtroom because 24 you represent the party.

25 MR. SEUBERT: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

2 MR. BELL: Another preliminary matter, Your
3 Honor. We have a number of exhibits that we think can
4 be entered and it would be faster to just move to enter
5 them now.

6 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to ask you all
7 to come up and use the microphone. I'm really having 8 trouble hearing all of you.

9 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I think it might be
10 easier, we have a number of exhibits that are 11 essentially court pleadings or other statements by the 12 United States Attorney's Office that we think can be 13 entered sort of en masse. I'd like to start off by 14 noting that according to what we have, the following
15 exhibits have already been admitted, and those would be 16 Exhibits 401 through 464, as well as Exhibit 521 and 17 537.

18 THE COURT: All right. You're offering them
19 for today's hearing. They've already been admitted, I
20 think that's appropriate. We need to give everyone time
21 to make sure I guess that they've been admitted. But 22 subject to that determination, I will admit 401 through 23 464 and 521 and 537.

24 MR. BELL: And then, Your Honor, for 25 purposes of today's hearing for exhibits that have not

1 been admitted in a prior proceeding, we'd ask the Court
2 to admit-- and does the Court have an exhibit list
3 before I start rattling off numbers?

4 THE COURT: I don't have it in front of me.

5 Is it a part of your binder?

6 MR. BELL: May I approach? I have a copy.

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 MR. BELL: All right. Those exhibits would
9 be Exhibit 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 487, 488,
10 489, 490, 492, 497, 498, 502, 503, 504, 508, 536, 541,
11 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 552, 553, and 554.

12 But for those last two, 553 and 554, those 13 are all either pleadings that the government filed or 14 they are transcripts of prior proceedings in this case
15 or excerpts of prior proceedings either in this case or 16 in the Dertinger case and in the Huff case and 17 underlying cases. All the statements that we would be 18 moving to admit in those exhibits would all be 19 admissions by either the United States Attorney's Office
20 or by the United States Marshals Service under 21 801(d)(2)(D).

22 553 is a pleading that we filed early in 23 this case. We're not offering it for the truth but only
24 for its effect on the receiver. And then 554 is a
25 transcript of an interview of an interpreter in the

1 Herrera-Zamora case that's entered by stipulation
2 between ourselves and the United States Attorney's
3 Office.

4 THE COURT: All right. Let me-- some of
5 these I can tell probably aren't an issue. Let me start
6 with those. So there's a number of transcripts.
7 There's 476, which is a sentencing transcript in the 8 Huff, Ashley Huff case. There's 478, which is an
9 excerpt of a hearing transcript that was Mr. Seubert's
10 testimony. And some of these I can't tell what they 11 are. Let me back up.

12 Mr. Clymer?

13 MR. CLYMER: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Are there any of these-- any of 15 the exhibits that you object to?

16 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I-- I take at his
17 word Mr. Bell's description of 401 through 464 and 421
18 through-- and 437 [sic] are to be admitted. I haven't
19 confirmed that, but I have no reason to doubt that. So
20 there's no reason to discuss those I suppose.

21 On the other ones, Your Honor, many of them
22 to me are-- it's not self-evident that they're relevant
23 to this proceeding. They may be, they may not be. I
24 just don't know, because it's not clear to me from the 25 150 exhibits that were provided to me here recently what

1 the relevance are to the issues that this Court has
2 identified as before it today. So it very well may be
3 that I have no objection to all or most of these but I
4 just can't say at this time.

5 And I'd suggest to the Court that we simply
6 proceed as the Court I expect typically does, which is 7 at the time the exhibit is offered to a witness. If 8 there's a motion, at that point we would be able to 9 better tell whether it's relevant or not.

10 THE COURT: All right. That's fair. We'll
11 proceed in that manner, Mr. Bell.

12 MR. BELL: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Anything more from 14 the FPD as a preliminary matter?

15 MR. BELL: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Anything from the government as 17 a preliminary matter?

18 MR. CLYMER: I had one thing, Your Honor.
19 Of the witnesses that the Federal Public Defender
20 subpoenaed today, as the Court knows, there are a number
21 of employees of the United States Attorney's Office. I
22 asked the public defender for an order when they would
23 be testifying so they wouldn't have to sit around
24 outside court all day because they have to do the 25 public's business. And I didn't get a response to that

1 request. I'd just ask that we have some sort of
2 indication of when those witnesses should be here so
3 they're not all sitting around.

4 THE COURT: Okay. That's fair. Can you
5 start with who you anticipate calling this morning
6 that's from the U.S.-- well, from the U.S. Attorney's
7 Office?

8 MR. BELL: Certainly, Your Honor. And I
9 e-mailed Mr. Clymer this morning that list and that 10 order. He probably hasn't seen it yet.

11 MR. CLYMER: I haven't seen it.

12 MR. BELL: If you'll give me just a moment.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. BELL: The witnesses that-- you said the 15 witnesses from the United States Attorney's Office we'll 16 be calling-- that may be called today?

17 THE COURT: Yes. This morning and maybe
18 this afternoon. I know it's rough because you don't 19 know exactly, but--

20 MR. BELL: Sure. We would plan to call Mr.
21 Rask, Ms. Flannigan. I think after that would be Mr.
22 Steeby. I'm sorry, I take that back. The order from 23 the U.S. Attorney's Office will be Mr. Rask, Ms.
24 Flannigan, Ms. Barnett, Mr. Steeby, Ms. Boyd, Mr. Beall, 25 Mr. Welch, Ms. Metzger, Mr. Oakley, Mr. Hunt, Mr. Zabel,

1 and Ms. Catania.

2 THE COURT: In that order?

3 MR. BELL: In that order. And that's all of
4 the U.S. Attorney's Office employees we intend to call,
5 so I don't know if we will necessarily get to them all
6 this morning or today, but that's all of them that we
7 intend to call in order.

8 THE COURT: Okay. But you are calling other
9 witnesses, law enforcement and CoreCivic, and those are 10 interspersed in that order of proof? In other words,
11 are you calling all the AUSAs before you call other
12 witnesses?

13 MR. BELL: No, you're correct, they are 14 interspersed.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So best-- best guess like
16 in the next three or four hours, who will you be 17 calling? Who's your first few witnesses, in other 18 words?

19 MR. BELL: It would be Leslie West, Jeff
20 Stokes and then Mr. Rask, Ms. Flannigan, Ms. Barnett,
21 Mr. Steeby, Ms. Boyd, and then Agent Seubert. And I
22 imagine that's going to probably take us through the 23 first few hours.

24 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Anything more
25 from you, Mr. Clymer?

1 MR. CLYMER: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

2 THE COURT: All right. Anything from Mr.
3 Guastello, the defense, Ms. Dodge--

4 MR. GUASTELLO: Nothing, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: -- Mr. Hoffman?

6 MS. DODGE: No, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Ms. VanBebber?

8 MS. VANBEBBER: Yes, Your Honor. Your
9 Honor, we are having a little trouble hearing you as 10 well. I think maybe it's not turned on.

11 COURTRoom DEPUTY: Steve is working on 12 adjusting that.

13 THE COURT: I'm not sure this is even on.
14 Is it on?

15 MS. VANBEBBER: Now it is.

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 MS. VANBEBBER: Your Honor, I have a
18 procedural matter to-- to bring up, which I would hope
19 would either shorten or not-- at least not elongate the 20 hearing. And so I'm going to ask for a ruling at the 21 very beginning of this procedure unless, of course, Mr.
22 Clymer has no objection, in which case it would be moot.

23 I refer all counsel to 28 C.F.R. 16.23.

24 This is in regard to the Touhy regulations under which 25 some of the witnesses in this case have been directed

1 not to answer any except certain questions that have
2 been allowed by the Deputy Attorney General.

3 The difference here is that 28 C.F.R. 16.23
4 says that any attorney in charge of the case at the time
5 is authorized to disclose to any person the testimony,
6 the relevant unclassified material, documents,
7 information, anything that's held by any attorney or
8 investigator of DOJ, the attorney in charge may preside
9 as she sees fit.

10 In this particular case, the attorney in 11 charge until it was referred to-- by Mr. Beall as the 12 acting U.S. Attorney was in the hands of Debra Barnett.
13 First in the hands of Erin Tomasic, and then the 14 Criminal Chief Debra Barnett took over as the attorney
15 in charge in this case. She had the sole authority -
16 unless she chose to refer it or ask Mr. Beall to refer 17 it - to make the decisions that are to be made when 18 Touhy is at issue.

19 If she found nothing in Touhy to warrant
20 non-disclosure, then anyone in that office was entitled 21 to give information to the Special Master as had been 22 ordered by the Court. She never made any objections to 23 anything that was asked to my knowledge, nor did she 24 ever raise Touhy and tell somebody under Touhy not to 25 answer the questions.

1 Subsequently, I think we need to make-- need
2 to make a distinction here between the Deputy Attorney
3 General's denial of the ability to answer questions
4 today between the time when the case was referred to the 5 U.S. Attorney's Office [sic] and the time when 6 disclosures were made in the past by the attorney then
7 in charge who did not seek to either refer the case or 8 tell somebody not to answer because of Touhy. And if we 9 can make that distinction based on the date of referral,
10 then it should make things go a lot faster.

11 THE COURT: And that would've been the date
12 that the U.S. Attorney, then Mr. Beall, referred this 13 matter to the Department of Justice?

14 MS. VANBEBBER: Correct.

15 THE COURT: And so your argument-- from that 16 date of demarcation, anything that was disclosed, told,
17 provided to the Special Master before that date would've
18 been under the authority of the attorney in charge, who 19 under the regulations has the authority to invoke Touhy
20 or not to invoke Touhy, to disclose or not to disclose
21 pursuant to Touhy.

22 MS. VANBEBBER: That is my understanding of 23 the C.F.R. and I have found no case law that was any 24 different.

25 Now, certainly neither the Special Master

1 nor I assume any of the other lawyers in this room are
2 planning to not honor Touhy when the witness is required
3 to decline to testify from the point of which this case
4 was referred and the DAG gave authority. But prior
5 disclosures, it's-- you can't unring the bell.

6 And so I would submit that those witnesses
7 ought to be-- we ought to be careful that those 8 witnesses are not told that they have to decline to 9 testify about matters that were disclosed when the 10 original AIC didn't deny it.

11 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Mr.
12 Clymer.

13 MR. CLYMER: A couple points, Your Honor.
14 First, I'm not sure I understand counsel's argument.
15 Obviously whatever disclosures have been made to the 16 Court are evidence and we don't suggest and haven't
17 suggested that the Court can't rely on those disclosures
18 in making decisions with respect to the motions you've 19 identified.

20 It's the case that the Deputy Attorney
21 General's Office has instructed witnesses in this case
22 who are employees of the Department of Justice that they 23 have authorization to answer some questions that have 24 been specified and not answer others. And that's the 25 authorization that's in existence right now, and those

1 witnesses are duty bound by federal law to comply.

2 I think if counsel has some argument that
3 the Touhy regulations have somehow been waived or 4 nullified by some earlier disclosures, I am aware of no
5 case law and no authority whatsoever supporting that 6 proposition. I would suggest to the Court that if the 7 Special Master takes that position, it was incumbent on 8 him or his counsel to have filed something in writing so
9 I could respond to it in writing and the Court could be 10 fully informed.

11 And we let the parties know months ago that 12 it was likely that many of the questions or all the 13 questions being posed were not going to be authorized
14 for purposes of answering today. So this-- the present
15 position of the Department can come as no surprise to 16 anybody involved in this litigation.

17 THE COURT: All right. So just for clarity,
18 so-- and I've got, you know, the summaries of what the 19 Deputy Attorney General is allowing these witnesses to 20 be asked. But to the extent that someone wants to ask
21 one of these witnesses about something that this-- that 22 witness has themselves already disclosed or the United
23 States Attorney's Office has already disclosed or a
24 document that was provided in the course of the Special
25 Master investigation, are you taking the position that

1 the witness can't be asked about something that is
2 already disclosed?

3 MR. CLYMER: No. The witnesses can be asked
4 about anything the parties want to ask about, but the 5 witnesses as employees of the Department of Justice are 6 not authorized to answer or make certain statements.

7 THE COURT: That's what I meant.

8 MR. CLYMER: Yeah, I'm sorry.

9 THE COURT: So in other words, you're taking
10 the position that even if it's a subject matter that's 11 already in the court record, already been provided by 12 the U.S. Attorney's Office to the Special Master, 13 already perhaps even been-- this witness has told the 14 Special Master, you're still going to-- the Deputy 15 Attorney General is still directing that witness not to 16 answer that particular question?

17 MR. CLYMER: Judge, that's a good question
18 and I have to go through the record very carefully to 19 answer it. But it is the case that witnesses who, for 20 example, already testified in the Dertinger hearing have 21 full authority to testify today about those very matters
22 they were asked about.

23 In fact, I offered the public defender's
24 office to simply make the Dertinger hearing part of the 25 record in this case in lieu of the testimony. They want

1 the ability to examine those witnesses themselves, which
2 is understandable, so we said fine. I plan to make the
3 Dertinger transcript-- move the Dertinger transcript in,
4 and they're fully capable or they're fully able under
5 the Deputy Attorney General's instructions to answer
6 questions about what they've already testified about.

7 So I'm not quite sure exactly what areas the 8 Special Master's counsel says were disclosed earlier and 9 not subject to disclosure. Now, I can sit down and talk
10 to them at a break and try to identify what those areas
11 are. But I do know with respect to at least some - 12 perhaps many or most - of the areas where they've
13 already made disclosures, the Deputy Attorney General
14 has told them they are authorized to answer questions
15 today.

16 THE COURT: All right. And it could be that 17 the questions are framed in a manner to ask the witness
18 to only answer this with respect to a conversation or 19 whatever, prior testimony or whatever before a date
20 certain, I don't know.

21 By the way, what is the date of the 22 referral? And I don't know if you know or that's 23 something Mr. McAllister or Mr. Beall would know, but we 24 do need to establish what the date was that this U.S.
25 Attorney's Office sent their referral letter, a letter

1 to DOJ.

2 MR. CLYMER: I don't know that off the top
3 of my head, Judge. But, quite frankly, under the Touhy
4 regulations I think it has no relevance.

5 THE COURT: Well, I-- I think it goes to
6 this issue. Now, this issue may not have legs, I don't 7 know, but I think the way to proceed is I will take the 8 issue raised by counsel to the Special Master under
9 advisement. I will want you to provide that date
10 because it may or may not have relevance, depending on 11 my ruling.

12 I will allow everyone to brief on this issue
13 after the fact. And that's assuming it actually arises
14 in the course of questioning, that this-- this issue
15 about whether anything that was disclosed prior to the 16 referral to the Department of Justice is outside the 17 scope of Touhy or not. It's something I'll take under 18 advisement. So I'll allow briefing. I will need to 19 know as soon as you can tell me that date because as 20 these issues arise in the course of testimony, we'll 21 need to know where we're at on that.

22 And then I'll allow-- to the extent it has 23 to do with things that have been disclosed before the 24 date of referral, I'll allow the parties to proceed by 25 proffer until I can resolve this issue and determine

1 whether it's admissible or not.

2 MR. CLYMER: Judge, so I'm clear, what
3 specific event do you want me to give the date? The 4 date I was appointed, the date it was referred?

5 THE COURT: I think it would be the date of 6 referral. I assume you were appointed after the 7 referral.

8 MR. CLYMER: That's correct.

9 THE COURT: So I think the argument of
10 counsel to the Master is that the attorney in charge
11 locally in the U.S. Attorney's Office had the authority
12 to invoke Touhy and did not invoke Touhy. But after it
13 was referred, from the date it was referred on, the 14 attorney in charge-- this U.S. Attorney's Office lost
15 that authority. The authority lodged exclusively in the 16 Department of Justice. The Department of Justice has 17 invoked Touhy, and so I think the Special Master's 18 counsel is arguing that's a line of demarcation.

19 MR. CLYMER: Very well.

20 THE COURT: That's an issue I'll take under 21 advisement.

22 MR. CLYMER: And just to put down a marker,
23 Judge, I think their understanding of the Touhy
24 regulations in terms of who has authority is simply 25 wrong. So that's why I say it was much better to have

1 this briefed ahead of time. But I don't think their
2 understanding is even correct as a legal matter, aside
3 from the factual issues. But again, we can resolve that 4 similarly, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: We can resolve it after the
6 fact. We'll proceed with a proffer and build this
7 record and then I'll take briefing and then decide then
8 what to do with this.

9 MR. CLYMER: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Let's see.

11 MR. REDMOND: Your Honor, can we weigh in on 12 that?

13 THE COURT: Yes, please.

14 MR. REDMOND: Thank you. Your Honor, first
15 to answer the Court's question, I believe Document Entry
16 298 indicates that on June 30th of 2017, the issue was 17 referred by Mr. Beall to the Department of Justice. And 18 on the 14th of July of 2017, the Department of Justice
19 sent a letter to the Court and the Special Master saying
20 it appointed Mr. Clymer as a special assistant-- or 21 Special Attorney to assist the U.S. Attorney's Office
22 for the District of Kansas.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Wait a minute, I-- 298
24 doesn't match up with what you're saying. You said--
25 okay. So what are you saying the date was? The first

1 date was July?

2 MR. REDMOND: June 30th of 2017.

3 THE COURT: There's something in the court
4 document-- or docket that reflects that?

5 MR. REDMOND: Yes, I believe so. It's also 6 reflected in our Exhibit 481 that we've submitted to the 7 Court.

8 THE COURT: I don't-- I'm not finding
9 anything-- anything filed on June 30th, but what did you
10 say, 4--

11 MR. REDMOND: Oh, I'm sorry. The filing was 12 actually made 10-20 of '17 and I'm looking at 13 Document 298, Page 4.

14 THE COURT: Okay. I don't have that.
15 That's the Special Master's first status report
16 regarding the Phase III investigation?

17 MR. REDMOND: That is correct, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Do you-- do you have that handy?

19 MR. BELL: May I approach?

20 THE COURT: Yes. So according to the 21 Special Master's report on Page 4, he had an e-mail from 22 the U.S. Attorney's Office dated June 30th in which they 23 had not referred it at that time but stated that we are 24 anticipating-- they're talking about whether they have a
25 conflict matter to go to the deputy AG.

1 Ultimately on July 14, 2017, DOJ sent a
2 letter to the Court and Special Master saying it had
3 appointed you, Mr. Clymer, as special attorney. And 4 that's attached as an exhibit.

5 So at least the communication from the
6 Department appointing Mr. Clymer apparently was dated
7 July 14. When the request for the referral was made
8 apparently was sometime between June 30th and July 14th,
9 2017. If you have something, a date more specific, Mr.
10 Clymer, you can let us know, that would be helpful.

11 Bonnie. Bonnie.

12 MR. REDMOND: And, Your Honor, I would also 13 like to make the federal defender's position clear as to 14 the arguments made by counsel to the Special Master. We 15 concur and for a couple of different reasons. And I
16 want to make clear what the remedy is that we'll be
17 asking for from the Court.

18 The government has consistently indicated
19 that it's going to assert various privileges under 28
20 C.F.R. 16 dash-- or dot 21 in Touhy versus Ragen. We 21 did not at that time-- at the time that we made our 22 filing note precisely what the contours of those 23 assertions would be, but in January of this year in 24 Document No. 385 we filed a memorandum of law regarding 25 proper assertion of the privilege and the authority

1 related to that proposition.

2 And we began with the proposition consistent
3 with the Special Master's position that it is
4 undoubtedly the duty of the Court to determine whether a
5 privilege has been properly asserted.

6 There's additional authority from the Tenth
7 Circuit for that proposition that we cited in the first
8 footnote of that filing, which is Sperandeo, that's 9 S-P-E-R-A-N-D-E-O, For and on Behalf of the NLRB, which 10 is a 1964 Tenth Circuit case where the Court said it is 11 for the Court and not the governmental agents-- agency
12 or executive branch to determine whether documents
13 sought to be withheld under a claim of privilege are 14 entitled to the protection of that privilege. It's the 15 Court's job to determine whether the privilege has been 16 validly asserted. And we think that for three reasons
17 that we outlined in that filing from the-- in 18 Document 385 that the government has waived any relevant
19 privilege.

20 The first is a failure to timely assert that
21 privilege. The Tenth Circuit has been pretty clear
22 about this in United States versus Ary, A-R-Y, which is 23 518 F.3d 775. The Tenth Circuit found that a party did
24 not assert a privilege in a timely fashion by waiting
25 six weeks to assert it. Here, the government has waited

1 more than a year to assert any relevant privileges,
2 during that time instead promising cooperation. So I
3 think that there has been a waiver but because of the 4 government's inaction.

5 Our second position, again I think
6 consistent with the Special Master's counsel, is that
7 the government has not asserted privilege in any-- in a
8 way that makes the Court-- or gives the Court an 9 opportunity to actually review the validity of that
10 privilege assertion. The Tenth Circuit has consistently
11 held, as we laid out in Document 385, that assertions of 12 privilege are not considered unless they're presented in 13 a deliberate, considered and specific manner. Blanket
14 claims are insufficient.

15 In addition, the government has to rely on 16 record evidence for the Court to use in evaluating the 17 validity of the assertion and the privilege. They've 18 done no such thing. They've simply written a letter
19 that says, King's X, we're not going to let these people
20 say these things.

21 The third and I think the most important is 22 that I think the-- what the government is attempting to 23 do is engage in selective waiver, which the Tenth
24 Circuit in the Quest Communications case says can't be 25 done. Once the government discloses information, it

1 waives the privilege as to all other communications
2 dealing with the same subject matter.

3 And the government here has repeatedly
4 disclosed information regarding this subject matter
5 through Ms. Tomasic's statements to the Court, from 6 sponsoring Ms. Flannigan's testimony in the Dertinger
7 hearing. The government cannot then say, well, now
8 we're going to stop. We're only going to disclose what
9 we want. I mean, the Tenth Circuit has directly
10 rejected that notion. And so I think that the-- those 11 are the three reasons that we think that there's a
12 waiver.

13 Should the government persist in invoking
14 Touhy and refusing its witnesses to answer questions, I
15 want to make clear what remedy we're going to be asking
16 for. We understand that under Touhy versus Ragen the 17 Court cannot hold those witnesses or Mr. Clymer in 18 contempt. The Court can, however, draw adverse
19 inferences from those witnesses refusing to testify,
20 especially in a circumstance where the Court determines
21 that the invocation of the privilege was illegitimate.
22 That's what we're going to be asking if those witnesses
23 don't testify.

24 THE COURT: I understand. All right.
25 Anyone else have any preliminary matters before we

1 proceed? All right. If not, Ms. Brannon, are you
2 prepared to call your first witness?

3 MS. BRANNON: We are, Your Honor. We'd call
4 Leslie West.

5 LESLIE WEST,
6 called as a witness on behalf of the Federal Public
7 Defender, having first been duly sworn, testified as
8 follows:

9 DIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MS. BRANNON:

11 Q. Good morning. Could you tell us your name,
12 please?

13 A. Leslie West, ma'am.

14 Q. And what city do you currently reside in?

15 A. Leavenworth, Kansas, ma'am.

16 Q. Did you previously work for CCA-Leavenworth?

17 A. Yes, ma'am. From September of 2013 to October of 18 2016.

19 Q. All right. And if we could talk just for a
20 moment about what you did before you worked for CCA.

21 A. I was in the United States Army from 2005 to 22 2013. I worked as a corrections specialist.

23 Q. All right. And what does it mean that you worked
24 as a corrections specialist?

25 A. I did corrections in operations, both in military

1 prisons as well as in Guantanamo Bay and Iraq.

2 Q. Can you tell me again the date that you went to
3 work for CCA?

4 A. September of 2013.

5 Q. So you went directly from the military to CCA?

6 A. Yes, ma'am.

7 Q. And when you first were employed at CCA, what was 8 your job?

9 A. I was a correction officer, so I worked the 10 housing units on the floor.

11 Q. And were you promoted?

12 A. I was promoted three times. First to lieutenant
13 and then to captain and then unit manager finally.

14 Q. How fast did that happen?

15 A. I worked for CCA from September of '13 until the 16 summer of 2015 and I got promoted to lieutenant. And I
17 was lieutenant for three months, which is assistant
18 shift supervisor. And then I was a captain until the 19 following December and I laterally promoted to unit
20 manager.

21 Q. During that time were you aware of CCA's policy
22 regarding the recording of attorney-client phone calls?

23 A. Yes, ma'am.

24 Q. What was CCA's policy during that time when you
25 first started?

1 A. We weren't supposed to record attorney-client
2 privileged phone calls at all, or visits.

3 Q. Did that change regarding the phone calls and the 4 policy?

5 A. No, ma'am.

6 Q. Do you know what inmates were told when they were
7 booked into CCA regarding attorney-client phone calls?

8 MR. CLYMER: Objection, unless there's a
9 foundation that there's a basis to answer that question,
10 Your Honor.

11 MS. BRANNON: I asked if she knew.

12 THE COURT: All right. Reframe the 13 question.

14 BY MS. BRANNON:

15 Q. During that time that you worked for CCA, did you
16 know or have any involvement with the book-in procedure
17 with inmates?

18 A. During the time I was a unit manager, ma'am, I
19 was over the intake pod, so my case managers and case
20 counselors that worked directly under me were 21 responsible for intake of inmates.

22 Q. So were you aware of information that inmates
23 were given during that intake process?

24 A. Yes, ma'am.

25 Q. And did that include information regarding

1 attorney-client phone calls?

2 A. The information that they would've gotten
3 would've been from the inmate handbook.

4 Q. Was it CCA's policy that every inmate that was
5 booked in was to be given an inmate handbook?

6 A. During the first 72 hours of intake an inmate is 7 supposed to either meet with their case counselor or--
8 (reporter interruption). Or case manager. And then
9 during that time within the 72-hour mark, they would be
10 issued certain pieces of paper they'd sign based on PREA
11 and communicable diseases, and that they should receive
12 a handbook at that time.

13 Q. Were you familiar with the forms they were to 14 sign?

15 A. Yes, ma'am.

16 Q. Did you ever actually book in inmates?

17 A. Yes, ma'am.

18 Q. Okay. So we talked about the policy. Can you
19 tell us about the actual practice at CCA about handing 20 out these handbooks?

21 A. On several different occasions it was difficult
22 even for management to get ahold of an inmate rule book.
23 They were pulled at least twice for revisions, which 24 means pulled from the facility, not just our offices but 25 even from the inmates during the shakeout so they can be

1 changed and re-issued.

2 It was common that you'd be having a discussion
3 with the inmate especially related to discipline or-- or 4 a procedural matter and you'd say, well, that's in the
5 rule book when they would ask you and they'd say, well,
6 I don't have one, or I never received one.

7 Q. So there were times that rule books were not even 8 available to the officers?

9 A. Yes, ma'am.

10 Q. So can you give us an estimate of how often the 11 handbook was revised during the time you worked there?

12 A. At least twice I know that we pulled them for 13 revisions. And that was during the time I was a captain
14 and unit manager. So when I was an officer, I may not 15 have been aware.

16 Q. Do you know whether there were revisions to the 17 policy regarding attorney-client phone calls?

18 A. No, ma'am, I don't know.

19 Q. Were you ever approached by inmates asking what
20 the policy was to obtain an attorney-client--
21 confidential attorney-client phone call?

22 A. I was approached on a couple of different
23 occasions, I would say five, where an inmate would say,
24 I went through the correct procedure, I put in a request
25 form to be able to ensure that my attorney was taken off

1 the list. But when I tried to call them on the housing
2 unit phones, the little blurb that's placed at the
3 beginning that says, you know, "your phone call is being 4 recorded" is still playing. How do I ensure that my
5 attorney's number is actually blocked?

6 We could refer them to the rule book but
7 typically I would ask them to put in a information
8 request to the couple of people that were authorized to 9 block numbers.

10 On a couple of different occasions I e-mailed
11 attorneys and said, the inmate you represent, you know,
12 is concerned that perhaps your phone number isn't
13 blocked, will you please call the front desk number,
14 give them the phone number, and talk to the front desk
15 attendant and she'll try to ensure that your number is 16 blocked as well.

17 Q. Do you know how often you contacted an attorney
18 in that regard?

19 A. I believe twice for that specific purpose.

20 Q. At the time inmates are booked in, you mentioned
21 that there are a number of forms that they sign.

22 A. Yes, ma'am.

23 Q. One of those included a form regarding 24 attorney-client phone calls; is that right?

25 A. I've never seen a form like that, ma'am. The

1 only written information that we received during the
2 time I was unit manager and captain would be the rule
3 book given to them.

4 Q. How was information regarding attorney-client
5 phone calls conveyed to non-English-speaking inmates?

6 A. We do have-- I have seen before rule books in
7 Spanish, ma'am. Beyond that, at the time we didn't
8 have-- (reporter interruption). At the time we didn't 9 have counselors or case managers who spoke Spanish, but 10 we did have a phone system. So you could call this
11 phone number, press the right button for the right
12 number. You could speak into it and then an interpreter
13 would give whatever verbal instruction to that inmate in 14 whatever language you needed.

15 MS. BRANNON: May I have just one moment,
16 Your Honor?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MS. BRANNON: No further questions. Thank
19 you.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Guastello, Mr. Hoffman, Ms.
21 Dodge?

22 MR. GUASTELLO: No questions, Your Honor.

23 MR. DODGE: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen.

25 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Thank you, Judge.

CROSS EXAMINATION

2 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

3 Q. Good morning, Ms. West.

4 A. Good morning, sir.

5 Q. I know I tried to subpoena you and it didn't get 6 there, so you're here voluntarily; is that right?

7 | A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Thank you for coming. When did you say that you
9 started, in September 2013 at CCA?

10 A. Yes. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And when did you leave?

12 A. I was put on administrative leave in April, but I
13 was actually fired in October of 2016.

14 Q. Okay. Just to follow up briefly on a couple of 15 questions that Ms. Brannon asked you. I think I
16 understood you to say that there were times when inmates
17 would arrive and you wouldn't have a handbook available;
18 is that right?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. So they didn't receive one?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. Is there a time period within which they're 23 required to get one under CCA procedure?

A. Not that I'm aware of, sir.

25 Q. I read somewhere that there was like a 72-hour

1 window within which you were allowed to give it to them.
2 If you didn't give it to them within that first, you
3 know, hour that they came in there was a grace period;
4 is that right?

5 MR. CLYMER: Objection to what counsel has
6 read, Your Honor. I'd ask that he just ask the question
7 to the witness, not a statement.

8 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I'll restate it.

9 THE COURT: I'll overrule. I'll overrule.

10 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

11 Q. Is there a period within which inmates were 12 supposed to get the handbook?

13 A. Inmates were required to meet with their 14 counselor or case manager in that 72-hour window and 15 that was the time in which a handbook was to be given.

16 Q. So it could be 72 hours before an inmate would 17 receive a handbook?

18 A. 72 hours is not including weekends and holidays,
19 so it would be-- you know, in some certain situations it
20 could be five, six days.

21 Q. Okay. And if an inmate didn't get a handbook
22 within that five or six-day period, is it possible they 23 never got it because there weren't any to give?

24 MR. CLYMER: Objection. "Is it possible,"
25 speculation.

1 THE WITNESS: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Overruled.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir, it's possible.

4 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

5 Q. Do you know that that occurred?

6 A. I know that on several different occasions I
7 spoke to an inmate who had said-- especially when I'd
8 ask them to refer to the rule book and they would say, I
9 don't have one, I never received one.

10 Q. Any understanding or estimate of how frequently
11 that happened, the percentage of inmates that never got 12 a handbook?

13 A. You were more likely to talk to an inmate who 14 didn't have a handbook than one that did.

15 Q. Was there a handbook posted in the pod, like a
16 plastic-covered handbook that they could-- you know,
17 generally available?

18 A. No, sir. When I was a housing unit officer
19 several times when I was trying to refer to something in 20 the handbook, I would have to ask other inmates in the 21 pod who had one, borrow it, give it back, that kind of 22 thing, sir.

23 Q. You said that you contacted defense counsel on 24 occasion?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Who was that, do you recall?

2 A. I remember one in particular. I know I contacted
3 Shazzie Naseem by e-mail once.

4 Q. And for the purpose of communicating what to him?

5 A. That an inmate wanted to get ahold of him and he
6 was concerned that his-- that his phone calls were still 7 being recorded, sir.

8 Q. The inmate was concerned that his phone calls
9 were being recorded?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Do you remember what it was that the inmate--
12 what it was that caused the inmate that concern?

13 A. Sir, it was the blurb at the beginning of a
14 Securus phone call that says, you know, please be 15 advised your-- I'm unaware of the exact verbiage, but 16 please be advised that your phone call is being 17 recorded.

18 Q. So when an inmate makes a call from the pod on a
19 Securus pay phone, there is sometimes a recording when 20 the inmate makes the call warning him that his phone
21 call might be recorded; is that correct?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. And you're saying that the inmate was concerned
24 because he was hearing that recording and didn't expect
25 to?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: That's all I have,
3 Judge. Thank you. Thank you.

4 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Clymer.

6 CROSS EXAMINATION

7 BY MR. CLYMER:

8 Q. Ms. West, why were you terminated at CCA?

9 A. Sir, my termination letter stated that the United
10 States Marshals Service had terminated my security
11 clearance.

12 Q. And do you know why that happened?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. Did you know you were under criminal
15 investigation?

16 A. I was questioned, sir.

17 Q. Did you know you were under criminal
18 investigation?

19 A. No, sir.

20 Q. Did there ever come a time when an inmate who 21 knew from the recording that his calls were being
22 recorded and came to you for assistance, did you ever
23 refuse to give them assistance?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. Did you ever say to them, tough luck, there's no

1 way you can have a call without it being recorded?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Every time that happened, you tried to assist
4 them. Correct?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And you thought that that was part of your job
7 responsibilities?

8 A. Definitely, sir.

9 MR. CLYMER: Thank you. No further
10 questions.

11 THE COURT: Anything further?

12 MS. BRANNON: Nothing, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. May Ms. West be
14 excused or is she subject to recall?

15 MS. BRANNON: Your Honor, she's here
16 voluntarily. We don't have her under subpoena, so I
17 assume she can be released.

18 THE COURT: All right. You're excused.
19 Thank you.

20 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Call your next witness.

22 MR. BELL: Your Honor, we'd call Jeff
23 Stokes.

24 SPECIAL AGENT JEFF STOKES,
25 called as a witness on behalf of the Federal Public

1 Defender, having first been duly sworn, testified as
2 follows:

3 MR. BELL: May I proceed?

4 DIRECT EXAMINATION

5 BY MR. BELL:

6 Q. Would you state your name for the record?

7 A. Jeff Stokes.

8 Q. Mr. Stokes, what do you do for a living?

9 A. I'm a special agent with the Kansas Bureau of
10 Investigation.

11 Q. As part of that role, were you tasked to 12 investigate what would later become the Black case?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And was that generally the time when you were 15 investigating it known as just a CCA contraband
16 trafficking case?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. When did you first become involved in that
19 investigation?

20 A. I would say fully involved in-- by March of 2016.

21 Q. As part of that investigation, an inmate gave a
22 proffer on March 17th, 2016. Does that date sound
23 familiar to you?

24 A. It does.

25 Q. And you didn't attend that proffer session?

1 A. If it was a second proffer, yes, I did not attend
2 it. Correct.

3 Q. All right. That was a proffer session attended
4 by another agent named Glen Virden?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And you wrote a report about that proffer
7 session. Correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And the report you wrote was based on a recording
10 of the proffer session?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. So you didn't attend it, there was a recording.
13 Glen Virden did attend it and Erin Tomasic attended that
14 as well?

15 A. I don't recall if she attended or not without 16 reviewing the report.

17 Q. Okay. Well, generally what did you review in 18 anticipation of your testimony today?

19 A. My transcripts from the last hearing.

20 Q. From the last time you testified in the Dertinger
21 hearing?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Anything else?

24 A. No.

25 Q. During that March 17th, 2016 proffer session that

1 you listened to the audio of, the agents discussed the
2 feasibility of doing a controlled buy inside CCA.

3 Right?

4 A. Without reviewing the report, I-- I don't recall.

5 Q. You don't recall if there was a discussion on 6 March 17th, 2016 about doing a controlled buy inside of
7 CCA?

8 A. I don't recall, no.

9 Q. Would it refresh your recollection to look at 10 your testimony from the Dertinger hearing?

11 A. Possibly, yes.

12 Q. All right. I'm going to show you what's been 13 marked as Exhibit 508 and I direct your attention to 14 Page 143 of that exhibit.

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. I'm going to look at Line 24 down there.

17 MR. CLYMER: What page number, counsel?

18 MR. BELL: 127.

19 BY MR. BELL:

20 Q. And then it goes on to the following page.

21 A. It would be 143.

22 MR. BELL: 143, I apologize.

23 THE WITNESS: Starting with Line 24 you
24 said?

25 BY MR. BELL:

1 Q. You don't need to read it out loud, just read it
2 to yourself and see if it refreshes your recollection
3 about a discussion of a controlled buy on that date.
4 And just let me know when you've finished reading if it
5 jogs your memory or not.

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. All right. I'll take that back. And generally
8 does this appear to you to be a transcript of your
9 testimony in the Dertinger hearing?

10 A. That page looks like it.

11 Q. 143?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. BELL: Your Honor, at this time I'd move
14 to admit Exhibit 508.

15 THE COURT: Any objection?

16 MR. CLYMER: No, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Exhibit 508 admitted.

18 BY MR. BELL:

19 Q. Okay. Do you now recall that there was a
20 discussion during that proffer session about doing a
21 controlled buy inside of CCA?

22 A. What I remember is the proffer prior to that, I
23 don't recall the date. There was a discussion about a
24 controlled buy, but I don't recall any discussion during 25 that proffer of a controlled buy.

1 Q. All right. So was there a discussion about doing
2 a controlled buy at CCA before March 17th or after
3 March 17th?

4 A. It should've been before.

5 Q. All right. Was it in February?

6 A. I don't recall without looking at the report.

7 Q. I see. Were you present when that discussion was 8 had?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Was Ms. Tomasic present when that discussion was 11 had?

12 A. I believe so, yes.

13 Q. Who else was present when that discussion was had 14 and without naming the cooperator?

15 A. I believe it was myself, as you said Erin
16 Tomasic, I believe it was Senior Special Agent Glen
17 Virden with the FBI. I believe Matt Cahill, retired
18 deputy marshal. Possibly John Seubert, Secret Service
19 special agent. Without looking at the report I wouldn't 20 recall if there was any more, but that's who I think I
21 remember.

22 Q. Fair to say there may be other people that were 23 there, but you know the people you just named were 24 there?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. All right. During that proffer session-- or
2 during that discussion I should say about the controlled
3 buy, the cooperator informs the assembled group that
4 there are cameras inside the attorney-client visitation
5 rooms at CCA?

6 A. If he did, I don't recall that.

7 Q. Do you recall any discussion involved with a
8 controlled buy about how there are cameras inside the 9 attorney-client rooms at CCA?

10 A. I think there was a discussion, I don't remember
11 the context, I-- I don't recall.

12 Q. Okay. So you do know there was a discussion
13 about cameras in the rooms, you just don't remember the 14 exact wording?

15 A. I don't recall if there was or not.

16 Q. I show you what's been marked as Exhibit 503.
17 I'll represent to you this is a pleading that the 18 government filed in this case. I turn your attention to 19 the eighth page there. In that pleading is there a 20 discussion about what the inmate said during the 21 discussion about the controlled buy as it relates to 22 cameras in the attorney-client rooms?

23 MR. CLYMER: Objection, Your Honor. I think
24 this witness is being asked to read from a document he
25 didn't write, that I don't know if he's ever seen

1 before. It asserts some facts. I believe counsel can
2 try to refresh his recollection with it, but I don't
3 think counsel can question him about the substance of 4 what's in this document.

5 MR. BELL: I move to admit Exhibit 503.

6 THE COURT: Any objection?

7 MR. CLYMER: I don't know what the relevance
8 is, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 503
10 admitted.

11 BY MR. BELL:

12 Q. Agent Stokes, is there a discussion on Page 8 of 13 Exhibit 503 about-- about the controlled buy?

14 A. (Pause).

15 Q. I'll make it easier for you. I want you to look 16 at the last paragraph on Page 8 of 503. "At the 17 conclusion of the proffer interview, the investigators
18 discussed using the cooperator to purchase drugs and 19 contraband from another inmate at CCA at the direction
20 of the investigators." Did I read that sentence
21 correctly?

22 A. I believe so, yes.

23 Q. The next sentence, "During the discussion the 24 cooperator reported that he believed the attorney-client
25 rooms contained video cameras and he believed the CCA

1 staff could activate audio monitoring without an
2 inmate's knowledge." Did I read that correctly?

3 A. Yes. But the paragraph before that says in early
4 March. I was not present for that. So if there was
5 conversation about that after the proffer had ended, I
6 wouldn't have been present for that.

7 Q. All right. So there was-- I want to make sure I
8 have this right. There is a discussion about doing a
9 controlled buy and you were present for that proffer.
10 Right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. There is another proffer session that you were 13 not present at but which you listened to the recording 14 of?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And in that proffer session, that's where the 17 inmate stated that he believed there were cameras in the 18 attorney-client rooms at CCA?

19 A. Not that I recall hearing.

20 Q. But you'd agree with me that that's what
21 Exhibit 503 says?

22 A. That's what this document says.

23 Q. Okay. So when did you become aware that there
24 are cameras in the attorney-client rooms at CCA?

25 A. It was after August of 2016.

1 Q. So it wasn't until August of 2016 that you became
2 aware that there were cameras in the attorney-client
3 rooms at CCA?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. When did you become aware that those cameras
6 recorded video of the meetings that occurred in those
7 rooms?

8 A. When I met with the Special Master.

9 Q. And when was that?

10 A. I don't recall the date.

11 Q. Can you ballpark it for me?

12 A. 2016. It was after August. I don't recall the 13 date.

14 Q. So at some point after August 2016 is when you
15 first became aware that there were recordings of the 16 meetings in the attorney-client rooms at CCA?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. All right. Didn't know about it at any point
19 before then?

20 A. No. I-- I don't recall.

21 Q. Okay. So had you had any discussion with anybody
22 about recordings in the attorney-client rooms prior to 23 meeting with the Special Master?

24 A. Well, I've had discussions about using the video
25 for other purposes, but there possibly could've been

1 attorney-client-- I'm sorry, recordings from
2 attorney-client rooms. I was not sure. I had not
3 looked at the video at that time.

4 Q. Okay. So let's back up for a second. When did
5 you first have any idea, whether you knew it for sure or 6 not, that there were cameras in the CCA attorney-client
7 visitation rooms?

8 A. I'm sorry. Can you repeat that question?

9 Q. Sure. When is the first time you became aware of 10 the possibility, whether you knew it for sure or not,
11 that there were cameras in the attorney-client rooms at
12 CCA?

13 A. It would've been August of 2016.

14 Q. Okay. So before August of 2016, you don't even 15 have any idea that there are physically cameras in the 16 rooms?

17 A. I would not know, no.

18 Q. All right. And then when did you first become 19 aware of the possibility, whether you knew it for sure
20 or not, that those cameras recorded the meetings that 21 occurred in the attorney-client rooms?

22 A. Sir, can you repeat that question one more time,
23 please?

24 Q. When did you first become aware of the 25 possibility, whether you knew it for sure or not, that

1 the cameras in the attorney-client rooms were actually
2 recording the meetings?

3 A. I wouldn't recall who told me or-- or anything
4 like that, but it would've been in August of '16 when we
5 had the emergency hearing that there was the-- the 6 possibility of.

7 Q. All right. So you made reference to the 8 emergency hearing. That was in response to a motion our 9 office had filed.

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. So if I understand your testimony correctly, you
12 weren't aware of the possibility that these meetings
13 were recorded in the attorney-client rooms until you
14 were informed about the pleading that we had filed?

15 A. I wouldn't know what an attorney-client room is 16 at CCA, so I-- I don't know.

17 Q. Okay. So when did-- let's back up another step.
18 When did you first become aware that there were
19 attorney-client rooms at CCA?

20 A. I don't recall that.

21 Q. Was it before this investigation started?

22 A. (Pause).

23 Q. Or a better question. Is it before you start--
24 you became involved in this investigation?

25 A. I never really thought about that. I mean, I

1 used to work in a jail and there's attorney-client rooms
2 in correction facilities, so I guess I was aware most
3 correction facilities probably have attorney-client
4 rooms, along with other visitation rooms.

5 Q. So you assumed that they-- if I understand your 6 testimony correctly, you assumed most jails have those 7 rooms. CCA functions as a jail so CCA should have those
8 rooms?

9 A. I would assume so, yes.

10 Q. Okay. At a certain point a subpoena was issued
11 to CCA for all of their surveillance video?

12 A. I know that now, yes.

13 Q. Were you involved in the discussions about the 14 wording of the subpoena or what to request from CCA as 15 part of that subpoena?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Did you even know that the subpoena was going to 18 be issued?

19 A. No, I don't believe so.

20 Q. Did you know that the investigative team,
21 including Ms. Tomasic, was going to request video from
22 CCA?

23 A. I don't recall if-- if it was mentioned to me or 24 not.

25 Q. When did you first become aware that the United

1 States Attorney's Office had requested video from CCA?

2 A. I don't recall that.

3 Q. Would it have been before the subpoena was 4 issued?

5 A. I don't believe so, no, but I don't-- I don't
6 recall. I can't say for sure yes or no.

7 Q. Would it have been after the subpoena was issued?

8 A. I don't recall.

9 Q. All right. How did you first become aware that 10 the request to CCA had been made?

11 A. I don't recall that.

12 Q. Okay. Well, at some point you became aware?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Was that before the August emergency hearing as 15 you called it?

16 A. It would've been so, yes.

17 Q. Would it have been before you acquired the video
18 from the U.S. Attorney's Office?

19 A. I don't recall.

20 Q. Well--

21 A. Most likely.

22 Q. Well, I'm not trying to be difficult, but at some 23 point you took physical possession of the video. Right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. So at some point-- so at least as

1 early as that date you knew that they had requested the
2 video because you had it in your hands. Right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. When did you pick up the video from the
5 U.S. Attorney's Office?

6 A. I don't recall the exact date, but it was in July
7 sometime.

8 Q. Sometime in July?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. There was a hearing as part of the Black case on 11 July 21st. Did you attend that hearing?

12 A. I don't believe-- I don't recall.

13 Q. Why did you pick up the video from the U.S.
14 Attorney's Office?

15 A. There was certain portions of the video that I
16 was interested in looking at.

17 Q. So-- so let's work backwards from the time you
18 picked up the video. You picked up the video. The 19 reason you picked up the video is that there are certain 20 portions of the video you wanted to look at. Right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And so your interest in looking at those portions
23 of the video necessarily had to occur before you picked
24 up the video?

25 A. I'm sorry. Could you say that again?

1 Q. Sure. You became interested in the video earlier
2 than the point when you actually acquired the video.
3 Right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. So-- and when you became interested in the video,
6 before that you had to be told that the U.S. Attorney's
7 Office had the video. Fair?

8 A. I know Secret Service had possession of the 9 original drives. I think I was told-- I don't recall
10 exactly how it worked, but there was copies made and the 11 copies is what I was going to pick up from the U.S.
12 Attorney's Office.

13 Q. And so you're certain that that all occurred at 14 some point obviously before you picked them up in July,
15 so could it have been June when you became aware?

16 A. I don't recall.

17 Q. Is there something that could refresh your 18 recollection about these dates, e-mails, a calendar,
19 something that we could take a break and you could look 20 at?

21 A. I don't believe so, no.

22 Q. So whatever discussion there was about obtaining 23 the video, you weren't involved in that?

24 A. No, not that I recall.

25 Q. Did you ever learn the purpose of why the U.S.

1 Attorney's Office had acquired this video?

2 A. As part of the investigation.

3 Q. As part of the investigation into trafficking of 4 contraband within CCA. Right?

5 A. Among other things, yes.

6 Q. So as part of that-- of obtaining that video as 7 part of that review, you would necessarily want to look
8 at the video of certain areas within the CCA facility.
9 Right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And those areas would be the ones where you
12 suspected or had information that contraband was being 13 passed?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. So if the video did not include areas that you
16 had information were being used for contraband
17 trafficking, the video wouldn't be entirely helpful to
18 you?

19 A. Repeat that question, please.

20 Q. Yeah. If the video wasn't comprehensive, if it
21 didn't include all the areas that you had heard that 22 contraband was being trafficked in, it wouldn't be 23 entirely helpful. Fair?

24 A. It possibly could, I...

25 Q. But your intent, at least as it was explained to

1 you, for getting the video was to examine the rooms or
2 the areas where you had evidence that contraband was
3 being trafficked in?

4 A. Well, in my possession of the video, the intent
5 was not necessarily for the trafficking of contraband
6 but for some other stuff that had happened.

7 Q. But you understand that the original intent
8 behind getting the video, I think as you said, was to 9 investigate the case?

10 MR. CLYMER: Objection to speculation about 11 what the intent was.

12 THE COURT: Overruled.

13 THE WITNESS: I wasn't involved in those 14 conversations--

15 BY MR. BELL:

16 Q. But you were--

17 A. -- not that I recall.

18 Q. I'm sorry, I didn't mean to interrupt you. You
19 understood the intent behind getting the videos was as 20 part of the investigation into contraband trafficking?

21 A. Like I said, I wasn't involved in those 22 conversations so if there was other intent I wouldn't 23 have been involved in that.

24 Q. And again, sir, I didn't ask if you were involved
25 in it, I'm asking your understanding of the intent

1 behind getting them was.

2 Was your understanding of the intent by getting
3 the videos to investigate contraband trafficking at CCA?

4 A. As part of it, yes.

5 Q. And one of the areas that you had information
6 that was being used in the contraband trafficking was 7 the attorney-client rooms. Right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. So if it stands to reason that you wanted video
10 of every area that you had information was involved in 11 trafficking, that would--

12 MR. CLYMER: Objection, argumentative.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 BY MR. BELL:

15 Q. It would stand to reason that a request for video
16 would've included the attorney-client rooms?

17 A. I apologize. The previous question I might've
18 misunderstood. Could you repeat that, please?

19 Q. You had information that contraband was being
20 trafficked in the attorney-client rooms at CCA?

21 A. No. I said yes, but I-- no. The information we 22 had about the attorney-client rooms is possibly 23 information being provided to-- to defendants, not--

24 Q. Sir, is it your-- is it your testimony then that 25 you had no information that contraband was being

1 trafficked in the attorney-client rooms?

2 A. I don't recall that, no.

3 Q. Agent Seubert worked with you on this case?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. So if there had been an allegation that
6 contraband was being trafficked in the attorney-client
7 rooms, Agent Seubert would probably know about it?

8 A. I don't know.

9 Q. Did Agent Seubert ever tell you that there was an
10 allegation or information that contraband was being
11 trafficked in the CCA attorney-client rooms?

12 A. If he did, I don't recall.

13 Q. Have you reviewed Agent Seubert's testimony from 14 the Dertinger hearing?

15 A. No, sir.

16 Q. Were you involved in the discussion about 17 abandoning a specific-- a request for video from 18 specific areas?

19 A. No.

20 Q. At CCA?

21 A. No.

22 Q. So at some point you became interested in the 23 videos and you came and picked them up from the U.S.
24 Attorney's Office. What was it that you were looking 25 for?

1 A. I was looking for after Richard Dertinger, the
2 defendant in another case who was also implicated in the 3 distribution of contraband inside CCA. Through other
4 proffers we had obtained information that he had gained
5 information that we were looking at his activities in 6 CCA for the distribution of contraband through his
7 attorney.

8 So after-- we knew that-- the date the proffer
9 went out in discovery. So after that date, when there
10 was an attorney-client meeting, we wanted to see
11 Defendant Dertinger after that meeting when he goes back
12 to his pod, you know, who he's talking to, see what
13 their reactions are, if they're using the phones.

14 During the course of the investigation we know
15 other inmates-- inmates involved if they were trying to 16 hide their activities would use other inmates' PIN
17 numbers to use the phone. Is other inmates using other
18 inmates' PINs? We wanted to get those phone recordings.

19 Q. So you wanted to look at the video to study what 20 Mr. Dertinger would do after he returned to the pod from 21 meeting with his attorney?

22 A. Well, we don't know if he actually returned to 23 his pod or not because inmates have other programs they 24 go to. You know, where do they go inside the facility
25 after that meeting? If he went to his pod, yes, I'm

1 interested in that pod video.

2 Q. So you were interested in what Mr. Dertinger did
3 after he had left a meeting with his attorney?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And those activities you mentioned would've
6 occurred-- him making telephone calls, that would've
7 occurred in the pod. Right?

8 A. If he went other places, I don't know if they had 9 access to phones in other-- other places of the facility
10 or not.

11 Q. So you pick up the videos at some point in July?

12 A. I don't recall the date, but yes, it was-- it was 13 July.

14 Q. And who did you pick them up from?

15 A. Pauletta Boyd.

16 Q. What discussion did you have with Ms. Boyd about 17 the videos?

18 A. She provided me a instruction sheet, the docking
19 station for the-- the hard drives and the hard drives
20 themselves.

21 Q. Did she provide you the software necessary to 22 watch the videos?

23 A. I don't recall if it's software you load on the 24 computer or if the player is imbedded in the hard
25 drives. I-- I don't recall if I had to put something on

1 my computer or not.

2 Q. You don't remember if she gave you software to
3 watch or not?

4 A. There may have been a disk, I'm not sure, with a
5 player or software. I-- I'm not that tech savvy either.

6 Q. So you're-- and this happens at the U.S.
7 Attorney's Office?

8 A. Where we had the conversation, yes.

9 Q. With Ms. Boyd?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. So you're in her office getting these videos,
12 she's explaining how they work. Aside from Ms. Boyd,
13 who else is present?

14 A. I don't believe anybody else.

15 Q. And while you were at the office, who else do you
16 speak to about being there to get the videos?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 Q. Did you speak to Ms. Tomasic?

19 A. I don't know if I just showed up to get the 20 videos or if I was there working that day, I-- I don't 21 recall that.

22 Q. You said you don't know if you were there working
23 that day. What do you mean by that?

24 A. Sometimes we work out of the-- the U.S.
25 Attorney's Office.

1 Q. So sometimes you would just set up with a
2 computer at a-- at a desk somewhere in the office and
3 work there?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. But you don't recall if that day was one of those 6 days or not?

7 A. I don't recall.

8 Q. Were you required to sign in when you came to the
9 U.S. Attorney's Office?

10 A. I have a key card to get in.

11 Q. All right. So there is a-- assuming for a moment
12 that those entries are logged, we could look at the log
13 entry and get an idea of maybe when you picked up the 14 videos?

15 A. Possibly, yes.

16 Q. All right. Do you recall speaking to anyone else
17 besides Ms. Boyd when you were going to pick up the 18 videos?

19 A. I don't recall.

20 Q. So she handed you the videos, maybe you talked to 21 some other people, maybe you don't. At a certain point
22 you leave the building with the videos?

23 A. I assume so, yes.

24 Q. You don't recall leaving with the videos?

25 A. I don't recall what I did, no. I mean, obviously

1 I had to leave the building with the videos.

2 Q. And then-- so you got this box of the hard drives
3 and the docking station. You're carrying it out to your 4 car?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And where do you put the videos?

7 A. In my vehicle.

8 Q. All right. And then where do you go?

9 A. I don't recall. I don't know if I went to my 10 office or I-- I don't remember what I did that day. I
11 remember the conversation I had with-- with Ms. Boyd,
12 but I don't really remember anything else about that 13 day.

14 Q. So you said you didn't know if you had gone to 15 your office. Are you recalling-- are you referring to 16 the office that's at your home or a different office?

17 A. I do have an office at my home, but I-- also we 18 have a KBI office in-- in Lenexa.

19 Q. So you have this box of videos, you don't know if 20 you go to the office in Lenexa or to your home with them
21 or somewhere else?

22 A. I don't recall what I did, no.

23 Q. At some point the videos end up at your house?

24 A. They did.

25 Q. Do you remember any other place the videos had

1 been before they ended up at your house?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Did KBI ever make their own copy of these videos?

4 A. No.

5 Q. When do you remember taking the box of videos out
6 of your car and taking them inside your home?

7 A. I don't recall.

8 Q. Was it the same day you picked them up?

9 A. I don't recall.

10 Q. Sir, you mentioned earlier that your interest in 11 the videos was that some people had said that Mr.
12 Dertinger's attorney had given him either information or 13 a document that alerted him to your investigation--

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. -- is that right? Some-- some of those people
16 told you that his lawyer had just given him information?

17 A. Without reviewing the documents, but yeah, that's 18 my recollection.

19 Q. And some of them said that she had given Mr.
20 Dertinger the actual physical document?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Were there multiple people that made these 23 claims?

24 A. I don't recall how many, but yes, it was 25 multiple.

1 Q. So at least two?

2 A. At least.

3 Q. And these people were saying-- repeating
4 something that either Dertinger directly told them or
5 something that Dertinger had told somebody else?

6 A. My recollection, yes.

7 Q. And all of these people were telling you this,
8 cooperating in order to attempt to get a reduction in 9 their sentence?

10 A. I believe that was their motive, yes. But that's 11 why we wanted the video, was to corroborate their 12 statements.

13 Q. So at a certain point, we don't know when, you
14 pick up the video. At certain point, we don't know
15 when, you get to your home with the video. How long 16 after the video had been in your home did you start to 17 attempt to review it?

18 A. I picked them up in July sometime and I know I
19 went on vacation in late July. So it would've been 20 probably within a week or two of picking up the videos,
21 but I don't recall the exact time frame.

22 Q. All right. So at some point between the time you
23 picked them up in July and the time you went on vacation
24 in late July is when you would've attempted to view the 25 videos?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And you were looking for, if I understand your
3 testimony correctly, what Mr. Dertinger did after he met
4 with his attorney?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And the thinking was that if he talks to people
7 inside the facility who are also subjects of the 8 investigation or makes phone calls, that that might 9 corroborate this idea that his attorney was giving him
10 information?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Now, at the time that you began your review of 13 the videos you also had an index that showed you what 14 videos showed which area of the facility; is that right?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And is that something Ms. Boyd had given you?

17 A. I believe she did.

18 Q. All right. So do you think she gave it to you
19 when you went there to pick up the videos?

20 A. I don't know if it was then or before, but I
21 believe it was Ms. Boyd that provided it to me.

22 Q. I'm sorry, I didn't catch that last statement.
23 What was that?

24 A. I don't know if she gave it to me when I picked
25 up the videos, but I believe it was Ms. Boyd that

1 provided it to me, but I don't remember exactly when.

2 Q. All right. So you may have received an index at 3 some point before you got the videos?

4 A. I don't recall.

5 Q. Do you remember how you got the index; e-mail,
6 letter?

7 A. I don't recall.

8 Q. Okay. So let me show you what's been marked as
9 Exhibit 439.

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Do you recognize Exhibit 439 as the index that 12 you were given?

13 A. It looks like it, yes.

14 Q. And that's the index that you reviewed or that 15 you used when you were reviewing the video?

16 A. It looks like it, yes.

17 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit
18 Exhibit 439.

19 THE COURT: I think it's already admitted.
20 401 through 464 previously admitted.

21 MR. BELL: I think that's right.

22 THE COURT: Yeah, it's admitted.

23 MR. BELL: All right.

24 BY MR. BELL:

25 Q. So there's Exhibit 439, we've put it on the

1 screen in-- in front of you. Now, you said that you
2 picked a specific-- when you started to review this
3 video at your home, you picked a specific time and date
4 to look at; is that right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. You picked a specific time and date because you
7 had paired up when Mr. Dertinger's lawyer had visited
8 him with the video?

9 A. We know what date the proffer was provided to Mr.
10 Dertinger's attorney, and then we knew the day she had 11 visited CCA after that.

12 Q. All right. So-- but you had picked a specific
13 time and date to review because it was a date that Mr.
14 Dertinger's lawyer had come to visit Mr. Dertinger?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. All right. So you're sitting at your computer,
17 there's some sort of menu that lets you pick a specific
18 date and time that you want to look at. You consult 19 the-- the visitation log that shows you when his lawyer
20 visited him, you find a date and you plug that date into 21 the-- the video system?

22 A. It sounds right, but I don't recall exactly how I
23 did that.

24 Q. All right. At some point you found the video
25 from the date you were looking for?

1 A. What I believe is who it was, yes.

2 Q. Okay. After you had done that, you watched the
3 video for, what, about an hour, hour-and-a-half?

4 A. I wasn't recording my time, so that's just a
5 guess.

6 Q. All right. And you told-- did you tell either
7 Ms. Tomasic, Mr. Oakley or Ms. Flannigan about how far
8 you had gotten as part of your review?

9 A. I wouldn't have told Mr. Oakley or Ms. Flannigan.
10 But if I did tell Ms. Tomasic, I don't remember that
11 conversation.

12 Q. All right. But what you would've told her is 13 that I've paired up the video to a visitation by 14 Dertinger's lawyer?

15 A. I don't remember if I told her that or not.

16 Q. What discussions did you have with anyone in the 17 U.S. Attorney's Office about looking at the 18 video-recordings of the meetings in the attorney-client
19 rooms at CCA?

20 A. I know I had said to Ms. Tomasic that I had 21 possibly seen the defendant walking down a hallway. It
22 was from the back, walking-- walking away from the 23 camera. That's the only conversation I've had with 24 that.

25 Q. Okay. Maybe I asked a bad question. What

1 discussions did you have about viewing the video of the
2 attorney-client rooms with any member of the United
3 States Attorney's Office?

4 A. Oh, I apologize. So before I looked at the video
5 we had talked about what I was going to do and--

6 Q. All right. Let me stop you right there. You
7 said "we." Who's "we"?

8 A. I'm sorry. Myself and Erin Tomasic.

9 Q. All right. And who else was present?

10 A. I don't recall if anyone else was present or not.

11 Q. Was that conversation in person?

12 A. It was in person.

13 Q. And it was here in the U.S. Attorney's Office?

14 A. I believe so, yes.

15 Q. So at some point before you get the videos you
16 have a conversation with Ms. Tomasic about what you're 17 going to be doing or looking for?

18 A. And I don't remember if it was before I got the 19 videos or if I already had the videos, but it was before
20 I reviewed them.

21 Q. All right. And I cut you off so go ahead, what 22 was the rest of your answer?

23 A. That was my answer.

24 Q. All right. So you had a discussion with Ms.
25 Tomasic about what you were going to do with the videos.

1 And at some point during that conversation the topic of
2 video-recording within the attorney-client rooms comes
3 up?

4 A. That if I happened to see any attorney-client
5 meetings I was not to look at that. I was to, you know,
6 flag that time and use a filter team or a taint agent
7 to-- to review that.

8 Q. And that would've been sometime in July 2016?

9 A. I believe so. I didn't document that time.

10 Q. All right. So earlier when I asked you when were 11 you aware of even the possibility that meetings in the 12 attorney-client rooms were recorded, you said in August
13 when we filed an emergency motion.

14 But if I understand your testimony now correctly,
15 it's that you had a discussion about the possibility of 16 having recordings of those meetings in July; is that
17 right?

18 A. I still was not sure if-- I was not sure if the--
19 the rooms were even recorded. Like I said, I used to 20 work in a jail and the attorney-client rooms was the 21 door-- the video was to the door. So if I was-- I don't 22 know if the attorney-client rooms were recorded or not,
23 so I didn't know there was a possibility of them or not.

24 Q. But there's a discussion with Ms. Tomasic and you
25 in July of 2016 about what to do in response to that

1 possibility?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. So would it be fair to say that you
4 first became aware of the possibility of attorney-client
5 recorded meetings at CCA during your conversation with 6 Ms. Tomasic?

7 A. That's fair, yes.

8 Q. And is she the one who raised the topic or did
9 you?

10 A. I don't recall.

11 Q. Would you agree with me that if you had raised
12 the topic, then you must've found out about the 13 possibility before that discussion?

14 A. I-- I don't recall.

15 Q. Okay. So at some point you get this index and it
16 lists, according to the DVR drive, what each DVR drive
17 records, what camera angle it's showing; is that right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. I'm referring to Defense 439. And listed there
20 is Attorney Room, Attorney Room 4, Attorney Room 5, 21 Attorney Room 6, 7, 8, and 9. Right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And so when you are looking at the video for this
24 meeting, you are looking for evidence that will
25 corroborate that Mr. Dertinger's lawyer has given him

1 some kind of information, whether it's information or a
2 document?

3 A. Yes. But I don't know if this is the drive I was 4 looking at or not.

5 Q. Well, when you first got the video-- so you have
6 six DVRs in a box. Right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And they're labeled 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6?

9 A. I believe so, I don't...

10 Q. And so you have to decide, all right, I'm looking 11 for corroboration of this evidence. So you've got to 12 choose which of those DVRs, which of the six you're 13 going to pull to look at first?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And to do that I imagine you had to consult the 16 index to see what was on each of these DVRs?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. So you're trying to make a decision about which
19 DVR to pull out of the box first. You look at the index
20 and that tells you what's on each DVR?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. All right. So you consult that index and then
23 you make a decision about which DVR to pull out first?

24 A. I believe so, yes.

25 Q. Okay. And the DVR you choose is DVR 6?

1 A. I don't recall which DVR. I had three of
2 interest; 3, 5, and 6.

3 Q. Let me show you-- do you still have Exhibit 508
4 in front of you?

5 A. Is this 508? I have 5-0--

6 Q. You should have 508, your prior testimony. Do
7 you have that up there in front of you?

8 A. No. I have 503 right here.

9 Q. All right.

10 A. I believe you took my testimony.

11 Q. Fair enough.

12 THE COURT: 508 has been admitted by the 13 way.

14 MR. BELL: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 BY MR. BELL:

16 Q. I'm sorry, I'm referring to 508. Do you have 508
17 in front of you?

18 A. I have 508 now, yes.

19 Q. All right. So I want to turn your attention to 20 Page-- it's marked on the top right corner as Page 155.
21 And if you'd let me know when you've reached that.

22 A. Okay. I'm there.

23 Q. All right. And I'm going to read from Line 17 on 24 and you let me know if I've read correctly.

25 You're asked this question: "So if you-- if you

1 were looking at attorney-client meeting rooms on the
2 disk that you were looking at, it had to have been DVR 6
3 you were looking at if what I said is correct; is that
4 right? Does that make sense to you?"

5 And then your answer was: "It makes sense, yes."

6 Did I read that correctly?

7 A. You read that correctly, yes.

8 Q. All right. So also let's turn to Page 123 of 9 that exhibit.

10 A. Okay. I'm there.

11 Q. I'm going to start at Line 5. You were asked a
12 question: "Do you remember which of the six you loaded
13 into the docking station to view?"

14 Your answer: "I don't recall exactly which one,
15 it was-- I think it was either 5 or 6."

16 Did I read that correctly?

17 A. You did read that correctly.

18 Q. And then at a certain point, if you'll turn to 19 the next page which is Page 124.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. You're being questioned by Mr. Rask?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. On Line 13 this reflects Mr. Rask gave you a copy
24 of Government Exhibit 10, which is the index?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. You were asked to review it. Turn to the next
2 page. Tell me if I've read-- after you've reviewed it,
3 I'm going start at Line 6 of Page 125, you let me know
4 if I read this accurately.

5 You were asked the question: "So as you're 6 looking at that index, does that help you remember which 7 DVR you inserted or what camera angle you may have been
8 searching for as you were understanding the system?"

9 Answer: "I still don't remember exactly what
10 drive. I believe it could be 5 or 6 or maybe even 3, I
11 just don't recall."

12 Did I read that correctly?

13 A. You did read that correctly.

14 Q. From these pages, Agent Stokes, would you agree
15 with me that you didn't mention the possibility of maybe
16 you looked at Drive 3 until Mr. Rask gave you the 17 exhibit to look at-- the index to look at?

18 A. Because I didn't remember. And once I looked at 19 the exhibit, then it refreshed my memory of what I was 20 interested in.

21 Q. So would you agree with me that even as you sit 22 here today, it's possible that the video that you looked 23 at was DVR 6?

24 A. There's a possibility, yes.

25 Q. And you only looked at one of the DVRs. Right?

1 A. I don't recall. I believe so. I-- it was so
2 long ago, I just don't recall.

3 Q. And the first part of that prior testimony I read
4 to you, did you agree when the Special Master questioned
5 you that it was likely that the one you had picked was 6 DVR 6?

7 A. I don't recall which video it was. I--

8 Q. Do you remember seeing a room that appeared like
9 a meeting room when you were reviewing the video?

10 A. If I remember, it was-- I saw a empty room or 11 rooms. I don't recall.

12 Q. All right. It was a room with a table and a
13 couple chairs but no one was in it?

14 A. I-- I don't recall.

15 Q. So what would it have been about DVR 6 that 16 would've prompted you to choose that DVR to look at?

17 A. Well, if I was to look-- if that was the video I
18 looked at, which I don't know, he would've been meeting
19 with his attorney in those rooms. There's other stuff
20 in that-- that DVR too, hallways and other stuff.

21 Q. Okay. So other than the attorney rooms that are 22 listed there, is there anything that would've obviously 23 grabbed your attention as video that you would've wanted
24 to see on DVR 6?

25 A. I don't recall at that time.

1 Q. All right. And to be clear, you're attempting to
2 review the video to corroborate the allegation that Mr.
3 Dertinger's lawyer has either given him information or
4 actually handed him a document in one of these attorney
5 rooms. Right?

6 A. I wanted the conversation he was having with 7 other people or-- on the phones or seeing who he's 8 meeting with after the meetings.

9 Q. You know that you can request video from certain
10 pods or certain areas from CCA marked as certain days.
11 Right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. In fact, you did that a number of times during 14 this investigation?

15 A. I don't know if I requested the video or not.

16 Q. You were aware that other members of the team,
17 including Deputy Cahill, had requested specific video
18 from CCA as part of this investigation?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And so you knew that that was something that you
21 could do?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And you were looking for a specific reaction of 24 Dertinger either in the pod or on his way between-- from 25 the attorney room when he gets to the pod. Right?

1 A. Or wherever he went after the meeting.

2 Q. All right. So from this index can you tell where
3 Mr. Dertinger goes, which hallway he's in after he's 4 done meeting with his attorney?

5 A. I didn't get that far along.

6 Q. You think that's something that you could've
7 known from just watching the video?

8 Which of these camera angles is going to show you
9 the hallway that leads to an attorney-client meeting
10 room?

11 A. I don't know. I'm not that accustomed with this 12 system or I'm not that accustomed with CCA in general.

13 Q. And I-- I think that's my point, sir. If your 14 goal was to find out what he was doing between the times
15 when he left the attorney room and the time that he
16 received-- went back to his pod, you would have to know
17 where the names-- what CCA calls the-- the hallways.

18 Right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. But you didn't know that, did you?

21 A. I was going off the index.

22 Q. Well, the index doesn't say what they are, does
23 it?

24 A. Well, it says what the cameras are named.

25 Q. All right. Does the camera name tell you where

1 in the facility that it's located at?

2 A. I'm sure it does, I just don't understand it.

3 Q. So let's say that you wanted to find out-- you
4 wanted to watch Mr. Dertinger from-- walking from the 5 attorney room to wherever he's going after he's done
6 meeting with his lawyer.

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. You would agree with me that from the index that 9 you had, that that wouldn't tell you that information?

10 A. It probably does, I just don't understand it.

11 Q. Right. Well, that's--

12 A. If I worked there, it might be a different story.

13 Q. Right. So just from looking at this document,
14 you don't know which of these camera angles are going to 15 tell you which hallway that would be?

16 A. No, I don't know.

17 Q. And so you don't-- and just looking at this 18 index, you don't know which hallways or which series of 19 hallways or passageways or whatever Mr. Dertinger is 20 going to take until he gets to his pod. Right?

21 A. After the meeting?

22 Q. Right.

23 A. I don't know, no.

24 Q. All right. So the hour-and-a-half that you're 25 looking at this video, you can't-- you're not looking

1 for hallways or his walk back from an attorney-client
2 meeting room because you don't know which camera angle
3 those hallways are on, do you?

4 A. No. And in the first place I'm still trying to 5 get accustomed to the system.

6 Q. All right. So you could've made a request
7 specific to CCA that said, I want video on this date of 8 these-- the hallways leading from the attorney-client
9 rooms to Mr. Dertinger's pod. Right?

10 A. It's possible we could've, yes.

11 Q. And CCA-- because they work there, like you said,
12 they would know which hallways you're talking about.
13 They could've said, no problem, here you go. Right?

14 A. I believe so, yes.

15 Q. Same way with the pod video. You could've asked
16 CCA, I want to see video from the pod on this date.
17 Right?

18 A. It's possible, yes.

19 Q. And then you wouldn't have had to learn a new
20 system or deal with getting the videos from the U.S.
21 Attorney's Office or anything like that, they would just 22 show up on a disk and you'd plug it into your computer?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. But if you wanted to look at the attorney-client
25 video, you had to look at these. Right?

1 A. I did not want to look at the attorney-client
2 video.

3 Q. Okay. At what point did you communicate the
4 results of your search to anyone at the U.S. Attorney's
5 Office?

6 A. Like I said, I had a brief conversation with Erin
7 Tomasic that I possibly saw the defendant walking down a
8 hallway being escorted by what looked to be a CCA
9 employee.

10 Q. All right. So at a certain point you saw what
11 you thought was Mr. Dertinger walking down a hallway
12 with a CCA guard or employee?

13 A. It was from the back and it was short hair,
14 slender, white male. I mean, it's-- there's quite a few
15 people in there like that, but I-- to me it sort of 16 looked like him.

17 Q. Did you communicate this to her in person, over
18 the phone, over e-mail?

19 A. I don't recall, but I believe it was in person.

20 Q. Was that-- it would've been here at the U.S.
21 Attorney's Office?

22 A. Most likely, yes.

23 Q. Would it have been before or after Judge
24 Robinson's emergency hearing about the video-recording?

25 A. I believe it would've been before.

1 Q. And what were you told by Ms. Tomasic in regards
2 to the review of the video? To keep looking or to stop
3 or--

4 A. At what point?

5 Q. At that point when you told her that you thought
6 what you believed-- you had found what you believed to 7 be Mr. Dertinger.

8 A. I don't recall the conversation after that.

9 Q. So you don't recall her giving you any 10 instructions to change or modify what you were doing?

11 A. Not that I recall, no.

12 Q. Who else was present for that discussion?

13 A. I-- if anybody was, I don't remember anybody
14 being there.

15 Q. Does Ms. Tomasic ever ask you if you had found
16 any attorney-client recorded meetings in your search of 17 the video?

18 A. I don't recall her asking me that, no.

19 Q. Did anyone ever ask you that?

20 A. Not that you recall, no.

21 Q. Did you ever review any meeting or did you ever
22 review a video of any meeting between two people at CCA?

23 A. When I met with the Special Master, he did show
24 me a video of the defendant meeting with his attorney
25 and he asked me if that looked familiar.

1 Q. And what did you tell him?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Aside from that, during your review in July and
4 early August of these videos, did you ever see a video
5 of two or three people meeting in-- in a room?

6 A. Not that I recall, no.

7 Q. Is it your testimony that the only video you saw
8 was Mr.-- what could be Mr. Dertinger and a guard
9 walking down a hallway?

10 A. Well, there was lots of video that I saw because 11 I had thumbnails up so there was lots of video going.
12 But pertinent-wise, no, the only thing I remember is 13 seeing who I thought could've possibly been the 14 defendant.

15 Q. At a certain point does Ms. Tomasic discuss using 16 a taint agent or a filter agent with you?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And why-- what was the-- how did that discussion
19 go?

20 A. She asked if we should use a taint agent and I--
21 I thought maybe I can review it because it wouldn't be
22 fair to another agent to take time out of their caseload
23 to review this when I could do it. And, like I said
24 before, if it-- there happens to be a meeting between a
25 attorney and their client, I would, you know, flag that

1 and log that time, yeah, so it could be reviewed by
2 someone else.

3 Q. So when does this discussion occur?

4 A. I don't recall that.

5 Q. Is it before or after you have the videos?

6 A. I don't recall.

7 Q. The discussion about having a filter agent was in
8 response to the possibility of there being recorded
9 attorney-client meetings in the videos?

10 A. Possibility, yes.

11 Q. And the assumption at that point would be that 12 that those meetings would implicate the attorney-client
13 privilege. And when you think there might be privileged 14 materials in something, you should use a filter agent to 15 review it first?

16 A. It was my understanding, yes.

17 Q. And so Ms. Tomasic expressed to you the idea that 18 if these recordings are on there, they're potentially 19 privileged and we should use a filter agent?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And your response was, well, we're not certain 22 that they're on there. So if I come across them, I will 23 flag them and just not look at them?

24 A. I said if I happen to run across anything, yeah,
25 I would not look at that, I would flag that probably by

1 logging the time, I don't remember exactly how I-- I put
2 that.

3 Q. So the way that these camera angles are set up,
4 though, you wouldn't run across an attorney-client
5 meeting when you're reviewing something else, you would
6 have to affirmatively choose one of the attorney rooms?

7 A. I don't know. I-- I had not looked at the video,
8 I didn't know how it was set up, how I was going to do
9 things.

10 Q. All right. So when you go to the video, the 11 first thing you do is look at the index to choose which 12 DVR you're going to look at first. You presumably see
13 that DVR 6 lists a bunch of attorney rooms in there.

14 What communication, if any, did that prompt you
15 to have with anyone at the U.S. Attorney's Office to 16 relay: You guys realize that this DVR says it's got a
17 bunch of attorney rooms on it?

18 A. I don't know if I ever relayed that to them.

19 Q. So it didn't surprise you enough to prompt you to 20 have any communication with them?

21 A. I don't recall.

22 Q. All right. I want to talk about recorded phone
23 calls for a moment.

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. As a part of this investigation into the

1 contraband trafficking, the investigative team acquired
2 thousands of recorded phone calls?

3 A. I'd say that's fair, yes.

4 Q. Of those thousands of recorded phone calls, about
5 240 of them had recorded conversations between 6 defendants and their attorneys?

7 A. I don't know.

8 Q. Was it your job to review recorded phone calls as 9 part of this investigation?

10 A. I reviewed some, yes.

11 Q. What instructions, if any, were you given by the 12 United States Attorney's Office about what to do if you
13 ran across what you believed to be a conversation
14 between a defendant and an attorney?

15 A. I don't know if I was ever given instruction.

16 Q. All right. Did you ever come across a
17 conversation between who you believed to be an attorney
18 and a defendant?

19 A. Not in the Black case.

20 Q. Did it happen in a different case?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And how did you respond when you-- or what did
23 you do in response to that belief?

24 A. I stopped listening to the phone call and I told
25 Erin Tomasic about it.

1 Q. And was that in the Huff case?

2 A. Greg Rapp, et al., yes, but she was a defendant
3 in that case, yes.

4 Q. So you stopped listening and you notified Ms.
5 Tomasic about it?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What instructions did Ms. Tomasic give you
8 regarding that call after you had notified her?

9 A. She said don't listen to the phone calls.

10 Q. Plural, don't listen to the phone calls, or just 11 that call?

12 A. Well, attorney-client calls is what I meant.

13 Q. All right. So at some point as part of the 14 investigation into Rapp or Huff, which-- let's back up a
15 second. Those cases were related. Right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Dertinger was never charged in the Black
18 investigation--

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. -- right? Huff was never charged in the Black
21 investigation?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. But they were both suspects as part of the CCA
24 contraband investigation?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. So you were reviewing Ms. Huff's phone calls as
2 part of the contraband investigation?

3 A. I don't know if I reviewed Ms. Huff's calls
4 personally as part of the Black investigation.

5 Q. Were you told why you were supposed to be
6 listening to her calls?

7 A. We were furthering the investigation, getting
8 ready for trial on-- on Mr. Rapp and Mr. Dertinger.

9 Q. So in order to get ready for trial on Mr.
10 Dertinger and Mr. Rapp, you were listening to recorded
11 phone calls of Ms. Huff?

12 A. I've listened to some of her calls, yes, but
13 that's not where I ran into the attorney-client call.

14 Q. When did you run into the attorney-client call?

15 A. I don't remember the date.

16 Q. All right. Why were you listening to her calls
17 at the time you were-- what-- what reason was given to 18 you to listen to her calls at the time you ran across
19 the attorney-client call?

20 A. It was not her calls that were the 21 attorney-client calls. I guess I'm not understanding
22 your question.

23 Q. And I'm not sure I understand your answer so
24 let's back up a second. You said that you overheard a
25 call between an attorney and a client as part of

1 something other than the Black investigation or Black
2 case?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. All right. Who was the defendant that you heard
5 speaking on the phone on that recorded call?

6 A. Greg Rapp.

7 Q. All right. And once you had listened to that
8 call, you notified Ms. Tomasic about it?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And she told you, yeah, don't listen to it?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And she told you don't listen to it because it's 13 potentially privileged because it's a communication
14 between an attorney and a client?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Were there other calls between what you believed 17 to be an attorney and a defendant that you reviewed as 18 part of either Black, Rapp, Huff or any of the other
19 related cases?

20 A. Not that I recall running into, no.

21 Q. All right. So how was it-- let's talk about the 22 call you did run across. How did you realize it was a
23 call between an attorney and a client?

24 A. I assumed it was because they started talking 25 about some court hearings, so I assumed it was going to

1 be his-- his attorney.

2 Q. Okay. And how long into the conversation did it
3 take before you realized that that's what it was?

4 A. I'm just estimating, but, you know, 10, 15, 20
5 seconds. I don't know.

6 Q. All right. And so it's only at that point that
7 you get instruction from the U.S. Attorney's Office,
8 yeah, don't listen to those calls. If you run across
9 something you think is an attorney-client call, you
10 shouldn't listen to them?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Before then you hadn't received any instructions
13 about what to do in that situation?

14 A. Not that I recall, no.

15 Q. So you also worked as an agent on the 16 investigation into Ashley Huff?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And part of your work on that case involved
19 reviewing recorded phone calls?

20 A. I've listened to some of her calls, yes.

21 Q. Ms. Huff had a lawyer in that case?

22 A. She did, yes.

23 Q. Her lawyer is named Bill Sessions or William
24 Sessions?

25 A. From what I recall, yes.

1 Q. You also discovered that Ms. Huff spoke to
2 another lawyer about her case?

3 A. I was told that, yes.

4 Q. That lawyer was a friend of Ms. Huff's mother?

5 A. I don't know.

6 Q. I want to show you what's been admitted-- or I'm 7 sorry, marked for identification as Exhibit 512. The
8 bottom part of Exhibit 512 includes an e-mail address
9 under the "from" portion of it. Do you recognize that 10 e-mail address as belonging to Erin Tomasic?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And that date of this communication is 13 March 11th, 2016?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. To your knowledge, Ms. Tomasic was still employed
16 by the United States Attorney's Office at that time?

17 A. To my knowledge, yes.

18 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit
19 Exhibit 512.

20 MR. CLYMER: No objection, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: 512 admitted. We're going to 22 take a-- a break after you inquire about this exhibit.

23 MR. BELL: Yes, Your Honor.

24 BY MR. BELL:

25 Q. So Exhibit 512 is an e-mail sent by Ms. Tomasic

1 to Matthew Cahill. Correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Mr. Cahill is a retired Deputy United States
4 Marshal?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And the context of this e-mail is a request Ms.
7 Tomasic is making to Deputy Cahill for recorded
8 telephone calls from CCA?

9 A. That's what it appears, yes.

10 Q. And she has asked for recordings or calls made
11 from CCA to certain telephone numbers?

12 A. That's what it appears, yes.

13 Q. And the middle number that she has put there is 14 "mom's lawyer friend." Did I see that correctly?

15 A. That's what it says, yes.

16 Q. Ms. Huff was known to use other people's PIN
17 numbers to make phone calls out of CCA?

18 A. I believe so, but I don't recall, but...

19 Q. All right. So in this request she's asking for 20 anybody else's calls except for Ms. Huff, Mr. Dertinger
21 and somebody else to mom's lawyer friend?

22 A. That's what it says, yes.

23 Q. Okay. So she's asking for calls made perhaps by 24 Ms. Huff to a person she knows to be a lawyer?

25 A. To mom's lawyer friend.

1 Q. Right.

2 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I am done questioning
3 the witness about this exhibit if you'd like to take a
4 break.

5 THE COURT: All right. Let's take a break
6 for 15 minutes.

7 (Recess).

8 THE COURT: All right. You can be seated.
9 You can proceed.

10 MR. BELL: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 BY MR. BELL:

12 Q. As a part of your work on this case, you attended
13 a sentencing hearing for Ashley Huff on August 3rd,
14 2016?

15 A. Yes, I believe so.

16 Q. Before that August 3rd hearing, you spoke with 17 Ms. Tomasic in preparation for the hearing?

18 A. I'm sure I did, but I don't recall what the 19 conversation was.

20 Q. All right. You spoke with Ms. Flannigan in 21 preparation for the hearing?

22 A. I don't recall if she was there or not.

23 Q. Did you-- you assisted Ms. Tomasic or Ms.
24 Flannigan in preparing for that hearing?

25 A. I don't recall.

1 Q. I'm going to show you what's been marked as
2 Defense Exhibit 492.

3 A. Yes.

4 MR. CLYMER: I'm sorry, what was that 5 number?

6 MR. BELL: 492.

7 BY MR. BELL:

8 Q. Does 492 appear to be a pleading filed in Ms.
9 Huff's case?

10 A. It looks like it, yes.

11 Q. And on the third page of that document is it
12 signed by Scott Rask?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And does Mr. Rask identify himself as an 15 Assistant United States Attorney?

16 A. Yes.

17 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit
18 Exhibit 492.

19 MR. CLYMER: No objection.

20 THE COURT: 492 admitted.

21 BY MR. BELL:

22 Q. So let me turn to-- your attention to the second
23 page of this document where it states that, "Ms. Tomasic
24 reported that she decided to listen to one of Ms. Huff's
25 calls before a contested sentencing hearing scheduled

1 for August 3rd, 2016." Did I read that correctly?

2 A. It looks like it, yes.

3 Q. And during that call that she describes-- did I
4 read this correctly from Paragraph 2, "During the 5 conversation Ms. Tomasic stated that the friend held the 6 phone in a manner so that it picked up some of the 7 conversation with Mr. Session." Did I read that
8 correctly?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. So in preparation for the sentencing hearing on 11 August 3rd, Ms. Tomasic listened to a call that included
12 a conversation between Ms. Huff and her lawyer, Mr.
13 Sessions.

14 A. It looks like it, yes, from that document.

15 Q. What conversations did you have with Ms. Tomasic
16 about this call?

17 A. I don't recall. I remember some conversations
18 about-- a conversation between possibly Ms. Huff and her
19 mother's friend who is an attorney, but I don't recall -
20 if I had a conversation - the content of that
21 conversation.

22 Q. So you don't remember if there was a conversation
23 with Ms. Tomasic about a call with Ms. Huff and her
24 lawyer both on the line?

25 A. I don't recall, no.

1 Q. If there had been a conversation about such a
2 call, that would've been inconsistent with Ms. Tomasic's
3 earlier statement to you not to listen to calls between
4 an attorney and a client?

5 MR. CLYMER: Objection, Your Honor,
6 completely hypothetical.

7 THE COURT: Overruled. Answer if you can.

8 THE WITNESS: Can you repeat the question,
9 please?

10 BY MR. BELL:

11 Q. Sure. If there was a conversation about a phone
12 call between Ms. Huff and her lawyer, Mr. Session,
13 listening to that call would've been inconsistent with 14 the directions she gave you when you ran across the--
15 that kind of call in the Rapp case?

16 A. I believe so, yes.

17 Q. And so I have your testimony correctly, you're 18 not saying that you never had a conversation with Ms.
19 Tomasic about this call between Ms. Huff and her lawyer,
20 you just don't remember if you did?

21 A. I don't remember if I did or not.

22 Q. Let me show you what's been marked as Defense
23 Exhibit 480.

24 A. Okay. Organize these.

25 Q. Does Exhibit 480 also appear to be a pleading

1 filed in Ms. Huff's case?

2 A. It appears so, yes.

3 Q. And on the fourth page of the document is it also
4 signed by Scott Rask?

5 A. On the third and fourth.

6 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit
7 Defense Exhibit 480.

8 MR. CLYMER: No objection.

9 THE COURT: 480 admitted.

10 BY MR. BELL:

11 Q. So let me turn your attention to the second page
12 of Exhibit 480, Paragraph 3. In this statement it says,
13 "According to AUSA Kim Flannigan, in connection with 14 preparing for the sentence hearing on August 3rd, 2016,
15 this particular call was marked as an exhibit. So AUSA
16 Flannigan and the case agents were aware of this
17 particular call that 'involved Mr. Session.'" Did I
18 read that correctly?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Do you remember any conversation about marking a
21 specific call as an exhibit for the August 3rd hearing?

22 A. I don't recall, no.

23 Q. You were one of the case agents on the 24 investigation?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. It goes on to state, "Case agents may have also
2 listened to this recorded call." Did I read that
3 correctly?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Did you listen to this call?

6 A. That call doesn't sound familiar to me, no.

7 Q. So is your testimony that you know you didn't
8 review it because you'd remember if you did, or that you
9 just don't remember if you did or not?

10 A. I don't recall if I listened to that or not. It
11 doesn't sound familiar, no.

12 Q. It goes on to state, "AUSA Flannigan does not
13 recall ever personally listening to this call, though
14 she may have been present when the recorded call was 15 played in preparation for the sentence hearing." Did I
16 read that correctly?

17 A. Yes, you did.

18 Q. And as part of preparing for the sentencing
19 hearing on August 3rd, were recorded calls played?

20 A. I don't recall if they were or not. I'd have to 21 review the transcript.

22 Q. Well, not at the hearing.

23 A. Oh, I'm sorry.

24 Q. I mean, that's a bad question. In preparation
25 for that hearing were recorded calls played?

1 A. I don't recall if I was involved in the
2 preparation of that-- that hearing or not. I know that
3 week and part of the week prior I was gone on vacation.

4 Q. So it may have occurred in preparation for this
5 hearing, but you don't recall if it did or not?

6 A. Yeah, I don't recall.

7 Q. At some point you learned that Ms. Huff's
8 attorney had filed a motion saying that the government
9 had listened to calls between her and her attorney?

10 A. If I did, I don't remember that, no.

11 Q. Were there any conversations that you had with 12 any members of the United States Attorney's Office about 13 Mr. Session's allegations that you had listened to calls
14 between him and his client?

15 A. That I had?

16 Q. That anyone had on the investigation team.

17 A. I don't recall that, no.

18 Q. Did you learn at some point that he had made that 19 allegation?

20 A. It sounds familiar, yes, but I-- I don't
21 remember.

22 Q. Let me show you what's been marked as
23 Defense 477. Does Exhibit 477 appear to be a pleading
24 filed in the Huff case?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Turn to Page 8. Does Erin Tomasic's signature
2 appear on this pleading?

3 A. It does.

4 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit
5 Exhibit 477.

6 MR. CLYMER: No objection.

7 THE COURT: 477 admitted.

8 BY MR. BELL:

9 Q. Does this appear to be a response filed by Ms.
10 Tomasic to that allegation?

11 A. It appears so, yes.

12 Q. So let me turn your attention to the second page,
13 Paragraph 2. Does Ms. Tomasic's written response start
14 with the word here, "However, there is no allegation,
15 nor is there any evidence, that any recording concerning 16 this defendant has been requested by or provided to the 17 USAO or any other government agency." Did I read that 18 correctly?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So you know that you had requested Ms. Huff's
21 calls. Right?

22 A. That I had requested Ms. Huff's calls?

23 Q. The government had requested Ms. Huff's calls.

24 A. They had requested Ms. Huff's calls, yes.

25 Q. And here Ms. Tomasic writes-- she doesn't deny

1 it, she's just saying that Ms. Huff can't prove it.

2 Right?

3 A. Can you repeat that question for me, please?

4 Q. Right. Ms. Tomasic's response here does not deny
5 that they requested the calls, the government requested
6 the calls, she's just saying that Ms. Huff can't prove
7 it.

8 A. I don't know what she's saying there.

9 Q. The last sentence of Paragraph 2, "In any event,
10 there is no allegation nor is there any evidence that 11 any recorded calls have been provided to the USAO in 12 this case." Did I read that correctly?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Was there evidence that recorded calls had been 15 turned over to the USAO in that case?

16 A. From the Huff, et al., case? Yes, we had
17 requested calls.

18 Q. Is that statement true then, that sentence right
19 there?

20 A. That sentence, yes, it's not true. We had 21 requested calls.

22 Q. Paragraph 3.

23 A. But without reading this whole document, I don't 24 know the context of that.

25 Q. Paragraph 3 starts with the allegation by Mr.

1 Session, put in quotes, "Confidential legal
2 communications have been used by the United States in
3 pending litigation and have been disclosed in discovery
4 to other defendants and their counsel." Did I read that
5 correctly?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And the document goes on to say, "There is no
8 allegation nor is there any evidence that the alleged 9 activity has occurred in this case." Did I read that
10 correctly?

11 A. That's what it says, yes.

12 Q. However, at least from looking at these prior two
13 exhibits, there was evidence that they had reviewed
14 attorney-client recorded calls in this case?

15 MR. CLYMER: Objection, Your Honor, it
16 misstates what the document says. It says "confidential
17 legal communications."

18 THE COURT: All right. I'll sustain as to 19 that phraseology.

20 BY MR. BELL:

21 Q. Were you aware of any effort that Ms. Tomasic or 22 Ms. Flannigan made to alert Ms. Huff or Mr. Sessions
23 that they had heard a call recorded between the two of 24 them?

25 A. I was not a part of that, no, I'm not aware of 1 any.

2 Q. At some point the government entered into a
3 sentencing agreement with Ms. Huff?

4 A. If I remember right, yes.

5 Q. The sentencing agreement called for her to 6 receive a lower sentence than she was otherwise facing?

7 A. I believe so, yes.

8 Q. As a condition of receiving that sentencing
9 agreement, she had to withdraw her pending motions?

10 A. Without looking at the agreement, I-- I don't
11 recall.

12 Q. I'm going to show you what's been marked as
13 Exhibit 479.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Does 479 appear to be the sentencing agreement in 16 Ms. Huff's case?

17 A. It appears so, yes.

18 Q. And on the eighth page does it have the 19 signatures of Ms. Tomasic and Mr. Rask?

20 A. Yes.

21 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit
22 Exhibit 479.

23 MR. CLYMER: No objection.

24 THE COURT: 479 admitted.

25 BY MR. BELL:

1 Q. Let me turn your attention to the second page of
2 that document. There's a paragraph titled "Defendant's
3 Agreements"?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And among those agreements under Paragraph B
6 requires her to withdraw any pending motions before the 7 Court; is that correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And so that would've included the allegation
10 regarding the listening to the phone call?

11 A. Sorry, I couldn't hear you.

12 Q. That would've included the allegation about 13 listening to her attorney-client phone call?

14 A. I assume so, yes.

15 Q. So during your work reviewing the phone calls on 16 this case, you recognized a call being between an 17 attorney and a client just because of the things they 18 were talking about?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. The content of the call?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Are there other instances where you've heard a
23 recorded call and someone picked up and a receptionist
24 picks up the phone and says "law office," or something
25 to that--

1 A. I don't recall if I did or not.

2 Q. And the call that you listened to inadvertently,
3 the person didn't identify that they were a lawyer or
4 a-- with a law office when they answered the phone call?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. So you didn't have any way of knowing until you
7 had listened to some content of the call that it was a
8 call between an attorney and a client?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. So you know you're not supposed to listen to 11 calls between attorneys and clients. Aside from 12 listening to the content and figuring out it might be a
13 call between an attorney and client, what steps do you
14 do to make sure that you don't listen to one of those 15 conversations?

16 A. I just don't play it.

17 Q. All right. And how-- when you say "don't play
18 it," do you mean at some point after you've determined
19 that it's a call between an attorney and a client?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. All right. So what do you do beforehand to make 22 sure that you don't even hit "play" on a call between an
23 attorney and a client?

24 A. I don't know who's-- who they're calling so I
25 start listening and realize that, hey, this might be an

1 attorney and I stop listening.

2 Q. And so when you say you realize it might be an
3 attorney and you stop listening, does that depend on,
4 again, the content of the call itself?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Are there any steps that you take before you
7 listen to the content of the call to try and determine
8 whether if it's a call between an attorney and a client?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Have you ever been told by the U.S. Attorney's
11 Office that there are certain steps you should take 12 before listening to a call to determine whether it's 13 between an attorney and a client?

14 A. None that I remember.

15 Q. Would you agree with me that just listening to 16 the content of the call itself, it's sometimes difficult
17 to tell that a person might be talking to their lawyer?

18 A. I'd have to-- under that circumstance, I-- I'd 19 have to listen and see, I...

20 Q. Well, if-- for instance, if no one answers the 21 phone and says "law office" or thank you for calling the 22 law office and they just jump right into the 23 conversation, there's nothing about that first part of 24 the call that would tell you it's a call between an
25 attorney and a client?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. You've reviewed I imagine hundreds of recorded
3 calls as part of this case?

4 A. At a minimum, yes.

5 Q. Do defendants often talk about-- on those calls
6 to-- about their case or what sort of sentences they're 7 facing?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Do they also talk about plea deals they've been 10 offered?

11 A. If they do, I don't remember specific
12 conversations. But yes, I mean, they most likely talk
13 about that.

14 Q. They might talk about suppression motions that 15 they might file or want to have filed or have filed?

16 A. Like I said, I don't remember any specific 17 conversations. But yeah, it's possible they talk about
18 that.

19 Q. And they might ask for advice, like should I take 20 this deal, should I take this to trial, stuff like that?

21 A. Again, no specific circumstances I remember. But 22 yes, I mean, I'm sure they talk about stuff like that.

23 Q. And your understanding is if those questions or 24 comments or communications are made to someone who's not 25 a lawyer, then it's fair game, right, you can listen to

1 those calls, there's nothing privileged about them?

2 A. Well, I-- if they're talking personal stuff, I
3 really don't care about that either. I mean, I'll
4 minimize calls, you know, fast-forward a little bit, you
5 know, to see if there's anything relevant to my
6 investigation.

7 Q. Right. And so but my question was: Your
8 understanding is when they're talking about their case,
9 about suppression motions, asking for advice about trial
10 or taking a plea deal, unless they're either-- talking
11 to a lawyer, then there's nothing legally that would 12 stop you from listening to those calls?

13 A. Because there's a preamble before every phone 14 call that says these are not privileged and subject to 15 recording and monitoring.

16 Q. So the only thing that makes them hands-off and 17 that you can't listen to them is if the person on the 18 other end of the phone is a lawyer. Right?

19 A. I don't know if those are actually privileged,
20 but I'm not going to listen to attorney-client calls
21 because it's not worth it.

22 Q. Would you agree with me that it's difficult for 23 you to know whether the person on the other side of the 24 line is a lawyer or not?

25 A. Reviewing phone calls, I mean, I-- through the

1 course of the investigation you figure out-- you
2 recognize voices, who's family. If there's a new voice
3 then, yeah, I'm going to perk up a little bit and-- and 4 see who they're trying-- they're talking to.

5 Q. Would you agree with me that it's difficult to 6 determine whether the person on the other side of the-- 7 other end of the call is an attorney or not?

8 A. It just depends. I mean, I'd have to listen to 9 that specific instance.

10 Q. Did you take any steps to match attorneys' known
11 telephone numbers to the call detail reports that you
12 get to see if there are calls to a law office?

13 A. I hadn't-- I have not before.

14 Q. Do you take any steps to even see if any of the 15 calls are made to the person's listed attorney in the 16 case before you start reviewing the calls?

17 A. I don't know if I'd know how to get their 18 attorney's number unless it was listed in the phone book
19 or something like that.

20 Q. Have you ever attempted to do so?

21 A. No.

22 Q. All right. As you sit here today, Agent Stokes,
23 given sort of the inherent shortcomings, is it possible
24 that you've listened to a call between a defendant and 25 an attorney and just based on the content not realized

1 that that's what you were listening to?

2 A. I don't want to say yes and I don't want to say
3 no. I mean, I don't know.

4 Q. It's just-- it's possible, but you--

5 A. I don't believe I have.

6 Q. It's possible, you just don't know?

7 A. I don't believe I have, no.

8 Q. Okay. One of the people that you-- or agencies
9 that you worked with in this investigation was the 10 United States Marshal's Office?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Are you familiar with supervisor United States
13 Marshal Michael Thibault?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. I'm going to show you what's been marked as
16 Exhibit 498.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Does 498 appear to be a transcript of a
19 proceeding in United States versus Imon Wright?

20 A. It appears so, yes.

21 Q. If you would turn to the 19th page of 22 Exhibit 498. I apologize, Page 17.

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. At Line 11 does the transcript begin to record
25 statements made by Marshal Thibault?

1 A. It appears so, yes.

2 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit
3 Exhibit 498.

4 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I have an objection
5 because I don't believe it's relevant.

6 THE COURT: I'm not sure I know what the 7 relevance is either, but I'll allow it subject to 8 connection. Exhibit 498 admitted.

9 BY MR. BELL:

10 Q. Let me now turn your page to-- attention to 11 Page 19 of the exhibit. And I'm going to direct your 12 attention down to Line 23 of Page 19.

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Does that start with a question by the Court, it
15 says: "What's the marshal's policy on audio-taping?"

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Marshal Thibault responds: "Your Honor, all the 18 cameras, just like here in the courthouse, are recorded
19 on motion." Did I read that correctly?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. "The main reason we have cameras at CCA and here
22 is strictly for security." Did I read that correctly?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. So then let me turn your attention to the next
25 page. Starting at Line 9 Marshal Thibault says: "All

1 people going in and out of CCA are videotaped, manual
2 recorded. And it cuts two ways. We also have video
3 evidence of attorneys doing things at CCA they shouldn't
4 have. So the cameras are there for security. I can
5 assure you, in 20 years of me doing this that no video 6 or audio-recordings have been made surreptitiously to be 7 used against the public defender or their defendants or 8 anybody else." Did I read that correctly?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Does it appear to you from these statements that 11 at least Marshal Thibault knows that there's cameras
12 that record at CCA?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And that he knows that there are-- those cameras
15 include the cameras that record in the attorney-client
16 rooms at CCA?

17 A. I don't know much about the-- the cameras there,
18 so I can't say yes or no to that.

19 Q. Would you also look at the first page of that 20 document. Is this transcript made of a hearing that 21 occurred on August 5th at 1:34 p.m.?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. All right. So August 5th at 1:30 p.m., Marshal
24 Thibault is telling people-- or at least telling Judge
25 James that there is recording at CCA. Right?

1 A. That's what it appears, yes.

2 Q. Let me show you Exhibit 458. Do you recognize
3 Craig Beam as being an employee of the United States
4 Marshals Service?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Does this appear to be an e-mail Craig Beam sent
7 on August 5th, 2016, at 3:43 p.m.?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Same day, just a couple hours later?

10 A. Appears so, yes.

11 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit
12 Exhibit 458.

13 MR. CLYMER: May I have a moment, Your
14 Honor, just to look at it? I was a step behind there.

15 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

16 MR. CLYMER: No objection.

17 THE COURT: 458 admitted.

18 BY MR. BELL:

19 Q. On that date, two hours later after Marshal
20 Thibault's statement, does Mr. Beam write, "I've just 21 spoken with Warden Linda Thomas. The video from the 22 inmate visitation rooms is not recorded." Did I read
23 that correctly?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. So it appears that Mr. Beam, at least repeating

1 the language from Ms. Thomas, thinks they're not
2 recorded. Marshal Thibault thinks they are recorded.

3 What did you learn from the United States
4 Marshals Service about whether there was recording in 5 those rooms?

6 A. I don't know if I've learned anything from the
7 marshals service.

8 Q. Did you ever ask the marshals service whether 9 there were recordings in those rooms?

10 A. I did not, no.

11 Q. Agent Stokes, you've talked about a lot of topics
12 today. Are there any written statements you've made,
13 reports, e-mails or things like that that concern the-- 14 any of the topics that we've testified about-- or that 15 you've testified about?

16 A. If there is I don't-- I don't remember off the 17 top of my head.

18 Q. Would those be preserved I would assume by the 19 KBI?

20 A. Any report I've written has gone to our case file
21 and sent, you know, out in discovery.

22 Q. Okay. E-mails also be preserved by the KBI?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. At a certain point were you ordered to turn over
25 your laptop to the Special Master?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Before that order you knew that the Court had 3 impounded all of the computers that belonged to the 4 United States Attorney's Office?

5 A. I had heard that, yes.

6 Q. Did you-- what conversations did you have about
7 whether that order applied to your laptop?

8 A. I know I had a conversation with my boss to find
9 out what I needed to do and I-- from there I don't know
10 what he did.

11 Q. All right. Was that-- and that was before or 12 after the judge ordered your laptop taken?

13 A. That was way before.

14 Q. All right. So way before the judge makes an 15 order about your laptop, you have a conversation with 16 your boss about what you should do with your computer.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And what are you told?

19 A. After-- I don't know who he talked to, most 20 likely our legal counsel, didn't know exactly if that
21 applied to the KBI or not so I was told don't manipulate
22 anything, don't delete anything. You know, if ordered
23 by the Court to turn it over, we would do that.

24 Q. So-- and in that-- you were told by the KBI don't 25 change anything and don't delete anything on your

1 laptop?

2 A. Yeah, don't manipulate it in any way.

3 Q. So did you then preserve all-- all the e-mails on 4 your laptop or did you delete some?

5 A. I don't delete e-mails. I mean, I put stuff in
6 the deleted folder but that doesn't get emptied. But I
7 believe the KBI has all the e-mails on the-- the master
8 server or whatever that is.

9 Q. So the boss that you had the conversation with,
10 who was that?

11 A. Doug Younger.

12 Q. I'm sorry?

13 A. Doug Younger.

14 Q. Younger. And then at a certain point you were 15 ordered to turn over the laptop. And between the time
16 that you had the conversation with the KBI and the time
17 you turned over the laptop, you hadn't changed or 18 deleted anything on it?

19 A. No.

20 Q. There's one point I want to make very clear
21 because I think I asked some bad questions and-- and I
22 may have confused myself.

23 When did you first become aware that the video
24 that had been obtained from the CCA would include video
25 from the attorney-client rooms?

1 A. I-- I don't recall--

2 Q. All right.

3 A. -- exactly when.

4 Q. But it would've been some point, if I remember
5 your prior testimony correctly--

6 MR. CLYMER: I'm going to object to counsel
7 characterizing prior testimony. I think the record will 8 characterize the prior testimony.

9 THE COURT: All right. I think it's
10 appropriate to frame the question this way, so I'll 11 overrule.

12 BY MR. BELL:

13 Q. If I understand your prior testimony correctly,
14 it was, you did not know that there were attorney-client
15 videos in the batch of video that you had gotten from 16 the CCA until we had filed our motion in front of-- with 17 Judge Robinson; is that right?

18 A. In having a conversation with Erin Tomasic, you
19 know, before I viewed the videos, I mean, there was a
20 conversation. If there is any attorney-client video,
21 you know, not to watch that obviously. But I believe I
22 didn't actually know there actually was attorney-client
23 rooms being recorded until later.

24 Q. Okay. So you're aware of the possibility when 25 you had the conversation with Ms. Tomasic and then you

1 become certain about it later on?

2 A. Thinking about it now, yes, that sounds fair.

3 Q. And the conversation you had with Ms. Tomasic
4 about what to review, that would've occurred after you
5 got the videos?

6 A. I can't say yes or no to that, I don't recall
7 when.

8 Q. Okay. But it certainly would've been-- become 9 once you knew you were going to be looking at them?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. And that was late July I think you said?

12 A. Early, mid. I-- I don't know. I know I went on 13 vacation in late July.

14 Q. All right.

15 MR. BELL: Just a moment. I have no further
16 questions. Thank you, Mr. Stokes.

17 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

18 THE COURT: All right. Questions from 19 defense counsel?

20 MR. GUASTELLO: Briefly, Judge.

21 CROSS EXAMINATION

22 BY MR. GUASTELLO:

23 Q. Agent Stokes, how are you doing today?

24 A. Good. How are you?

25 Q. I'm doing well, thank you.

1 My name is David Guastello. I represent Karl
2 Carter in the U.S. v. Black case.

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. You indicated previously that you started gearing
5 up in your capacity of investigation for U.S. v. Black
6 in March of '16?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And how were you gearing up for that?

9 A. Well, prior to that we had started getting 10 information about the introduction of contraband into
11 CCA, but we were preparing for a trial in another case
12 when we ran across that information. Other agents and 13 the marshals service became involved. And once our 14 trial settled, then we moved over to assist with the 15 investigation into CCA.

16 Q. And you participated in that investigation?

17 A. I did.

18 Q. At what point during that course of that 19 investigation did Mr. Carter become a target?

20 A. I don't recall exactly when.

21 Q. Eventually was there a search warrant that was 22 executed on CCA?

23 A. There was.

24 Q. Okay. Did you participate in the execution of 25 that search warrant?

1 A. I did.

2 Q. Okay. So you were physically present at CCA?

3 A. I was.

4 Q. Okay. And do you recall the date or dates when
5 that search warrant was executed?

6 A. I believe if I'm right it was April 8th, 2016,
7 into the morning of April 9th.

8 Q. So that would've been April 8th and 9th of 2016?

9 A. If I remember right, yes.

10 Q. You were there. Were other members of the KBI
11 there?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Were there other law enforcement agencies that 14 were present?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. What were those agencies?

17 A. If I remember all of them right, it was the KBI,
18 U.S. Marshals Service, U.S. Secret Service, the Internal 19 Revenue Service. I believe the Kansas Highway Patrol
20 was there. I don't recall if there was any others or 21 not.

22 Q. So today at least your recollection was there
23 were I believe at least five law enforcement agencies
24 that participated?

25 A. I would say yes.

1 Q. Okay. Were there any members of or employees of
2 the U.S. Attorney's Office that were present for the
3 execution of that search warrant?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Who were those members?

6 A. Erin Tomasic and Chris Oakley.

7 Q. Anybody else?

8 A. If there was, I don't recall.

9 Q. And what were your duties as they relate to the 10 execution of the search warrant?

11 A. I was assigned to conduct interviews.

12 Q. So you were interviewing the-- the inmates at 13 CCA?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Did you participate in any other capacity?

16 A. There was some guards there I interviewed as 17 well.

18 Q. And obviously all of the individuals that you
19 interviewed were in custody. Correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. Presumably were they all at
22 Leavenworth-CCA on-- for federal charges?

23 A. I don't know if it was all federal charges or 24 not. I know a majority of them were, yes.

25 Q. Was it at least your understanding that at the

1 time of your interview of those inmates, that at least
2 with regard to the charges that brought them to CCA,
3 they were represented by attorneys?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Did you make any attempts to notify any of their
6 attorneys prior to their interview?

7 A. I did not, no.

8 Q. Did certain members of law enforcement
9 participate in a tour of the facilities of CCA?

10 A. I don't know if they were or not.

11 Q. Let me back up. Was there a-- an employee or 12 agent of CCA that helped or participated with law
13 enforcement during the execution of the search warrant?

14 A. I wasn't actually involved in going in and 15 executing the search warrant in the pods. I was, like I
16 said, there to interview. So if that was the case, I
17 was not a part of that and I wouldn't know.

18 Q. During your time inside of Leavenworth-CCA, did
19 you observe various security cameras and bubble cameras
20 throughout the facility?

21 A. About the only-- the only thing I remember, I
22 remember looking at one of the-- call it a bubble or 23 something like that where the-- where a CCA guard would 24 sit. I think I remember maybe seeing a screen with some 25 camera views. I-- but without-- I don't recall if--

1 what that actually was and what it was looking at.

2 Q. Okay. So you at least observed some surveillance
3 capabilities within the facility?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Agent Stokes, I know that you covered a great
6 deal of ground with the previous questioning by Mr.
7 Bell. And I think that you indicated that you have 8 previous statements that relate to the subject matter in 9 which you testified here today?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. Some of those statements and reports I
12 assume pertain to U.S. v. Black. Right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. I assume some of those reports do not pertain to 15 U.S. v. Black?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay.

18 MR. GUASTELLO: Judge, I believe that
19 pursuant to Federal Rule of Procedure 26.2 that we 20 should be allowed to have any of those statements as 21 they pertain to Agent Stokes' testimony here today. I
22 don't know that I necessarily need them for the 23 remainder of my examination, but I would ask that those 24 be produced at some time or an order to that effect.

25 THE COURT: All right. Any objection?

1 MR. CLYMER: Judge, as a legal basis there's
2 no ground for that. Rule 26.2 doesn't apply when the
3 government hasn't called a witness. That said, I'm not
4 familiar with all those reports and it may be that the 5 U.S. Attorney's Office in its discretion is willing to 6 provide those, I don't know.

7 So my suggestion, Your Honor, is that
8 counsel meet with members of the U.S. Attorney's Office
9 so they can discuss the issue. If it turns out that the 10 U.S. Attorney's Office is unwilling to provide the 11 reports, counsel can file a motion and litigate it in 12 due course.

13 THE COURT: All right. That's fair. Why
14 don't you all talk about it. You're not asking for 15 those to be produced while this witness is still on the 16 stand, but--

17 MR. GUASTELLO: No, I'm not, Judge.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 MR. GUASTELLO: Thank you. I have nothing
20 further.

21 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Dodge.

22 MS. DODGE: Yes, Your Honor.

23 CROSS EXAMINATION

24 BY MS. DODGE:

25 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Stokes.

1 A. Good afternoon.

2 Q. I don't believe I heard the question. How long
3 have you been a KBI agent?

4 A. Just over five years.

5 Q. And did you have any prior law enforcement
6 experience?

7 A. I did.

8 Q. How much?

9 A. About 14-and-a-half years.

10 Q. As what?

11 A. A deputy sheriff in Crawford County, Kansas.

12 Q. So you're familiar with jails?

13 A. I used to work in one, yes.

14 Q. Okay. I'm just curious; the jails that you
15 worked in, did any of them have camera equipment?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Did they routinely monitor attorney/clients in 18 the jails?

19 A. The jail I worked in it didn't record-- if I
20 remember right, it didn't record the actual room, it
21 recorded the doorway going into that room.

22 Q. You had mentioned earlier that you wrote the 23 report but you didn't attend the proffer--

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. -- in this-- in this case that you were being

1 questioned about. How often has that happened?

2 A. It doesn't happen that often.

3 Q. Who asks you to write those reports if you're not
4 in attendance of the proffer?

5 A. Well, there was a lot of interviews and proffers
6 going on, I know Senior Special Agent Virden had fell
7 behind. Plus, since I wasn't able to attend that
8 proffer and didn't know what it was about and I was one
9 of the case agents, we thought it might be good for me
10 to actually review the-- the audio of the proffer and 11 write the report so I can, you know, be aware of the 12 content of the proffer.

13 Q. So you volunteered?

14 A. I-- I believe I did.

15 Q. Now, how do you know that the recording takes 16 place from the get-go when they sit down to proffer?

17 A. Because there's usually a preamble at the 18 beginning of the proffer saying-- state the-- the date, 19 the time, who's present, what the purpose of the-- of 20 the recording is for.

21 Q. Usually? So that implies that sometimes that 22 doesn't happen.

23 A. I can't say if other agents do that or not. But
24 I know when I do one, it's-- I always say what the date,
25 time, purpose, who's present.

1 Q. But you don't-- since you're not in attendance,
2 you don't hear anything prior to that that's not being
3 tape-recorded?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Yes what?

6 A. Obviously I don't know what was said before that
7 unless I was told something.

8 Q. Okay. So your report could be missing some
9 information?

10 A. Not from the recording.

11 Q. Not from the recording, but anything that 12 would've taken place prior to or after the recording?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. Did you follow up with anybody on that 15 just to make sure?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Okay. You also mentioned that you knew there
18 were copies being made of the videos, the videos of the 19 CCA, when you were getting ready to-- to pick them up.
20 I've got a couple of questions about that.

21 Who instructed you to go get the-- the videos,
22 the copies?

23 A. I don't recall.

24 Q. Did any of the AUSAs on the case ask you to go do
25 that?

1 A. I don't recall if-- who did or-- or what the
2 context of that was.

3 Q. Okay. You went and picked it up from I think you
4 said Paulette Boyd?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. All right. But you knew that there were being
7 copies made, I think you also said something about one
8 for the Secret Service; is that right?

9 A. From my understanding, the originals from CCA
10 were in the custody of the Secret Service and they made
11 a copy, and that's what I picked up.

12 Q. How many copies were made?

13 A. To my understanding, just one.

14 Q. Just one, and you had it?

15 A. I believe so.

16 Q. Okay. But you don't recall when you first 17 started viewing it where you were?

18 A. I was at my house.

19 Q. Oh, you-- you watched it on your computer at 20 home?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Did you-- do you remember taking those 23 videos or those disks elsewhere to watch?

24 A. No.

25 Q. So at home do you use your own personal e-mail?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Any chance that you would've communicated on a
3 personal e-mail system to any of the USA-- or AUSAs in 4 this case?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Prior to this case did you have any occasion to 7 tour or visit CCA?

8 A. I've been to CCA on a few previous occasions.

9 Q. Was that to interview a witness or a-- a
10 defendant?

11 A. I believe so.

12 Q. Why else would you have gone to CCA?

13 A. I know one time I went I actually served a DNA
14 search warrant on two inmates.

15 Q. I'm sorry, you what?

16 A. Served a DNA search warrant on two inmates.

17 Q. Okay. So you were taking buccal swabs?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. All right. So where did those take place when 20 you did those buccal swabs?

21 A. Inside the facility somewhere.

22 Q. Inside the facility somewhere. Did-- did you
23 call in advance to say, hey, I need to schedule an 24 appointment with or do you guys just get to show up and 25 say I'm here to see such and such?

1 A. We usually have to make an appointment.

2 Q. You make an appointment?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. So they know you're coming so they can get the
5 client brought up from wherever they are, right--

6 A. Whatever they have to do.

7 Q. -- or the defendant?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. So did you go into like those witness
10 rooms where the attorneys go?

11 A. I have no idea where they took me.

12 Q. You have no idea where they took you into CCA to 13 take a buccal swab?

14 A. I don't know what those rooms were where they 15 took me.

16 Q. How long did it take you to get to a room?

17 A. I wasn't timing myself so-- we had to go through 18 a few doors. I don't know, maybe a minute or two. I--
19 I don't know.

20 Q. Okay. And how big were the rooms that you were 21 in?

22 A. Weren't very big at all.

23 Q. And you never looked up and saw a camera?

24 A. No.

25 Q. And so you had also been to CCA - if I understand

1 you - prior to this not just for buccal swabs but also
2 to interview a defendant maybe?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And where did you interview that defendant?

5 A. In a room somewhere.

6 Q. In a room somewhere. And the defendants that you
7 interviewed on this case when the search warrant was 8 executed, and I think I understood you to say you didn't 9 really-- you weren't in charge or you weren't part of 10 collecting evidence, you were in charge of interviewing
11 defendants. Did I get that right?

12 A. I wouldn't say I was in charge. I was part of 13 the interview teams.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. We paired up.

16 Q. All right. And who made that decision, who was 17 going to interview who, how did that go down?

18 A. We paired up. You know, I know I was with Agent
19 Seubert and I know we were given instructions that if 20 it's a defendant on a case that you have worked, we are 21 not to interview that person. So anybody I interviewed
22 I didn't have a-- a previous case with.

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. Just like Defendant Dertinger, I could not 25 interview him.

1 Q. So if you had questions about something, who
2 organized this, who's in charge?

3 A. If you had to put who was in charge, I believe my
4 boss. He's the one that wrote out the operations plan
5 and everything for the execution of the search warrant.

6 Q. So was your boss present that day?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right. And if-- if you had a question, you'd 9 just go to your boss, turn to him literally?

10 A. I don't know if he was physically with me the 11 whole time, but...

12 Q. Okay. Well, there's-- there's five different law
13 enforcement agencies, and I'm just trying to get a sense
14 of who's in charge of what everyone is going to do. Was 15 there a master plan before you go in there? I mean,
16 this is a pretty big deal. Right?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Okay. Five law enforcement agencies.

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. So more than five agents from five different,
21 right, law enforcement?

22 A. Oh, yes.

23 Q. At least a minimum of five and the pictures would 24 show more. And then you've got two AUSAs there.
25 Correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Were they telling anybody what to do?

3 A. I wasn't with them the whole time, so I can't say
4 if they were or not.

5 Q. Well, the times that you were with them, were
6 they telling anyone what to do?

7 A. I don't recall.

8 Q. Okay. So you interview witnesses with one other
9 agent; is that right?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And these witnesses are suspects in what?

12 A. The trafficking of contraband inside CCA.

13 Q. But not all the ones listed on U.S.A. v. Black?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Is this where these other 95 potential people
16 come from when Ms. Tomasic mentioned that to the Court
17 earlier in the year?

18 A. Where they come from?

19 Q. That there were 95 additional defendants
20 involved, potentially involved in this case?

21 A. I don't know the exact number.

22 Q. Okay. Were there multiple defendants, potential
23 suspects?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. And-- and those were folks that you had

1 interviewed?

2 A. Without-- some of them possibly, yes.

3 Q. Okay. It's not a trick question. I mean, you're 4 an agent and you're one of the case agents in this case.
5 Right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. I'm just a little dumbfounded at-- I'm not
8 trying to trick you, I just want to know what your 9 decisions are in this case. You're a case agent who's 10 investigating and interviewing defendants or a potential
11 defendant. Right?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. You take your cases to the prosecutor and then 14 the prosecutor decides whether or not there's a case to 15 prosecute. Correct?

16 A. Typically, yes.

17 Q. Okay. So you form an opinion about the case you
18 were working on before you present it to the prosecutor;
19 is that fair?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. So that-- that's kind of what I'm getting
22 at. You took interviews of defendants or potential
23 defendants, they were defendants in already another
24 case. Right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Or they wouldn't have been there.

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Okay. And then you presented those reports, did
4 you write them up right then and there?

5 A. Not right then and there.

6 Q. Did you record them?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Did you present those recordings then to Ms.
9 Tomasic or Mr. Oakley?

10 A. When I write a report, let's say an interview
11 report, I'll record it and review the recording to write
12 the report. I'll write the report, put the recording
13 onto a compact disk, attach that to the report, let--
14 KBI report processing does their thing and sends that 15 report to wherever we decide to send it to, which in 16 this case was the U.S. Attorney's Office?

17 Q. Okay. Now, those recordings that you took, you
18 say you put that on a disk and you give that to the U.S.
19 Attorney's Office. Right?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. All right. Do you know if those are handed over
22 in any of the discovery?

23 A. I'm not a part of that, no.

24 Q. You're not a part of that?

25 A. No.

1 Q. And the AUSA doesn't say, hey, Agent Stokes, was
2 there a voice recording of your interview? Do you have
3 that?

4 A. Well, when they get the report it will say what
5 the attachments are and the attachments-- whether it's a
6 CD or, you know, whatever paper attachment or whatever
7 it is.

8 Q. Have you ever been present in a proffer when the 9 recording is taken and the defense attorney asks the 10 AUSA, I would like a copy of that recording? Have you
11 ever been present when that's happened?

12 A. I don't recall if I-- it doesn't sound familiar,
13 so I don't know if I-- that's ever happened in my 14 presence or not.

15 Q. Has it ever happened in your presence when an 16 AUSA has refused to provide a copy of the defendant's--
17 the attorney's client's statement?

18 A. That doesn't sound familiar to me.

19 Q. Okay. Has any-- in your five years of being with 20 the Kansas Bureau of Investigation-- and you testified
21 that you've listened to hundreds of phone conversations.

22 A. At least, yes.

23 Q. Yeah. In your experience then with this office,
24 have you had any AUSAs ask you to review phone 25 conversations just prior to their-- of a defendant just

1 prior to their trial or their hearing or during? Have
2 you ever had them do that?

3 A. I have listened to phone calls, you know, up and
4 to-- we didn't go to trial, but I was still listening to 5 phone calls because there was hundreds. So still listen
6 to phone calls, yes.

7 Q. Did the attorney explain to you why they wanted
8 you or what you were to be listening for, why they 9 wanted you to listen to it?

10 A. I was-- I was still in investigative mode, still 11 listening to the calls. And I don't know if I was 12 directed, I don't know if that's a fair statement or 13 not. I was still listening to phone calls from phone 14 calls I've had from the months prior.

15 Q. Have you ever testified in trial or any kind of 16 hearings besides this one?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Have you ever had or been asked by a prosecutor
19 to impeach a prior person's statement, a statement-- a
20 prior statement from someone in the case?

21 A. I don't know if I have or not.

22 Q. Okay.

23 MS. DODGE: I have nothing further.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen.

25 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Thank you, Judge.

1 CROSS EXAMINATION

2 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

3 Q. Good afternoon.

4 A. Good afternoon.

5 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Judge, I just want to
6 make sure that the sequestration order that you imposed
7 this morning means that anybody in this courtroom is not
8 allowed to convey anything that's happening in here to 9 anybody who left; is that correct?10 THE COURT: That's correct. They're not to 11 discuss the content of any of the testimony that's 12 happened in this courtroom with any witnesses that are 13 sequestered.

14 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Thank you.

15 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

16 Q. Agent Stokes, I'm going to repeat to you
17 something that I think I heard you say, I want to make 18 sure I got it right.

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. You said, "I'm not going to listen to 21 attorney-client phone calls because it's not worth it."

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And so during your I think it's close to 20 years
24 in law enforcement if you ever come across a recorded
25 attorney-client phone call, you're going to minimize it;

1 is that right?

2 A. I wouldn't even say minimize, I just won't listen
3 to it.

4 Q. Okay. And you said something similar when we had
5 a colloquy the last time that you were on the stand and 6 I was asking you questions. Do you recall that?

7 A. I'd have to look at my transcript, I...

8 Q. Okay. I'm going to show you a document that I
9 have marked Special Master Stokes 2.

10 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, may I have a copy
11 of this too?

12 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Yes, sir.

13 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

14 Q. Do you recognize this document?

15 A. It looks like an e-mail I-- I authored.

16 Q. And that's an e-mail that you, according to this,
17 sent March 10th, 2016; is that right?

18 A. It looks like it, yes.

19 Q. And it-- you sent it to Erin Tomasic, Matt
20 Cahill, Glen Virden and Henry Herron and John Seubert;
21 is that correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Is Mr. Herron in the courtroom right now?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And Mr. Seubert is in the courtroom right now?

1 A. Yes.

2 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I'd like to move
3 admission of this exhibit, please.

4 THE COURT: Any objection.

5 MR. CLYMER: I don't know the relevance,
6 Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Subject to connection, Special
8 Master Stoke's Exhibit 2 admitted. You can publish it.

9 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

10 Q. Can you read me, Mr. Stokes, the first two 11 sentences of that document?

12 A. "After talking to Erin, she wants us to be 13 uniform in the way we are documenting the calls we are 14 currently listening to."

15 Q. A little slower for the court reporter, please.

16 A. Sorry. "I've attached a spreadsheet I was using 17 when documenting the calls I listened to during the 18 Rapp, et al., case so we can use that."

19 Q. One more. One more sentence.

20 A. I'm sorry. "It has the call number column, date
21 column, time column," and then parenthesis, "in this
22 column I put the pertinent time during that particular
23 call," end quote or parenthesis, "a column to put a
24 synopsis of the call and the person called if known."

25 Q. Okay. So you're describing the spreadsheet that

1 you put together about the calls you listened to in the 2 Rapp case; is that right?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And if you'll turn the page. This is the first
5 page of that spreadsheet; is that right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Can you read me what it says under "info
8 discussed" in Column 9?

9 A. "Ashley with someone. Richard will take a plea
10 to set me free. Session said Richard delusion.
11 Richard's attorney advising to pull his plea. Session
12 showed e-mail communication where I suggested he provide 13 my personal identifiers."

14 Q. And under the "person called" in the column next
15 to that, what does it say?

16 A. "Mom's lawyer friend."

17 Q. And who is Mr. Sessions?

18 A. That would be Ashley Huff's attorney.

19 Q. Can you turn the page, please.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Can you read the first line under the synopsis of 22 Call No. 23?

23 A. "Session wait and push off sentencing until right
24 before trial or right after. Richard not going to take 25 plea for less than--"

1 Q. That's fine.

2 A. I'm sorry.

3 Q. And so in your synopsis you're writing about
4 Ashley Huff's attorney; is that right?

5 A. It appears so, yes.

6 Q. Mr. Sessions?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And the next column on the right, what does it
9 say?

10 A. "Mom's lawyer friend."

11 Q. There's a phone number there, (916) 206-4575; is 12 that right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Do you recall when the Federal Public Defender
15 was asking you questions, they put up an exhibit that 16 showed that Erin Tomasic was making the request for 17 calls to mom's lawyer friend at this phone number?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And do you recall that that was after the date of 20 this March 10th, 2016 memo?

21 A. Without reviewing the document, I-- with the 22 date.

23 Q. Line 24, what does it say on the right side
24 there?

25 A. "Mom's lawyer friend."

1 Q. So that's another call to a lawyer?

2 A. I believe so.

3 Q. Line No. 61, can you read what that says under
4 "Synopsis"?

5 A. "Session said he thinks Richard pleaded because
6 Ethan Conrad and Michael Hilton added to witness list.
7 Session at COP and said Richard never mentioned that she
8 was involved. Session said--"

9 THE COURT: Slow down, please.

10 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. "Session said he
11 doesn't think judge will give a shit if Richard writes
12 an affidavit, but he is willing to give it a try."

13 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

14 Q. And finally on Page 60-- the last page, Line 66,
15 just read the first line, please.

16 A. "Session on phone with mom and mom's friend."

17 Q. And again, who is Mr. Session?

18 A. Ashley Huff's attorney.

19 Q. I want to turn to video. You saw this earlier,
20 this is the camera roster. Do you remember that
21 document?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And, again, there were six disks. Do you recall
24 that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Do you see under DVR 2 it says "pod" a whole
2 bunch of times?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Do you see under DVR 3 it says "pod" a whole
5 bunch of times?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Under DVR 4 it says "pod" a few times?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. DVR 5 it says "pod" a few times?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. DVR 6, does it say "pod" anywhere?

12 A. Not that I see.

13 Q. Does it say "attorney room"?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Does it-- did you see "attorney room" anywhere
16 else on any of the pods [sic]? And I'll point you to 17 No. 5 at the very bottom. It says "low custody 18 attorney."

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Did you see any other statement of attorney, that 21 word "attorney" on any of the other DVRs?

22 A. Not that I've seen, no.

23 Q. We agreed, you'll recall when I questioned you
24 before, that you pulled DVR 6. Do you remember that?

25 A. I possibly could've. I didn't remember exactly

1 what DVR I pulled.

2 Q. Okay. Well, the record in Dertinger will speak
3 for itself. And I would--

4 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: One second, Judge.
5 I'm going to point the parties to Page 155 of the 6 Dertinger transcript dated 6-20-17.

7 THE COURT: Is that-- I think that
8 transcript is in evidence or at least--

9 MR. BELL: It's Exhibit 508, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Exhibit 508, which is Agent
11 Stokes' testimony. All right. Page 155.

12 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Thank you.

13 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

14 Q. Do you have that in front of you?

15 A. I'm looking for it. 508?

16 Q. Yep.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. If you could please turn to Page 155.

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. About halfway down I'm asking a question. It
21 says, "So if you," Line 17.

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Can you read my question and your answer, please?

24 A. "So if you-- if you were looking at 25 attorney-client meeting rooms on the disk that you were

1 looking at, it had to have been DVR 6 you were looking
2 at if what I said is correct; is that right? Does that
3 make sense to you?"

4 Answer: "It makes sense, yes."

5 Q. And you said that when it came to looking at 6 video, you didn't even know if there was attorney-client
7 video until August, August of 2016?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And when you went to look at the video, what you
10 were looking for was evidence of what Dertinger did
11 after Rokusek visited with him in an attorney-client
12 room; is that right?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And you were hoping to find, for example, that 15 Dertinger went to the pod and shared information with 16 other inmates; is that right?

17 A. Or wherever he went after.

18 Q. Okay. We agree, though, that Disk No. 6 doesn't 19 have any pod video. Correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. The only video that Disk 6 has that might've
22 showed Dertinger was attorney rooms; is that right?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. I'm going to show you what's been marked as 25 Special Master Stokes 4. Do you recognize this

1 document?

2 A. I do.

3 Q. Can you tell me what it is?

4 A. It's an e-mail authored by me to Pauletta Boyd.

5 Q. What's the date?

6 A. January-- I'm sorry, January. July 12th, 2016.

7 Q. Before August 2016. Correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. What does it say?

10 A. "Pauletta, did we get in video from the attorney
11 visitation rooms, law library and pods at CCA?"

12 THE COURT: Are you offering this exhibit?

13 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I'm sorry. Yes,
14 Judge, I'm offering this exhibit.

15 MR. CLYMER: No objection.

16 THE COURT: Special Master Stokes Exhibit 4
17 admitted.

18 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Could I have a
19 moment, Judge?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I have nothing
22 further. Thank you, Agent Stokes.

23 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Clymer.

25 MR. CLYMER: I'm just getting some exhibits

1 from the public defender, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: I'm sorry? I'm sorry, you're
3 looking for what?

4 MR. CLYMER: May I retrieve some exhibits
5 from the witness, Your Honor?

6 THE COURT: Sure.

7 CROSS EXAMINATION

8 BY MR. CLYMER:

9 Q. I'm going to show you, Special Agent Stokes,
10 what's been marked as Special Master Exhibit Stokes 2 I
11 believe is what it was characterized as.

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And if you'll turn to the second page, I want to 14 turn to the phone call that's Entry No. 8 that the 15 Special Master asked you about where it has the 16 reference to mom's lawyer's friend. Actually it's 9,
17 I'm sorry, mom's lawyer friend as the person called.

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Do you see the area code for that person?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Do you know where the (916) area code is?

22 A. I don't know, no.

23 Q. Have you ever been to Sacramento, California,
24 Agent Stokes?

25 A. I have, yes.

1 Q. Have you?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Do you recall by any chance seeing that (916) is
4 a Sacramento area code?

5 A. If I did, I don't recall.

6 Q. Do you know how far it is from Leavenworth,
7 Kansas to Sacramento, California?

8 A. It's probably over 1,000 miles.

9 Q. In your experience as an agent here, have you
10 ever known of an attorney from Sacramento, California
11 representing an inmate at CCA-Leavenworth?

12 A. No.

13 Q. You're not a lawyer, are you?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Do you know what effect on the attorney-client
16 privilege there is when a third person who's not the 17 lawyer and not the client is involved in a conversation?

18 A. Can you repeat that question, please?

19 Q. Sure. I'll give you a specific. In terms of 20 attorney-client privilege, do you know what effect it
21 would have on the privilege if Mr. Sessions, a person
22 hypothetically from Sacramento, California who's not
23 representing a client, and a client of Mr. Sessions, all
24 three of them were in a conversation, would that be a
25 privileged conversation to your knowledge?

1 A. I don't know.

2 Q. I'd like to show you Exhibit 458. That was a
3 e-mail message I believe from Marshal Beam; is that
4 correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And Mr. Bell asked you some questions about
7 representations that are made in that e-mail. Were you
8 involved in the e-mail communications anywhere described
9 on Exhibit 458?

10 A. I was not.

11 Q. And the-- the person who made the representations
12 that Mr. Bell asked you about, Craig Beam, do you know
13 him?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Who is he?

16 A. He's the chief deputy for the U.S. Marshals for 17 the District of Kansas.

18 Q. Is he available, to your knowledge, to be 19 subpoenaed and called and explain the basis for his 20 assertions in this document?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. I'm now going to show you what's been marked as
23 498. This was the-- the transcript of the Imon Wright
24 detention hearing on August 5th, 2016, that Mr. Bell
25 asked you about.

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Does that look familiar to you?

3 A. It does.

4 Q. Were you present at that hearing?

5 A. I was not.

6 Q. And I don't recall off the top of my head now the 7 name of the person, the marshal or deputy marshal whose 8 comments were quoted by Mr. Bell. Do you remember the 9 name of that marshal?

10 A. Marshal Thibault, Michael Thibault.

11 Q. Do you know him?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Where does he work?

14 A. Here in Kansas City.

15 Q. Is he available to be subpoenaed to testify to 16 explain the basis for his comments in that transcript?

17 A. To my knowledge, yes.

18 Q. Do you know the basis for the statements he made
19 in that transcript? Do you personally know?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Do you know the-- personally know the basis for 22 the statements that Marshal Bell [sic] made in the 23 e-mail message we just looked at?

24 A. No.

25 Q. I now want to direct your attention to Page 155

1 of Exhibit 508. This was the passage Mr. Cohen just
2 asked you about and I think Mr. Bell asked you about it
3 as well, about which of the six DVRs you were looking at 4 at your house, the DVRs from CCA-Leavenworth. And I'm 5 going to read again the question, the question and 6 answer that was presented to you.

7 The question from Mr. Cohen: "So if you-- if you
8 were looking at attorney-client meeting rooms on the 9 disk that you were looking at, it would had to have been 10 DVR 6 that you were looking at. And if what I said is 11 correct, is that right? Does that make sense to you?"

12 Answer: "It makes sense to me, yes."

13 Do you remember that question and answer?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Were you looking at attorney-client
16 meeting rooms on the disk?

17 A. No.

18 Q. So if you weren't looking at attorney-client
19 meeting rooms, you weren't necessarily looking at DVR 6,
20 were you?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Did you tell the Court at that hearing it
23 could've been DVR 3, DVR 5, or DVR 6 you were looking at 24 and you simply couldn't remember?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Did you do your best to testify truthfully based
2 on your recollection of those events?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. At the time you got those DVRs and took them back
5 to your house, had you ever looked at video evidence
6 from CCA-Leavenworth before?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. How often?

9 A. Not very.

10 Q. Okay. And when you had done it before, had you
11 subpoenaed individual clips to look at?

12 A. I had not, no.

13 Q. But somebody else had?

14 A. I don't know if it was under subpoena or if the 15 marshals just requested them.

16 Q. Had you ever gotten an entire DVR drive with 17 multiple megabits of information on it before?

18 A. No.

19 Q. When you pulled that up on your screen, what 20 would you see?

21 A. It's been so long ago, I don't remember the 22 layout or anything like that. I remember seeing 23 thumbnails, you know, multiple, whether it was 16, 18,
24 32. You know, I don't remember.

25 Q. When you say thumbnails, what do you mean by

1 thumbnails?

2 A. Small little pictures of different camera angles.

3 Q. And you were trying to find a camera that showed
4 activity at a certain date and time?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Did it take you some time to familiarize yourself
7 with the process?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Were you aware if-- when CCA-Leavenworth turned 10 that information over to the Secret Service by way of 11 subpoena, if they kept an original copy or did the 12 Secret Service have the original copy?

13 A. I believe the Secret Service had the original
14 copy.

15 Q. So would it have been possible for you to go back
16 to CCA-Leavenworth and say, burn me a copy of this
17 hallway at this time at this date?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Why not?

20 A. Because the-- if my understanding was right, the 21 Secret Service had swapped out the DVR, so they had 22 the-- the actual video and I don't believe CCA had the--
23 had any of that prior video.

24 MR. CLYMER: You have to excuse me, Your
25 Honor. There's a document I thought I had up here and I

1 appear not to have. I found it.

2 BY MR. CLYMER:

3 Q. I'm going to show you what's been marked as
4 Exhibit 480. This was the United States' supplemental
5 notice of clarification and correction in the Ashley
6 Huff case.

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Mr. Bell asked you some questions about
9 representations that were made on that document. I want
10 to ask you a few follow-up questions about that.

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Now, if you look at Page 2 of Exhibit 480 on 13 Paragraph 2, the first-- that paragraph says, "During 14 this call--" or it says in part, "During this call, Ms.
15 Tomasic reported that Ms. Huff called her (Ms. Huff's)
16 mother's friend. While Ms. Huff was talking to the 17 friend, her mother was talking to Ms. Huff's defense
18 counsel, William Session, on another telephone." Do you 19 see that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So based on that description, how many people
22 were involved in conversations during this event?

23 A. It appears there was three, maybe four.

24 Q. Okay. And when you say three or four, let's try
25 to figure out who was doing what. Who was Ms. Huff, the

1 inmate at the time, apparently talking to?

2 A. Talking to the friend of her mother.

3 Q. And do we know who that person is from this
4 document?

5 A. I don't know, no.

6 Q. Do you know of your own personal knowledge who 7 that person is?

8 A. I don't know his name, no.

9 Q. Is there any indication that that person is an
10 attorney representing Ms. Huff?

11 A. Not-- I don't know.

12 Q. Okay. So we have that conversation. And then
13 who else is involved in this event?

14 A. William Session.

15 Q. And who else? There's one other person. There's 16 the mother's friend, there's Ms. Huff, there's Mr.
17 Session and somebody else.

18 A. Maybe the mother.

19 Q. The mother. And who is the mother talking to?
20 If you look at the second sentence, I think it will tell
21 you.

22 A. Right.

23 Q. Mom was talking to?

24 A. Was talking to-- to Ms. Huff's defense counsel,
25 to William Session.

1 Q. Okay. So mom is talking to Mr. Session. Ms.
2 Huff, who's the inmate, is talking to mom's friend who
3 we don't know who it is. Right?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. And during this conversation it sounds like
6 there's two telephones being used. Right?

7 A. It appears so, yes.

8 Q. Okay. And at some point during the conversation
9 Ms. Huff appears to have been able to talk to Mr.
10 Sessions through two telephones. Does that sound like
11 what happened here?

12 A. It sounds like what happened, yes.

13 Q. Do we know where the other two people were at 14 that time?

15 A. I don't know, no.

16 Q. Somebody had to hold the telephones though.
17 Right?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. So somebody had to be listening or hearing what 20 was being said. Correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Do you know what effect on the attorney-client
23 privilege there is when there are four people involved
24 in a conversation, only one is a client and only one is 25 an attorney?

1 A. I don't know, no.

2 Q. I'd like to now direct your attention to the next
3 paragraph on that Page 2 of exhibit-- Public Defender
4 Exhibit 480.

5 The next paragraph discusses the recording of 6 this call that involved Mr. Sessions; is that right?

7 A. It appears so, yes.

8 Q. What does the last sentence say of that 9 paragraph?

10 A. "AUSA Flannigan knew this call was provided to 11 Mr. Session as part of the discovery in the case-- in 12 this case."

13 Q. And Mr. Session was Ms. Huff's attorney.
14 Correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. So Mr. Session, Ms. Huff's attorney, had the call
17 and knew it was intercepted. Correct?

18 MR. BELL: Objection, calls for speculation.

19 THE COURT: You can answer if you can, if 20 you know.

21 THE WITNESS: According to this it appears
22 so, yes.

23 BY MR. CLYMER:

24 Q. And he would've gotten it from the government.
25 Correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. So it would've been obvious that the government
3 had that call as well?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. So Mr. Sessions was perfectly capable of raising
6 any claim that Ms. Huff may have had based on the 7 government having had this phone call. Correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Are you familiar with the case that's before the 10 Court, United States versus Black?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Is Ms. Huff a defendant in this case?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Is her case disposed of?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Did she have the ability to raise this in her
17 case, this claim?

18 A. She could have, yes.

19 Q. And, in fact, you were shown, were you not, a
20 document, Defense Exhibit 477, which was a government
21 response to a claim that Mr. Sessions made on behalf of 22 Ms. Huff in her own case. Correct?

23 A. I'm sorry. Can you repeat that question?

24 Q. Sure. Take a look at Exhibit 4-- the Public
25 Defender Exhibit No. 477.

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. That's a response by the government to a claim
3 made in Ms. Huff's case about a violation of her rights.
4 Correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. So she not only had an opportunity to, she
7 did raise a claim in her own case. Correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. A person who you were questioned about regarding 10 the video at CCA-Leavenworth was Richard Dertinger.
11 Correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Was Richard Dertinger a defendant in the case
14 that's before this Court?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Was Richard Dertinger a defendant in an entirely
17 different case?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Mr. Dertinger, to your knowledge, did he raise
20 claims regarding his Sixth Amendment rights in his own
21 case?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And you testified in a hearing in that case.
24 Correct?

25 A. I did.

1 Q. Did you watch any video of any attorney meeting
2 with any defendant who's charged in the case before this
3 Court?

4 A. Not that I remember seeing, no.

5 Q. Did you listen to any recording of a phone
6 conversation between any attorney and any defendant in
7 this case?

8 A. No.

9 Q. To your knowledge, did anybody else on the 10 investigative team listen to any recording of any
11 conversation between any attorney and any defendant in
12 this case?

13 A. Not that I'm aware of, no.

14 Q. To your knowledge, did any investigator or 15 Assistant U.S. Attorney watch any video of any defendant
16 in this case meeting with an attorney?

17 A. Not that I'm aware of, no.

18 Q. How long have you been an agent in this district?

19 A. Five years, a little over five years.

20 Q. Do you know many of the public defenders?

21 A. No, just in passing.

22 Q. Okay. Do you know what they look like? I don't 23 mean do you know them personally, do you know what they 24 look like?

25 A. I know names and faces, yes.

1 Q. Do you know the people, for example, sitting at 2 counsel table here?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Do you know these other attorneys who are sitting
5 here?

6 A. I've seen them in other hearings.

7 Q. Did you at any time during the investigation or
8 prosecution of the Black case listen to any recorded
9 call involving any of these attorneys?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Did-- to your knowledge, did any federal 12 prosecutor or agent listen to any call involving any of 13 these attorneys?

14 A. Not that I'm aware of, no.

15 Q. To your knowledge, did any prosecutor or 16 investigator watch any video of any of these attorneys
17 meeting with any client?

18 A. Not that I'm aware of, no.

19 MR. CLYMER: Nothing further, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Any further questions by anyone?
21 If so, we're going to take a lunch break. We're going
22 to take a lunch break.

23 MR. BELL: Oh, I'm sorry.

24 THE COURT: Unless you can tell me it's 30
25 seconds or less.

1 MR. BELL: I don't know if I could keep that
2 promise.

3 THE COURT: How about two minutes?

4 MR. BELL: I can do two minutes.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 MR. CLYMER: Could I keep time, Your Honor?

7 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

8 MR. CLYMER: I'm just kidding.

9 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. BELL:

11 Q. Do you have Exhibit 508 in front of you?

12 A. I thought I did. I don't believe--

13 Q. All right. Let's see if we can do it without the
14 exhibit.

15 A. I don't believe I do.

16 Q. Do you remember Mr. Clymer asked you some 17 questions about the-- whether you had seen an attorney
18 room when you looked at the DVR recordings? Just now do
19 you remember those questions?

20 A. I believe so, yes.

21 Q. And he stressed the point that when you answered
22 Mr. Cohen's questions, Mr. Cohen inserted the 23 conditional "if what I said is true, that you probably 24 looked at DVR 6." Do you remember those questions?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And the part that was omitted from that is the--
2 the condition is that you had said that when you looked
3 at the video that you had seen an empty room with a
4 table and a couple chairs. Right?

5 A. I don't know if I said room or rooms or-- I don't
6 recall.

7 Q. I guess we are going to need 508. If you could
8 find Exhibit 508 and look at Page 36.

9 A. I don't have 508 in front of me.

10 MR. BELL: Did you take 508?

11 MR. CLYMER: Did I take some of--

12 MR. BELL: Those are the exhibits.

13 MR. CLYMER: I'm sorry.

14 BY MR. BELL:

15 Q. Let's try it again. 508, Page 36 or 1-- or yeah,
16 Page 36 at the bottom right.

17 A. That would be 36, the Bates stamp number?

18 Q. Yes.

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. All right. So if you look at that page, you were 21 asked on Lines 8 through 16 about whether what you saw
22 was an empty room with a table and a couple chairs.
23 Right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And you're talking about what you saw on the

1 video from CCA when you reviewed it. Right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And so you saw an empty room about 8-by-10 with a
4 table and a couple chairs in it?

5 A. I said maybe an 8-by-10 room with a table and a
6 couple chairs, yes.

7 Q. All right. And you said that you may have 8 assumed or you thought that it was probably an 9 attorney-client room?

10 A. I said I don't know if it was an attorney
11 visitation room or not.

12 Q. Okay. But it seemed to you like it might be one?

13 A. It could be, yes.

14 Q. And that was the basis of Mr. Cohen's questions
15 about if I'm right that that was an attorney-client
16 room, then you had to have looked at DVR 6 because 17 that's the only one that's got attorney-client rooms.
18 Correct?

19 A. I believe the index showed "low custody attorney"
20 on 5.

21 Q. Right. And then did you understand or was it
22 explained to you that that was actually a hallway?

23 A. At that time I didn't know.

24 Q. Okay. Well, then let me try this again. If you
25 saw an empty room with a table and a couple of chairs

1 and it was 8-by-10, would you agree with me that that
2 was most likely an empty attorney-client room based on
3 what you know about CCA?

4 A. Based on what I know about CCA, I can't say that 5 other-- another room with some tables and chairs would
6 be on even 1, 2, 4.

7 Q. Is there any other room within CCA that you know
8 of, other than the attorney-client room, that would fit
9 that description?

10 A. I've not been through all of CCA, so I can't say
11 yes or no.

12 Q. So it would be fair to say that based on what you
13 know of CCA, the only room that would fit that 14 description is the attorney-client room?

15 A. I don't know that, no.

16 Q. But you don't know of any other room that would 17 fit the description?

18 A. And again, I haven't been through the-- the whole
19 facility.

20 MR. BELL: I have no further questions.

21 THE COURT: All right. Anyone else? Mr.
22 Guastello, did you have--

23 MR. GUASTELLO: Judge, I just have just that 24 one question.

25 THE COURT: I'm holding everybody to the

1 two-minute rule.

2 MR. GUASTELLO: Less than two minutes.

3 RECROSS EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. GUASTELLO:

5 Q. Agent Stokes, you indicated that you did
6 interview some inmates during the execution of the 7 search warrant?

8 A. I did, yes.

9 Q. Okay. What part of the-- of CCA did you conduct
10 those interviews?

11 A. If I remember right there were a few different
12 rooms. Actually I can't say that, I don't know if it
13 was one room or if I was in a-- in a couple different
14 rooms.

15 Q. Was there a table in that room?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Were there a couple of chairs in that room?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Was it similar to the video that Mr. Bell was 20 just describing to you?

21 A. Actually, I don't believe it was because the room
22 I was in was carpeted. I remember that.

23 Q. So it was a carpeted room with a chair and a
24 table?

25 A. Right.

1 MR. GUASTELLO: Nothing further, Judge.

2 THE COURT: Ms. Dodge?

3 MS. DODGE: No, Your Honor, I have nothing.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen.

5 RECROSS EXAMINATION

6 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

7 Q. Mr. Clymer asked you some questions about
8 attorney-client privilege. Do you recall that?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Is it safe to say that you don't know all the law
11 surrounding whether the attorney-client privilege
12 applies?

13 A. I would say that's fair, yes.

14 Q. When you said that you don't listen to 15 attorney-client phone calls, do you think to yourself I
16 wonder if the attorney-client privilege applies?

17 A. I'm not going to listen to calls-- I-- I would 18 think that it applies, yes.

19 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Thank you.

20 THE COURT: All right. Anything more, Mr.
21 Clymer?

22 MR. CLYMER: No, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. Is Special Agent
24 Stokes released from his subpoena or is he subject to 25 recall?

1 MR. BELL: He would be subject to recall,
2 Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: He is subject to recall?

4 MR. BELL: Oh, I apologize. I understand he 5 has a training obligation that he needs to get to; is
6 that right?

7 THE WITNESS: Actually it-- it's a week-long
8 course that started yesterday, so I can't attend that.

9 MR. BELL: Okay. Well, I apologize for the 10 inconvenience, but if it's not going to further
11 inconvenience, I'd like him subject to recall. I would 12 anticipate that he would need a reasonable amount of 13 time to get back to the courthouse should we need him.

14 THE COURT: All right. Do you office in 15 Topeka or-- or you office here in town or work out of 16 your home?

17 THE WITNESS: My office is in Lenexa, ma'am.

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right. You're 19 subject to recall, but that would be a phone call and 20 enough notice to get back downtown.

21 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am.

22 THE COURT: All right. Otherwise you're 23 released to go at this time. Let's take a break until 24 2:00.

25 MS. BROCKERT: Your Honor--

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 MS. BROCKERT: -- if I may. I'm sorry.

3 Alyssa Brockert, I'm counsel for CoreCivic. We have two
4 employees here that were called to testify today. And
5 given that this is I think the second witness on the 6 FPD's list, I was wondering if there would be a way that
7 we could release them for the day and they could be back
8 tomorrow at 9:00?

9 THE COURT: Who are-- Mr. Bigelow and Ms.
10 Thomas, is that who you're talking about?

11 MS. BROCKERT: Yes, that's correct.

12 THE COURT: Are you planning to get to them
13 this afternoon?

14 MR. BELL: I doubt it, Your Honor. We have 15 no objection to that request.

16 THE COURT: All right. What time do you
17 want them to be here tomorrow morning or tomorrow?

18 MR. BELL: 11:00, I think it probably would 19 be safe.

20 THE COURT: All right.

21 MS. BROCKERT: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. We'll be in recess
23 now until 2:00.

24 (Recess).

25 THE COURT: All right. You can be seated.

1 All right. Mr. Clymer.

2 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, before we proceed,
3 may I address the Court, Your Honor?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, over the lunch
6 break it occurred to me that there was some uncertainty
7 in my mind about the Court's remarks regarding how we 8 would proceed with the U.S. Attorney and Department of 9 Justice employees, and the Court said we'd proceed by a
10 proffer.

11 I understood the Court to mean that the 12 attorney who wanted to question the witness would make a
13 proffer to the Court about what they expected to get out
14 of the witness, not that the witness himself or I would 15 provide any information, because that also would be 16 prohibited by the Touhy regulations.

17 THE COURT: I understand.

18 MR. CLYMER: Okay. So the proffer the Court
19 anticipated was from counsel. Correct?

20 THE COURT: Correct.

21 MR. CLYMER: Thank you, Your Honor. I just 22 want to clarify.

23 THE COURT: From counsel, from documents
24 they want to proffer for later determination of 25 admissibility.

1 MR. CLYMER: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Ms. Brannon.

3 Mr. Bell.

4 MR. BELL: Yes, Your Honor. Before we call
5 our next witness I'd move to admit Exhibit 484 by 6 stipulation of the parties.

7 THE COURT: Exhibit 484?

8 MR. CLYMER: So stipulated.

9 THE COURT: 484 admitted.

10 MR. BELL: Your Honor, at this time we would 11 call Scott Rask.

12 SCOTT RASK,
13 called as a witness on behalf of the Federal Public
14 Defender, having first been duly sworn, testified as
15 follows:

16 DIRECT EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. BELL:

18 Q. Would you state your name for the Court?

19 A. Scott Rask.

20 Q. Mr. Rask, how are you employed?

21 A. I'm with the U.S. Attorney's Office.

22 Q. And what do you do there?

23 A. I'm an Assistant United States Attorney.

24 Q. Are you currently in a supervisory role in that
25 position?

1 A. Yes. Yes, I am.

2 Q. And how long have you been in that supervisory
3 role?

4 A. Approximately 18 months.

5 Q. So you were in that role on May 10th, 2017?

6 A. Yes, I was.

7 Q. On that date Ms. Tomasic told you that she had
8 listened to a recorded conversation between Ashley Huff
9 and her attorney.

10 A. I am not authorized to answer that question.

11 Q. Let me show you what's been marked as 12 Exhibit 541. Is Exhibit 541 a pleading that was filed
13 in the Ashley Huff case?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And does it have your signature on it?

16 A. It does.

17 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit
18 Exhibit 541.

19 MR. CLYMER: No objection.

20 THE COURT: 541 admitted.

21 BY MR. BELL:

22 Q. On the second page of that document, does it have 23 a date of a conversation-- does it mention a date of 24 May 10th, a conversation that you had with Ms. Tomasic?

25 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I'll stipulate that

1 the document says what the document says.

2 THE COURT: All right. The document speaks
3 for itself.

4 MS. VANBEBBER: Excuse me. What was the
5 number of the document?

6 MR. BELL: 541.

7 BY MR. BELL:

8 Q. You filed this pleading in June of 2017?

9 MR. CLYMER: Objection, Your Honor. The
10 document speaks for itself.

11 THE COURT: All right. Granted.

12 BY MR. BELL:

13 Q. Mr. Rask, why did you wait until June 19th to 14 disclose the information that you learned on May 10th?

15 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

16 THE COURT: Let's stop for a minute here.
17 Mr. Clymer.

18 MR. CLYMER: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: This witness has answered
20 several questions now that he's not authorized to answer
21 the question. Who was the responsible official who
22 referred the decision-making to the Deputy Attorney
23 General?

24 MR. CLYMER: I was, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. I refer you to 28

1 C.F.R. 16.24(c), 16.24(c) and ask what steps did you as
2 the responsible official take to negotiate limits on the
3 demands of the Special Master and the FPD before
4 referring the matter to-- well, I guess I should ask
5 what steps were taken before the matter was referred to 6 the-- to the DAG to negotiate limits on the--

7 MR. CLYMER: I can describe some of those,
8 Your Honor. When the Special Master-- before he issued
9 subpoenas, before there were any subpoenas issued, this 10 Court set a hearing for the January 18th date. That was 11 the first date you set a hearing. And at the time you
12 set it, there was no indication that it was an 13 evidentiary hearing.

14 There was an exchange of e-mail between 15 myself and Mr. Cohen where I asked him not to issue any 16 subpoenas because I'd like to discuss matters with him.
17 I had sent him-- there were a couple of communications
18 that I had sent to him where I expressed concerns about
19 the nature of the proceeding and I wanted to discuss it.
20 He told me that he was going to go ahead and issue a
21 subpoena. So that was my first effort to try to avoid 22 this situation.

23 After that, Your Honor, I've made multiple
24 attempts to try to have a non-evidentiary hearing before
25 this Court to discuss matters. At one point when the

1 case was still set for January 18th, I filed a motion to
2 bifurcate the proceedings so that we would have a
3 hearing to discuss matters and then we would separately
4 have an evidentiary hearing at some point after. The 5 Court denied that.

6 Similarly, I don't recall the date right
7 now, but we filed a motion for a status conference a
8 couple months ago. I don't believe the Court has ruled
9 on that. I don't believe any of the parties have ever
10 responded to that motion.

11 THE COURT: Well, when I asked about
12 negotiation, I wasn't talking about in the context of 13 the hearing. Typically what happens is the government
14 and the party that's seeking testimony or information
15 meet and confer and negotiate the limits of what the 16 person can be asked about.

17 MR. CLYMER: Well, I understand that, Your 18 Honor. In addition to what I just described, I also 19 filed motions to quash. And those motions were opposed
20 by both the Special Master and the Federal Public
21 Defender. There was no effort to try to-- there was 22 clearly no common ground between our position and their 23 position.

24 THE COURT: Well, your position was zero.
25 Right?

1 MR. CLYMER: Well, my position, Your Honor,
2 was not zero because some of the materials that Mr.
3 Cohen requested in his original request we turned over.
4 So our position was not zero.

5 THE COURT: Okay. What was that?

6 MR. CLYMER: One of the things he requested
7 were grand jury matters, we disclosed that. He also
8 requested information about the position the government
9 had taken with respect to various conflict issues and 10 asset forfeiture issues. We provided that information
11 as well.

12 In addition, with respect to the subpoenas
13 to individuals, as my letters to Mr. Cohen and Ms.
14 Brannon indicate, we agreed to allow testimony as to 15 some matters but did not allow testimony as to others.

16 THE COURT: All right. So there was a--
17 you're telling me there was a negotiation process?

18 MR. CLYMER: There-- there were efforts to 19 try to narrow the scope, Your Honor. There were not 20 discussions directly between counsel and-- there were 21 discussions with Mr. Cohen, not between counsel and the 22 Federal Public Defender.

23 THE COURT: All right. And you have now
24 provided-- you've filed the notice for both the Special
25 Master's subpoenas and the FPD's subpoenas describing

1 the limits of-- the limits of authority under which
2 the-- a particular witness can testify.

3 If it is unclear whether an answer is
4 permitted within the stated limited authority in your
5 pleading, are you someone that can make the call?

6 MR. CLYMER: I believe I can give the
7 witness guidance about what the parameters of their 8 authority are.

9 THE COURT: All right. So if there-- if
10 there comes a time when there-- if it's unclear and 11 whether-- whether the-- the notice allows the question
12 or not, you will be advising the witness whether or not 13 to testify to that?

14 MR. CLYMER: I'm-- I would be available to 15 do that if the Court believes that's appropriate.

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 MR. CLYMER: And I'll say this, Judge, my 18 understanding of the regulations is that the-- the 19 witness requires authority to make the disclosures. So
20 if the witness is uncertain, they will have to not
21 answer. So the process that you proposed I think is a
22 good one because it might be that after I speak to the 23 witness I'll be able to make some at least partial 24 disclosure of what the attorney is looking for.

25 THE COURT: Well, I wasn't proposing it.

1 MR. CLYMER: Oh.

2 THE COURT: I was asking because I wasn't
3 sure whether you were in a position to make the call or 4 whether the Deputy Attorney General were to have to be
5 consulted with it. That's why I asked.

6 MR. CLYMER: And I-- I believe that I'm as
7 bound by the direction from the Deputy Attorney
8 General's Office as the witnesses are. But if there's 9 some area of ambiguity, I'll do my best to try to 10 resolve it if I can.

11 THE COURT: Okay. So as I said before at 12 the outset, the way to proceed-- and I think maybe to 13 speed things up now, the witness can say "I must 14 decline," similarly to what Mr. Rask has said.

15 I-- I didn't ask-- I think there's been two 16 questions now that he's answered that way. I didn't ask
17 what the grounds under Touhy would be. I mean, you
18 know, there's defined bases for not answering a question
19 under that regime. And, of course, Touhy recognizes
20 that there are rules of evidence and there are 21 privileges as well.

22 And so let's talk about that. I think it
23 would be best for the record if you would state what the 24 basis is for not answering a particular question.

25 MR. CLYMER: I'm not sure I'm permitted to

1 go through all the internal deliberations by the
2 Department of Justice. And ultimately, Your Honor, I
3 didn't make the decision and I can't speak to the 4 factors that the DAG considered with respect to any
5 individual question that was posed.

6 I can tell the Court generally what the 7 factors are and which ones I think are applicable to 8 certain questions, but I-- I don't want to speak for the 9 Office of the Deputy Attorney General. I don't think I
10 can.

11 THE COURT: Oh, I know what the factors are.
12 I mean, such things as-- you know, we can go through 13 them. But I guess for clarity what you're saying is you
14 will state the grounds or you will not?

15 MR. CLYMER: I will do my best, Your Honor,
16 to describe what I believe the factors are that play--
17 I'll say generally, Your Honor, at the outset all of the 18 questioning in the Touhy notices that I received from 19 the public defender's office and from the Special Master
20 calls for information that is not disclosable under 21 Rule 16.

22 One of the factors that Touhy demands that
23 we look at are the rules applicable to the case before
24 the Court. Because this is a criminal matter, Rule 16
25 is applicable. The Federal Public Defender's Touhy

1 notice cites to the provision under Rule 16 that says
2 they're entitled to information or documents that are,
3 quote, material to the defense.

4 They're simply wrong about that. There is
5 case law, and it's cited to my letter of September 12th
6 to Mr. Cohen. The Supreme Court has said that passage
7 in Rule 16 means information that rebuts the 8 government's case-in-chief at trial. It doesn't pertain
9 to information about a defendant's claim that somehow
10 his constitutional rights were violated.

11 And so here you have a non-defendant. The 12 Federal Public Defender, as the Court knows, doesn't 13 represent any defendant in the case and neither does the 14 Special Master. So at the outset they're not entitled
15 to rely on Rule 16 and Rule 16 doesn't--

16 THE COURT: But we have-- we have two
17 defendants that are present.

18 MR. CLYMER: And neither one submitted a
19 Touhy notice, Your Honor. And so the-- so at the 20 outset, Rule 16 doesn't apply. But even if it did apply
21 to the Special Master or the public defender or to the 22 extent it applies to the defendants who are in the case,
23 the information they're requesting does not fall within 24 the things that are required by Rule 16.

25 And so here, there's no legal basis for the

1 questioning that they're asking to conduct. That's the
2 first of a number of factors. There's other
3 considerations too, but I'll just say that's one thing
4 that overlays all this questioning and--

5 THE COURT: All right. Let me-- let me stop
6 you for a minute. So with respect to the two named
7 defendants in this case, Mr. Carter and Mr. Bishop,
8 you're not taking the position that they had to file
9 Touhy notices in order to engage in cross examination
10 that's within the scope of the Touhy summaries, are you?

11 MR. CLYMER: I'm taking the position, Your
12 Honor, that if they want to have an Assistant U.S.
13 Attorney making disclosures that fall within the 14 protections of the Touhy regulations, they have to 15 comply with those regulations.

16 This is-- I mean, we are not in the
17 process-- I mean, if they filed a motion to dismiss,
18 they certainly can ask questions in connection with 19 their motion to dismiss, and I understand that.

20 THE COURT: All of this is in connection
21 with the motion to dismiss. The motion to dismiss
22 alleges intentional violations of the Sixth Amendment.
23 So that's what this whole hearing really is about.

24 MR. CLYMER: And we are not calling, for 25 example, Mr. Rask as a witness in connection with that

1 motion, so their examination of him is not a cross
2 examination. And it's our position that they are as
3 bound by the Touhy regulations as the-- as the other
4 attorneys in the room are.

5 THE COURT: All right. So as we proceed,
6 the witness will pursuant to your instructions decline
7 to answer, and I'll turn to you and if you can state a
8 basis for that at that time, I'll-- I'll hear from you.

9 MR. CLYMER: Okay. And so the Court is
10 aware; with respect to Mr. Rask, only the public
11 defender, if I recall correctly, submitted a Touhy
12 notice. I don't believe Mr. Cohen did. He'll correct
13 me if I'm wrong, I may not recall, but I don't believe
14 he did.

15 And none of the questions that the Federal
16 Public Defender posed-- Mr. Rask has authority to answer
17 none of those questions. So if Court would like, I'll 18 go get the questions and I'll go down one-by-one and--

19 THE COURT: No, let's let them ask them. I
20 think they are entitled to make a record on them. As I
21 said, I'm going to proceed by proffer anyway so they 22 need to make their record with the questions. Similar
23 as if somebody were going to invoke the Fifth Amendment,
24 the questions still have to be asked.

25 MR. CLYMER: Okay.

1 THE COURT: And then I'll give you the
2 opportunity, if you choose, to tell me the basis for
3 what-- what under Touhy prohibits this question. And
4 the reason why I think it's important, if you can do
5 that, because if your objection is just a general
6 evidentiary objection - and you've been raising those
7 all along - I do have the ability to rule on those now.
8 And so I'd just like to have that clear.

9 MR. CLYMER: And, Judge, I agree with you on 10 that. I think we're on all fours on that.

11 THE COURT: Okay. All righty. All right.
12 Mr. Bell.

13 BY MR. BELL:

14 Q. Mr. Rask, can we agree that instead of saying
15 "I've been instructed that I have to decline to answer,"
16 or whatever the formulation sentence, that you just say
17 the word "decline" and that will stand in for the longer
18 sentence just in the matter of expediency?

19 A. I would prefer to answer that I'm not authorized
20 to answer a question if that's what's asked of me.

21 Q. Fair enough. Ms. Tomasic gave you the 22 information or told you the information about what she 23 had listened to in Ms. Huff's case on May 10th, 2017.

24 A. Is that a question?

25 Q. Yes.

1 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

2 Q. You did not immediately notify Ms. Huff of what
3 you had learned.

4 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

5 Q. You waited until June 19th, 2017, to alert anyone
6 about what you had learned.

7 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

8 Q. In fact, you did not directly notify Ms. Huff at 9 all.

10 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

11 Q. Because at the time you had filed your notice on 12 June 19th, Ms. Huff had already been sentenced.

13 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

14 Q. And you filed the notice on the Court's ECF
15 system. Correct?

16 A. That's what Exhibit 541 shows.

17 Q. But Exhibit 541 does not indicate that you
18 actually mailed this notice to Ms. Huff.

19 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, objection. The
20 document speaks for itself.

21 THE COURT: I'm not sure the notice
22 provision of the document necessarily speaks for itself,
23 so answer it if you can.

24 THE WITNESS: Can you repeat your question,
25 please?

1 BY MR. BELL:

2 Q. Certainly. You did not e-mail the exhibit itself
3 to Ms. Huff, the notice itself to Ms. Huff.

4 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

5 Q. After June 19th, 2017, you spoke with Ms.
6 Flannigan.

7 A. We work together, I've spoken with her since
8 June 19th, 2017, yes.

9 Q. Ms. Flannigan was the co-prosecutor on the case
10 with Ms. Tomasic.

11 A. She was counsel of record, yes.

12 Q. I show you what's been marked as Exhibit 542.
13 And Exhibit 542 a pleading filed in the Ashley Huff
14 case?

15 A. Did you ask if it was a pleading filed?

16 Q. Yes.

17 A. That is correct.

18 Q. All right. Does it have your name on the third
19 and fourth page?

20 MR. CLYMER: Again, Your Honor, I believe
21 the document speaks for itself.

22 THE COURT: It's not in evidence.

23 THE WITNESS: Yes, that is my name on the 24 third and fourth page.

25 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit

1 Exhibit 542.

2 MR. CLYMER: No objection.

3 THE COURT: 542 admitted.

4 BY MR. BELL:

5 Q. At the time that Ms. Flannigan was prosecuting
6 this case with Ms. Tomasic, Ms. Flannigan was Ms.
7 Tomasic's supervisor?

8 A. During part of the time, yes.

9 Q. Ms. Flannigan told you that she knew there was a
10 recorded call that involved Mr. Sessions?

11 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

12 Q. Ms. Flannigan told you that the call had been 13 marked as an exhibit.

14 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

15 Q. She told you that she may have even been present
16 when the call was played in preparation for a hearing?

17 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

18 Q. Neither Ms. Tomasic nor Ms. Flannigan told you
19 that they had notified Mr. Sessions or Ms. Huff about 20 this call.

21 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

22 Q. In fact, you learned that Mr. Sessions had 23 alleged this very thing in a pleading in Ms. Huff's
24 case.

25 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

1 Q. And you learned that Ms. Tomasic and Ms.
2 Flannigan responded and they didn't deny it, they just
3 said that Mr. Sessions couldn't prove it. Right?

4 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

5 Q. Based on your conversations with Ms. Tomasic and
6 Ms. Flannigan, even though they said Mr. Sessions
7 couldn't prove it, they knew it had happened.

8 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

9 Q. But they didn't-- they were not candid about that 10 with Judge Murguia when they responded to Mr. Session's
11 allegations.

12 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

13 Q. Now, you filed this supplemental memorandum on or 14 about June 19th. I'm going to turn your attention to 15 the last page of the document where it says certificate
16 of service.

17 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, may I be heard for 18 a moment?

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, one of the 21 requirements in the Touhy regulations that the Court is 22 aware is that counsel submits a Touhy notice to the 23 government and they specify the areas of inquiry they 24 expect to make, and that gives the government a chance
25 to assess whether or not to authorize responses.

1 None of these areas of inquiry that he asked
2 now are in the Touhy notice. And as a result, I
3 question whether it's appropriate to permit this litany
4 of questions to go on.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Bell, do you have the Touhy
6 notice handy to you?

7 MR. BELL: I do, Your Honor. If you'll give
8 me just a moment, I will find where it is in the 9 request. As a threshold matter, if they say he can't 10 testify about anything, I don't know that it necessarily 11 matters whether it was in a request or not, but...

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 MR. BELL: Paragraph 4. So does the Court
14 have a copy of our Touhy request?

15 THE COURT: I thought I did and apparently I
16 don't have it on the bench with me.

17 MR. BELL: I have a single copy so I'll just 18 read for the Court.

19 MS. VANBEBBER: I can provide that.

20 THE COURT: I have Mr. Clymer's notice.
21 It's not-- the summaries aren't included as part of 22 that, I don't think. Maybe they are. Just a minute.
23 Yes, the summaries are included. Okay. Just a minute.
24 I have them.

25 MR. BELL: So--

1 THE COURT: Well, let me make sure I have
2 one for Mr. Rask.

3 MR. BELL: So I'm looking at an April 30th,
4 2018 letter that we sent to Mr. Clymer.

5 THE COURT: I don't have that. If it's
6 short, you can just read it to me. But I do need to get
7 a copy-- I don't have-- for some reason I don't have the 8 summaries up here.

9 MS. VANBEBBER: The document summaries I
10 have.

11 MR. BELL: Your Honor, while we're waiting,
12 I can just read for you what's in our request.

13 THE COURT: Okay. That's fine.

14 MR. BELL: This is on Page 8 of our request,
15 it's under Paragraph 3 from Mr. Rask. "His awareness
16 and actions concerning his knowledge that in January
17 2017--" I'm sorry, strike that.

18 It's Paragraph 4. "His awareness that
19 prosecutors in his office obtained attorney-client phone
20 calls made from CCA-Leavenworth and what, if any, action
21 he took to investigate whether these calls were listened
22 to or reviewed by any member of his office."

23 In addition, it would fall under Paragraph 6
24 which reads, "Any and all meetings, discussions, and 25 communications following the May 10th, 2017 meeting with

1 SAUSA Tomasic in which he and the USAO analyzed what
2 remedial actions, if any, were necessary, to include
3 correcting the record of statements made by SAUSA
4 Tomasic in this case and/or any other cases."

5 THE COURT: All right. It sounds to me like
6 it's squarely within that summary. So proceed.

7 BY MR. BELL:

8 Q. So, Mr. Rask, let me turn your attention to 9 Page 3 of Exhibit 541. There's a certificate of service
10 there, and it indicates that you filed this notice in 11 the CM/ECF system. Ms. Huff had been sentenced by this 12 point. Would she have had access to the CM/ECF system?

13 A. I don't know.

14 Q. At this point was Mr. Sessions even still her
15 lawyer?

16 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

17 Q. Did you take any follow-up actions to make sure
18 that Mr. Sessions communicated these notices of 19 correction to Ms. Huff?

20 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

21 Q. During your May 10th meeting, Ms. Tomasic did not
22 just disclose details about the Huff case but also about
23 the Herrera-Zamora case on May 10th. Right?

24 A. Is that a question?

25 Q. Yes.

1 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

2 Q. Let me show you what's been marked as
3 Exhibit 497.

4 THE COURT: Did you intend to offer 541?
5 You didn't offer it.

6 MR. BELL: I did. I thought that I-- it was 7 admitted, but if not--

8 THE COURT: 541 is in evidence, I'm sorry.

9 BY MR. BELL:

10 Q. All right. So, Mr. Rask, I've just handed you
11 what's been marked Exhibit 497. Do you recognize this 12 as a pleading that was filed in the Herrera-Zamora case?

13 A. That is correct.

14 Q. Does it have your signature on the fifth page?

15 A. Yes, it does.

16 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit
17 Exhibit 497.

18 MR. CLYMER: No objection.

19 THE COURT: 497 admitted.

20 BY MR. BELL:

21 Q. During this May 10th meeting, Ms. Tomasic told
22 you that not only she listened to an attorney-client
23 phone call in the Huff case but had also done so in the 24 Herrera-Zamora case.

25 A. If that's a question, I'm not authorized to

1 answer that.

2 Q. Another Assistant United States Attorney was
3 prosecuting this-- the Herrera-Zamora case with Ms.
4 Tomasic.

5 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I'd ask that
6 counsel state questions, not statements or assertions of 7 fact. He continues to simply state assertions of fact.

8 THE COURT: All right. Let's state it in a
9 question format.

10 BY MR. BELL:

11 Q. Was there another prosecutor besides Ms. Tomasic
12 on the Herrera-Zamora case?

13 A. Yes, there was.

14 Q. Was that prosecutor named David Zabel?

15 A. That is correct.

16 Q. On May 10th, 2017, before Ms. Tomasic spoke with 17 you about what she had done in the Herrera-Zamora case,
18 she first discussed it with Mr. Zabel.

19 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

20 Q. In this document in Paragraph 6, does it appear
21 to say that Mr. Zabel had no idea, at least up to 22 February 22nd, 2017, that Ms. Tomasic had listened to 23 any attorney-client call?

24 MR. CLYMER: Objection, the document speaks
25 for itself.

1 MR. BELL: He's the author of the document.
2 I want to know what his intent--

3 THE COURT: All right. Answer it if you
4 can.

5 THE WITNESS: Can you repeat the question,
6 please?

7 BY MR. BELL:

8 Q. Certainly. Does this document indicate that at 9 least as late as February 22nd, 2017, Mr. Zabel had no
10 idea that Ms. Tomasic had listened to a recorded
11 attorney-client call in the Herrera-Zamora case.

12 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

13 Q. I want to show you what's been marked as 14 Exhibit 521. Do you recognize Exhibit 521 as a letter
15 that Erin Tomasic wrote to Judge Robinson?

16 THE COURT: This one is admitted.

17 THE WITNESS: That's what it purports to be.

18 BY MR. BELL:

19 Q. In this letter she describes her actions. And 20 although she doesn't name the case, you know the case
21 that she's referring to as the Herrera-Zamora case?

22 MR. CLYMER: Objection, Your Honor. The
23 document speaks for itself and counsel is simply making
24 assertions based on the text of a document.

25 MR. BELL: I'm asking what he understands

1 what the-- the reference in the document to be, which
2 case it's to.

3 THE COURT: All right. That's a fair
4 question. You can answer it if you-- if you can.

5 THE WITNESS: Would you please ask me the 6 question again?

7 BY MR. BELL:

8 Q. Certainly. In the third full paragraph of 9 Exhibit 521, Ms. Tomasic describes her conduct in a
10 particular case. Is that a fair characterization?

11 MR. CLYMER: Objection, Your Honor. The
12 document speaks for itself.

13 MR. BELL: It's a necessary foundation
14 question for the next one.

15 THE COURT: All right. Proceed.

16 BY MR. BELL:

17 Q. Is that a fair characterization, Mr. Rask?

18 A. Are you referring to the paragraph that starts
19 with "shortly thereafter" or the third paragraph that 20 starts with "prior to submitting"?

21 Q. The third paragraph that says "prior to."

22 A. I'm sorry, Mr. Bell, would you mind repeating
23 your question again?

24 Q. She's describing her conduct in a particular case
25 in that paragraph. Correct?

1 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

2 Q. Does-- are the circumstances she describes in
3 Paragraph 3 match the circumstances she told you about
4 how she came to review a call in the Herrera-Zamora
5 case?

6 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

7 Q. So the paragraph after that that does begin
8 "shortly thereafter," it says, "She discussed her
9 decision regarding the handling of the calls with two 10 AUSAs, one who was assigned to the case at issue." Did
11 Ms. Tomasic identify who those two AUSAs were?

12 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

13 Q. Is one of those AUSAs Dave Zabel?

14 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

15 Q. Was the other AUSA Kim Flannigan?

16 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

17 Q. She then-- there's a sentence where she says, "I
18 again discussed the matter with an AUSA assigned to the 19 case at issue." Do you know that AUSA to be Dave Zabel?

20 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

21 Q. And then Ms. Tomasic relates that, "That AUSA
22 stated I did not have an obligation to bring the matter
23 to the attention of my supervisor."

24 MR. CLYMER: Objection. I ask that counsel
25 pose a question, and the document speaks for itself.

1 THE COURT: I don't know what the question
2 is.

3 MR. BELL: I'm about to, I'm about to ask
4 the question.

5 BY MR. BELL:

6 Q. Does that match what either Tomasic or Zabel told
7 you about her conversation with Zabel?

8 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

9 Q. Did you uncover any information whatsoever that 10 any AUSA, whether it be Zabel or anyone else, told Ms.
11 Tomasic that she didn't have to notify her supervisor
12 about what she had done in this case?

13 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

14 Q. So Ms. Tomasic disclosed her actions in the 15 Herrera-Zamora case to you on May 10th, 2017, but you
16 had begun asking Ms. Tomasic questions about the 17 Herrera-Zamora case some months before then.

18 MR. CLYMER: Objection, assumes facts not in 19 evidence. It's a compound question, assumes a fact that 20 hasn't been established.

21 MR. BELL: That's fine.

22 BY MR. BELL:

23 Q. Let me show you Exhibit 491. Is Exhibit 491 an 24 e-mail chain that you are included on?

25 A. That is correct.

1 Q. And does it have e-mails between yourself, Ms.
2 Tomasic, Mr. Zabel, along with forwarding-- forwarded
3 messages from Mr. Welch, with copies to Ms. Flannigan
4 and somebody from the Department of the Professional
5 Responsibility Office in D.C.?

6 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, the document speaks
7 for itself.

8 MR. BELL: He's got to authenticate it
9 before I can admit it.

10 THE COURT: It's not in evidence.

11 THE WITNESS: Yes, those people are part of 12 the e-mail chain.

13 BY MR. BELL:

14 Q. And all those people are Department of Justice
15 employees?

16 A. To the best of my knowledge.

17 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit
18 Exhibit 491.

19 MR. CLYMER: No objection.

20 THE COURT: 491 admitted.

21 BY MR. BELL:

22 Q. So the question I asked you before the objection
23 was whether you had begun asking Ms. Tomasic questions
24 about her conduct in Herrera-Zamora months before
25 May 10th. In this Exhibit 491 do you-- is there an

1 e-mail from Ms. Tomasic to you on January 5th, 2017?

2 A. Yes, there is an e-mail on January 5th, 2017 to
3 me.

4 Q. And in that e-mail Ms. Tomasic is telling-- is
5 forwarding you the inquiry she made to Lanny Welch and
6 to PRAO, which was the Office of Professional
7 Responsibility division; is that right?

8 MR. CLYMER: Objection, Your Honor, the
9 document speaks for itself.

10 THE COURT: This is 491 you're asking about?

11 MR. BELL: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. I think it's
13 permissible to ask him this question.

14 BY MR. BELL:

15 Q. So she's forwarding you the inquiry she made to 16 Mr. Welch and to the PRAO office, along with their 17 response; is that right?

18 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

19 Q. Had you asked Ms. Tomasic a question or made an 20 inquiry of her that prompted her to forward this 21 information to you?

22 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

23 Q. In response to that e-mail, do you ask Ms.
24 Tomasic several other questions about the case?

25 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

1 Q. And does that also occur on January 5th?

2 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

3 Q. What prompted you to start asking Erin Tomasic
4 questions about this case in January of 2017?

5 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

6 Q. Did Ms. Tomasic tell you that the initial taint
7 agent on the Herrera-Zamora case was someone named Maria
8 Castleberry?

9 A. I'm not--

10 MR. CLYMER: Objection, the document speaks
11 for itself.

12 THE COURT: I do think it speaks for itself
13 to the extent you're going to go through this content.

14 MR. BELL: And I just have one follow-up
15 question.

16 BY MR. BELL:

17 Q. Did you ever confirm whether Ms. Castleberry
18 actually ever served as a taint agent on the 19 Herrera-Zamora case?

20 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

21 Q. Let me show you what's been marked as
22 Exhibit 494. Do you recognize Exhibit 494 as an e-mail
23 chain that includes Mr. Zabel, Tanya Treadway, Ms.
24 Tomasic, yourself, and Tris Hunt?

25 A. That is correct.

1 Q. At that time were all those people employees of
2 the Department of Justice?

3 A. That is correct.

4 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit
5 Exhibit 494.

6 MR. CLYMER: No objection.

7 THE COURT: 494 admitted.

8 BY MR. BELL:

9 Q. In this exhibit or in this e-mail chain does Mr.
10 Zabel tell Ms. Treadway about how the prosecution team
11 obtained the defendant's recorded telephone calls in the 12 Herrera-Zamora case?

13 MR. CLYMER: Objection, the document speaks
14 for itself.

15 MR. BELL: I'm asking for his-- I mean, I
16 can read three paragraphs of it, but it's generally his 17 characterization of it.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, if I may, I don't 20 think counsel has to read three paragraphs if it's in 21 evidence. The three paragraphs are already in evidence.

22 THE COURT: That's true, but I won't
23 preclude him from reading them either if it's a
24 published exhibit-- or if it's an admitted exhibit, it
25 can be published.

1 MR. CLYMER: Well, I think it's problematic
2 to ask a witness to characterize it, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. Why don't you
4 confine it to what it actually says. I mean, I'm not
5 going to preclude you from asking more, although it's 6 pretty clear the witness won't answer it, but you can
7 make your record.

8 BY MR. BELL:

9 Q. All right. So let's turn to the first page of 10 Exhibit 494. The latter-- the bottom part of it is the 11 e-mail from Mr. Zabel to Ms. Treadway. Do you see where 12 on the document that I'm talking about?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. In that paragraph does Mr. Zabel talk about how 15 the government got a first batch of Mr. Herrera-Zamora's
16 recorded telephone calls?

17 A. The e-mail references a first batch.

18 Q. Does the e-mail also reference a second batch of 19 calls that the prosecution team obtained on the eve of 20 trial?

21 A. The e-mail references a second batch.

22 Q. Does Mr. Zabel's position as stated in the e-mail
23 state, "My position is that these calls do not need to 24 be turned over for the following reasons"?

25 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, objection. I

1 believe that Mr. Zabel's position is outside the
2 knowledge of this witness. And to the extent that the
3 document describes Mr. Zabel's position, the document is 4 in evidence.

5 MR. BELL: I don't understand. He wants me
6 to read from it or he doesn't want me to read from it.

7 THE COURT: I agree the document speaks for
8 itself. You are asking him about what Mr. Zabel's
9 position is, Mr. Zabel apparently states his position in 10 this document. So the document on this-- on this matter
11 speaks for itself. If you want to read it into 12 evidence, that's fine.

13 MR. BELL: All right.

14 BY MR. BELL:

15 Q. Turning your attention back to the first page of 16 the document-- or I'm sorry. So the document we'll just 17 state-- Mr. Zabel states, "My position is that these 18 calls do not need to be turned over for the following 19 reasons." You understand that he's referring to the 20 second batch of documents?

21 MR. CLYMER: Objection to the witness
22 stating his understanding of what Mr. Zabel said. Mr.
23 Zabel said what he said.

24 THE COURT: All right. You can answer it if
25 you can.

1 THE WITNESS: I'm not authorized to answer
2 that question.

3 BY MR. BELL:

4 Q. In this document Mr. Zabel says that, "None of 5 these calls from the second batch were reviewed by any
6 member of the prosecution team whatsoever."

7 MR. CLYMER: Objection, the document says
8 what it says, Your Honor.

9 MR. BELL: I'll just read from it. I mean,
10 I'm happy to do that.

11 THE COURT: It's admitted. Is this for a
12 question, though?

13 BY MR. BELL:

14 Q. Did you later discover that that was not true?

15 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

16 Q. Mr. Zabel then talks about in this e-mail that 17 Mr. Herrera-Zamora's attorney had filed a motion
18 alleging the prosecution had listened to his recorded
19 attorney-client calls to adjust its trial strategy.

20 MR. CLYMER: Again objection, the document
21 speaks for itself. Counsel is just characterizing the 22 document, Your Honor, without asking questions.

23 THE COURT: No, I think the question has to 24 do with some conduct after this document. Is that
25 correct?

1 MR. BELL: It is, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. You can answer it if
3 you can.

4 BY MR. BELL:

5 Q. The follow-up, did you later learn that Mr.
6 Herrera-Zamora's attorney's allegation was accurate?

7 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

8 Q. Did you later learn that, in fact, someone had
9 listened-- in your office had listened to a recorded
10 attorney-client phone call in an attempt to gain a trial
11 advantage?

12 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

13 Q. In this exhibit does Mr. Zabel explain how he and 14 Tomasic convinced the attorney to withdraw the 15 allegation by assuring the attorney that no one had 16 listened to any recorded attorney-client phone calls?

17 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

18 Q. Did you later discover that that assurance that 19 had been made to Mr. Herrera-Zamora's attorney was, in 20 fact, false?

21 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

22 Q. On December 29th of 2017, a prosecutor in your 23 office named Sheri Catania spoke with an interpreter who 24 does contract work in your office.

25 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

1 Q. The two of them spoke about Ms. Gardner's-- or
2 the interpreter's work for your office specifically on
3 the Herrera-Zamora case.

4 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

5 Q. The interpreter is a Spanish language
6 interpreter, to your knowledge?

7 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

8 Q. And she was a Spanish language interpreter who 9 was doing contract work on the Herrera-- Herrera-Zamora
10 case.

11 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

12 Q. On December 29th, during the conversation the 13 interpreter tells Ms. Catania that during her work on 14 the Herrera-Zamora case she came across attorney-client
15 phone conversations.

16 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I'd ask that
17 counsel pose questions. Again, he's simply making
18 assertions of fact that are not established in the 19 record.

20 THE COURT: All right. To speed this up;
21 Mr. Bell, your questions, whether stated that way or 22 not, I want everyone to be clear, you're asking "is that 23 correct" or "is that true." Right?

24 MR. BELL: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 BY MR. BELL:

2 Q. During this December 29th, 2017 conversation does
3 Ms. Gardner tell Ms. Catania that during her work on the
4 Herrera-Zamora case she came across attorney-client
5 phone calls?

6 MR. CLYMER: Objection, outside the scope of
7 this witness' knowledge. He's asking about a
8 conversation between an interpreter and another AUSA.

9 THE COURT: Overruled. I don't know whether
10 he has knowledge or not. If he does, he can answer.

11 THE WITNESS: I'm not authorized to answer
12 that question.

13 BY MR. BELL:

14 Q. Did Ms. Catania relay that information to you?

15 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

16 Q. Did Ms. Catania also relay that the interpreter
17 had told Ms. Tomasic that she found an attorney-client
18 call?

19 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

20 Q. And that Ms. Tomasic had told the interpreter to 21 continue reviewing the calls anyway.

22 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

23 Q. And also that the-- Ms. Tomasic told the 24 interpreter to come to the office and listen to some 25 recorded calls actually during the Herrera-Zamora trial.

1 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

2 Q. And that Ms. Tomasic told the interpreter that
3 the reason she wanted her to review those calls is 4 because she wanted to know what the defense was going to 5 be at trial?

6 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

7 Q. Ms. Tomasic was trying the Herrera-Zamora case
8 with Mr. Zabel; is that right?

9 A. That is correct.

10 Q. On January 4th, 2018, did you and Emily Metzger
11 interview the interpreter?

12 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

13 Q. During that January 4th interview, does the 14 interpreter tell you the same things that she told Ms.
15 Catania?

16 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

17 Q. I'm going to show you what's been marked as
18 Exhibit 547. Do you recognize Exhibit 547 as a pleading
19 in the Herrera-Zamora case?

20 A. I do.

21 Q. Does the fourth page have your signature on it?

22 A. It does.

23 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I'd move to admit
24 Exhibit 547.

25 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, this document is a

1 sealed document. The government has no objection to it
2 being admitted under seal. I believe the public
3 defender agrees with this position.

4 THE COURT: Is it still under seal?

5 MR. BELL: We were forced to agree that it
6 would be under seal in order to get it. This is an in 7 camera notice.

8 THE COURT: All right. Judge Murguia has 9 not unsealed it?

10 MR. BELL: He has not. He's allowed it for 11 purposes of this hearing, but it has not been unsealed.

12 THE COURT: All right. It will be admitted
13 under seal, which means since this is an open courtroom
14 you're not allowed to question about the contents of the 15 document.

16 If I determine to make a fact finding based 17 on this, I will be unsealing it for purposes of the 18 evidentiary record.

19 BY MR. BELL:

20 Q. By filing a notice in camera, you know that that 21 means the defense won't get a copy of it; is that right?

22 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, may I consult with
23 Mr. Clymer?

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, could I ask the

1 reporter to read back the question so I make sure I got
2 it?

3 THE COURT: Sure.

4 (The question was read back).

5 (Government counsel and witness confer).

6 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Mr. Bell and Your
7 Honor.

8 Yes, that was my understanding. That with 9 it being filed in this fashion, it would not at that 10 point be provided to defense counsel.

11 BY MR. BELL:

12 Q. Why didn't you want Mr. Herrera-Zamora or his 13 defense attorneys to know about the contents of this
14 document?

15 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

16 Q. At the time you filed this-- the Document 547,
17 Mr. Herrera-Zamora had a pending motion to vacate his 18 conviction?

19 A. I don't remember the exact pleading, but there
20 was something to that effect pending, yes.

21 Q. And it was based on an allegation that the 22 prosecutors had intentionally listened to his
23 attorney-client communications?

24 A. Taking your representation, Mr. Bell, I think
25 that's the general nature of what was in that pleading.

1 I haven't read it in a while.

2 Q. But at some point you-- did you make a decision
3 that you want-- you didn't want Mr. Herrera-Zamora to 4 know about the contents of Exhibit 547?

5 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

6 Q. At a certain point you wrote a report about an 7 interview or summarizing the interview that you had with 8 the interpreter.

9 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

10 Q. Let me show you what's been marked as 11 Exhibit 545. Does Exhibit 545 appear to be a document
12 you authored?

13 A. I assisted in the authorship.

14 Q. Other than you, who else authored 545?

15 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

16 Q. Did you adopt this writing when it was submitted
17 to the Court as a truthful account of what's described
18 inside of it?

19 Let me ask it in a different way. Did everyone
20 that helped you write this document work for the United
21 States Attorney's Office?

22 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

23 Q. All right. Then who else helped you write
24 Exhibit 545?

25 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

1 Q. Did you submit Exhibit 545 to other people? I
2 mean, obviously I have it so you at least gave it to
3 somebody in my office. Is there anybody else outside
4 your office that you gave it to?

5 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

6 Q. All right.

7 MR. BELL: Well, let's just try it. I'll
8 move to admit Exhibit 545.

9 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, this document is 10 also under seal. We have no objection to it being 11 admitted under seal.

12 THE COURT: It was filed in the Zamora case
13 under seal?

14 MR. BELL: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. I'll admit it under 16 seal. Again, I'll make a determination of whether to 17 unseal it, if necessary.

18 BY MR. BELL:

19 Q. Aside from the interview you conducted of the 20 interpreter, were you aware that a second interview of 21 the interpreter occurred on March 21st, 2018?

22 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

23 Q. Let me show you what's been admitted by 24 stipulation as Exhibit 554.

25 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, with respect to

1 554, it's admitted by stipulation under seal.

2 THE COURT: All right. So noted. Admitted
3 under seal, under advisement whether to remain under 4 seal.

5 BY MR. BELL:

6 Q. Have you read Exhibit 554?

7 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

8 Q. Are you aware of any inconsistencies between 9 Exhibit 554, which is the later interview of the 10 interpreter, and Exhibit 545, which was your summary of 11 what the interpreter said?

12 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

13 Q. How many times in your office have you heard
14 attorney-client phone calls that were recorded at CCA?

15 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

16 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, may I speak to the 17 witness for a minute for legal advice?

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 MR. CLYMER: May I speak to Mr. Bell for a 20 second?

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 (Counsel confer).

23 (Government counsel and the witness confer).

24 THE WITNESS: Mr. Bell, would you please
25 restate the question?

1 BY MR. BELL:

2 Q. Certainly. How many times have you listened to
3 recorded attorney-client telephone conversations?

4 A. Never.

5 Q. How many times have you become aware that other
6 prosecutors in your office have listened to recorded
7 attorney-client telephone conversations?

8 MR. CLYMER: I'm going to have to-- if we're 9 going to do this, Judge, I'm going to have to talk to 10 him every time because he doesn't have-- he doesn't have 11 authorization to answer any of this. So it may be that 12 he can answer, but I'm going to have to unfortunately--

13 THE COURT: That's fine.

14 MR. CLYMER: Thank you, Your Honor.
15 Appreciate your indulgence.

16 (Government counsel and the witness confer).

17 BY MR. BELL:

18 Q. Other than the calls that were identified in the 19 Huff case, the Herrera-Zamora case, and the Black case,
20 how many times, to your knowledge, have other
21 prosecutors in your office listened to recorded
22 conversations between an attorney and the client?

23 A. In my 20 years in the office, I don't have a
24 specific number, but I know it is what I would say is a
25 handful, very small number.

1 Q. So as I understand the testimony, aside from even
2 the calls that we've talked about in Black and Huff and
3 Herrera-Zamora, there are a number of other times where
4 a prosecutor has listened to a recorded conversation
5 between an attorney and their client?

6 A. I wouldn't say a number of times, what I said was 7 a handful. So when I say a handful, that would be three 8 to five times.

9 Q. And those three to five times that you know of,
10 did the prosecutor take any steps to notify the defense
11 attorney that they had inadvertently come into 12 privileged material?

13 MR. CLYMER: Objection, states a fact not in 14 evidence.

15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 MR. CLYMER: May I be heard on this, Your
17 Honor?

18 MR. BELL: I'll withdraw the question, I
19 think I-- I think I can fix this.

20 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

21 BY MR. BELL:

22 Q. Those three to five handful of times that you're
23 talking about, did those prosecutors intentionally
24 listen to attorney-client telephone conversations?

25 A. Not to my recollection.

1 Q. So it was done inadvertently?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Did those prosecutors, to your knowledge, notify
4 the defense attorneys that they had inadvertently
5 acquired privileged material?

6 MR. CLYMER: Objection to the "privileged,"
7 Your Honor. There's no-- no testimony that these were 8 privileged conversations.

9 THE COURT: All right. Rephrase the
10 question.

11 BY MR. BELL:

12 Q. Did the prosecutors notify the defense attorneys
13 that they had inadvertently listened to their 14 conversations with their client?

15 A. To my recollection, they did.

16 Q. Which prosecutors to your recollection had 17 listened to conversations between attorneys and their 18 clients?

19 MR. CLYMER: I'll need to speak to the 20 witness again, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 (Government counsel and the witness confer).

23 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, could we see the 24 Court at sidebar on this?

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 MR. CLYMER: Thank you.

4 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I don't have any
5 other questions for Mr. Rask. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Guastello,
7 anything from you?

8 MR. GUASTELLO: No questions, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Ms. Dodge, anything from you?

10 MS. DODGE: Your Honor, I would note for the 11 record that we actually-- Mr. Guastello and I did join
12 in on the Touhy requests for all of these witnesses
13 under 17(b) and the subpoenas. We joined in-- I sent an 14 e-mail on December 22nd of 2017 to Steve Clymer joining
15 in on the Touhy requests with a letter that Mr.
16 Guastello on behalf of our clients did join in, I
17 believe under Document 339 that was filed with the Court
18 for miscellaneous relief, that we had asked for that as 19 well.

20 And-- and I just wanted to make a note for 21 the record that we had sent the Touhy request to Mr.
22 Clymer. That was in the earlier-- and, of course, the 23 hearing kept getting delayed. And then as the Court
24 probably recalls, just of late both Mr. Guastello and I
25 also joined in again for these 17(b) subpoenas that were

1 issued as well. So I would like that to note that for
2 the record.

3 MR. CLYMER: If Ms. Dodge-- I don't remember
4 this, I take her word for it. If they-- if they sent a
5 Touhy notice some time ago before an earlier hearing, I
6 consider that applicable to this hearing. You know, I
7 don't remember this document. I apologize for giving
8 the Court any improper information. I'm sure if Ms.
9 Dodge said it, it happened as she described it.

10 THE COURT: Well, what I'm hearing is she 11 didn't send a notice, she joined in the notice that was 12 sent by--

13 MR. CLYMER: I think that's sufficient,
14 Judge.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MR. CLYMER: I don't need her to repeat the 17 exact things. I don't know whether she joined both the 18 public defender's notice and the Special Master's notice
19 or one or the other, but I'll take her word for it.

20 MS. DODGE: We joined in on the-- on the 21 FPD's notice and all of their Touhy requests.

22 And then I don't believe I have any 23 questions for Mr. Rask, but just as a-- a matter of 24 clarity for myself, and I'm not familiar with 16.26 or-- 25 or any of these rules that we're talking about under

1 Touhy until-- until this very case. But I'm confused as
2 to the basis on when someone can answer some of the 3 stuff but then they get to use it as a shield and not
4 answer other stuff, even though it's pertinent to the 5 same subject material.

6 And I-- I guess I want to make sure that
7 we're on the record here that I find that problematic.
8 I don't find that consistent under the rules under 28
9 C.F.R. 16.26. No-- there has been no delineation by Mr.
10 Clymer here on the record as to why this is privileged
11 or how it's privileged or if it's privileged.

12 And-- and I-- I find the witness'
13 statements, "I'm sorry, I can't answer that" versus 14 "yes" or "no" or "maybe" or gives some part, I find that 15 inconsistent and I don't think that the government is 16 able to create laws to turn around and use as a shield
17 to-- to negate or to neglect to be able to answer to 18 their own unclean hands. And so that's my problem with 19 this and I just want to make sure that that was on the 20 record.

21 THE COURT: All right. And I-- you know, at
22 the close of this I will call for post-trial briefing,
23 post-hearing briefing, and that's certainly an argument
24 you might make about the effect of the very thing that 25 you're talking about and whether that has any effect at

1 all on the implication of Touhy.

2 And, frankly, I'm going to have to make some
3 determinations as to whether there's been valid
4 invocations of Touhy after I take all of the evidence.
5 That will be part of my analysis. So I'll be inviting 6 you all to brief to the extent you want to.

7 All right. Mr. Cohen, do you have any
8 questions?

9 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I do, Judge. Thank
10 you.

11 CROSS EXAMINATION

12 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

13 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Rask.

14 A. Hello.

15 Q. This is an odd procedure, would you agree?

16 A. I'm sorry?

17 Q. This is an odd procedure, would you agree? You
18 don't have to answer it.

19 A. May I consult with Mr. Clymer?

20 Q. No, no, you don't need to answer.

21 THE COURT: Question withdrawn.

22 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

23 Q. I've never done anything like this, so it's odd
24 to me. I'm going to ask you some questions and I expect
25 you to answer that you're not authorized to answer. And

1 I just want to make sure I understand what you mean when
2 you say that.

3 I believe that when you say that, you're not
4 saying "I don't know," you're saying, "I know but I
5 can't answer, I don't have authority to answer." Is 6 that fair? Do I understand that correctly?

7 THE WITNESS: May I consult with Mr. Clymer,
8 Your Honor?

9 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Of course.

10 (Government counsel and the witness confer).

11 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor and Mr.
12 Cohen.

13 Would you mind restating your question
14 again, please?

15 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

16 Q. Sure. When you say "I am not authorized to 17 answer that question," does that mean that you know the 18 answer but you're not-- you don't have the authority to 19 give the answer as opposed to "I don't know"?

20 A. As an employee of the Department of Justice,
21 there are certain areas in which I'm authorized to 22 answer.

23 Q. Right.

24 A. And so when I give that answer of not being
25 authorized, I'm not seeking to communicate whether I

1 know or don't know but just that I'm not authorized to
2 answer that-- that question.

3 Q. Okay. Did you ever read the appointment order,
4 the Special Master appointment order that Judge Robinson
5 put on appointing me as Special Master in the Black
6 case?

7 A. Yes, I did.

8 Q. And do you remember that it ordered the United 9 States Attorney's Office, quote, "shall provide full
10 cooperation to the Special Master," does that sound
11 right?

12 A. Or words to those effect, yes.

13 Q. Do you believe that order, therefore, applied to 14 you?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Did any member of the United States Attorney's
17 Office ever suggest or direct that you not cooperate
18 with me or confer with me?

19 A. (Pause). No.

20 Q. Why did it take you so long to answer that
21 question?

22 A. I'm trying to analyze what I'm authorized to 23 answer and what I'm not authorized to answer.

24 Q. Thank you. Did you ever suggest or direct that 25 anybody within the United States Attorney's Office not

1 cooperate or confer with me?

2 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

3 Q. Did you ever direct Erin Tomasic not to confer
4 with me?

5 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

6 Q. Do you know whether any member of the United
7 States Attorney's Office gave me documents?

8 A. I'm sorry, I didn't hear all of what you said.

9 Q. Gave me documents.

10 A. Yes, I know that you were given documents.

11 Q. Did any member of the United States Attorney's
12 Office advise you not to provide me with documents or
13 other materials in connection with my investigation;
14 Phase III, Phase II or Phase I?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Did you ever advise anybody in the United States
17 Attorney's Office not to provide me with documents or 18 other materials in connection with my investigation;
19 Phase I, II, or III?

20 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

21 Q. Did you ever tell Dave Zabel-- is that how you
22 pronounce his last name?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Did you ever tell Dave Zabel or Kim Flannigan
25 that you were angry with them for providing documents to

1 Erin Tomasic?

2 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

3 Q. Did Erin Tomasic ever ask you-- I'm going to 4 change that question.

5 Did Kim Flannigan ever ask you to contact Erin
6 Tomasic because she had questions about what to do with 7 documents that she had after she left the office?

8 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

9 Q. Were you Erin Tomasic's superior in that office?

10 A. At one point I was her supervisor.

11 Q. I know that there's been changes in positions
12 within the office. Can you describe to me when you were 13 and were not her superior?

14 A. Around October of 2016 is when I became the 15 supervisor in the Kansas City branch office.

16 Q. And she reported to you at that time?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Who did she report to before that time?

19 A. Ms. Flannigan.

20 Q. And did her reporting to you come to an end after 21 that October date? Was she still reporting to you when 22 she left the office?

23 A. Ms. Tomasic?

24 Q. Yes, I'm sorry.

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Thank you. Do you remember you took an oath here
2 today?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Is that the first time you've done that in court?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Can you repeat to me what the oath was?

7 A. Word-for-word, no.

8 Q. Give me a-- give me your best approximation.

9 A. That I'll tell the truth, the whole truth and 10 nothing but the truth.

11 Q. Do you think the whole truth includes not telling
12 me things that you're not authorized to tell?

13 MR. CLYMER: Objection, argumentative.

14 THE COURT: Overruled. Answer it if you
15 can.

16 THE WITNESS: I have not explored the--
17 well, I-- would you repeat your question, please?

18 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Could the court
19 reporter please read it back?

20 (The question was read back).

21 THE WITNESS: The Touhy regulations have
22 been affirmed and upheld in a number of courts and found
23 to be appropriate and correct. And so I think that as 24 how they apply, then yes, that allows us to answer these 25 questions truthfully.

1 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

2 Q. Do you know what the Ninth Commandment is?

3 MR. CLYMER: Objection, relevance.

4 THE COURT: Sustained.

5 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

6 Q. I'm going to show you what's been marked Special
7 Master Rask 1. Can you tell me what this document is?

8 A. It's an e-mail.

9 Q. From?

10 A. From me.

11 Q. Date?

12 A. August 15th, 2016.

13 Q. To whom?

14 A. Ms. Metzger, Ms. Barnett, Ms. Flannigan, Mr.
15 Oakley, Ms. Tomasic, and then copied to Ms. Capwell.

16 Q. And who is Ms. Capwell?

17 A. She's an AUSA in our office.

18 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Judge, I would move
19 to admit this document.

20 THE COURT: Any objection?

21 MR. CLYMER: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Special Master Rask Exhibit 1
23 admitted.

24 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Thank you, Judge.

25 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

1 Q. In this e-mail you're acknowledging that Ms.
2 Capwell is identifying some issues that are important;
3 is that right?

4 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, Mr. Cohen did not
5 submit any Touhy request, nor did the public defender or
6 any other party with regard to anything even remotely
7 approaching this e-mail. As a result, Mr. Rask does not
8 have authority to answer any questions about this
9 e-mail, other than having authenticated it.

10 THE COURT: All right. So noted.

11 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I'm happy, Judge, for 12 him to say he doesn't have authority.

13 THE COURT: All right. You're not
14 offering-- well, you're offering it, but he-- all right.
15 Mr. Rask has acknowledged, he's testified that it is, in 16 fact, an e-mail from him to the others. So I can admit
17 it on that basis. You're just saying he doesn't have 18 authority to testify about it.

19 MR. CLYMER: Exactly. I have no objection
20 to its admission, Your Honor. I'm sorry.

21 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 1 is
22 admitted but ask your question, knowing that Mr. Rask is 23 going to decline because of his lack of authorization.

24 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

25 Q. Mr. Rask, in this e-mail you are telling Carrie

1 Capwell that she's identified issues of privilege that
2 are important; is that right?

3 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

4 Q. And Ms. Capwell asks about waiver of work product
5 and attorney-client privilege as being issues associated
6 with the Special Master's investigation; is that right?

7 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

8 Q. Mr. Rask, I'd like to show you what is marked
9 Special Master Rask 2. Can you please tell me what that 10 is?

11 A. It appears to be a portion of an e-mail chain.

12 Q. From whom to whom?

13 A. Starting at the bottom, from Mr. Welch to--

14 Q. I'm sorry. I mean just the-- the top part.

15 A. The top is from Ms. Barnett to me, copying Ms.
16 Flannigan, Ms. Tomasic, Mr. Oakley, Mr. Slinkard, Ms.
17 Metzger and Mr. Beall.

18 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I'd like to move to 19 admit that exhibit please, Judge.

20 MR. CLYMER: No objection, Judge.

21 THE COURT: Special Master Rask No. 2
22 admitted.

23 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

24 Q. And maybe three inches down, Mr. Rask, there's a
25 line that says "on August 10th," and that's something

1 that you wrote below that; is that right?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And that's something you wrote to Deb Barnett?

4 A. That is correct.

5 Q. Does that set out your position with regard to 6 attorney-client recordings?

7 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

8 Q. Is it your position that-- I'll withdraw that.

9 Mr. Rask, I'd like to show you something that has 10 been marked Special Master Rask 4. And do you-- can you
11 tell me on the top there who the e-mail is from and to?

12 A. It's from Ms. Tomasic to Ms. Metzger and I'm 13 copied.

14 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, before Mr. Cohen
15 continues with this, could I have some time to look at 16 it? I'm just seeing these for the first time, this one
17 is fairly lengthy.

18 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

19 MR. CLYMER: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

21 Q. Mr. Rask, if you'll turn to Page 2 of that
22 document. This is part of an e-mail thread, would you
23 agree?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. And the very last bit of that thread is an e-mail

1 from Ms. Tomasic to Emily Metzger and you; is that
2 right?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And the subject is "Special Master"?

5 A. That is true.

6 Q. And the date sent is February 6th, 2017?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. The second paragraph there's a couple sentences
9 there. There's a (1), (2). Do you see that?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And it says on "October 31st, 2016--"

12 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I'm going to object
13 to counsel reading the document if it's not admitted.
14 And if it's admitted, it speaks for itself.

15 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Move to admit, Judge.

16 THE COURT: Any objection?

17 MR. CLYMER: No objection, Your Honor.

18 MS. VANBEBBER: The number is what?

19 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I'm sorry, that's
20 Special Master Rask 4. I skipped 3, I don't have a 3.

21 THE COURT: Admitted.

22 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

23 Q. This e-mail says that Deb Barnett instructed you
24 to instruct Erin Tomasic to have no contact with me; is 25 that correct?

1 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

2 Q. Same page at the very top. This is a
3 continuation of the e-mail from Emily Metzger to Erin
4 Tomasic copying you; is that right?

5 MS. BRANNON: Judge, I'm sorry, to
6 interrupt. But because there are only a couple of 7 copies, could we use the ELMO?

8 THE COURT: Yeah. Once it's admitted - it
9 is admitted - if you could publish it on the ELMO.

10 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Thank you. Thank
11 you, Bonnie.

12 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

13 Q. Mr. Rask, do you see at the bottom of Page 1 this 14 is an e-mail from Emily Metzger to Erin Tomasic copying
15 you?

16 A. That is correct.

17 Q. Dated February 21st, 2017?

18 A. That is correct.

19 Q. And if I flip this over, she-- she - Ms. Metzger
20 - is saying to Ms. Tomasic that she doesn't waive any 21 objection the office might have; is that right?

22 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

23 Q. And next it says, I, the Special Master, indicate
24 we can likely come to an understanding or agreement
25 regarding her speaking with me; is that right?

1 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

2 Q. Do you know whether I and your office ever
3 reached any agreement on that point?

4 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

5 Q. Moving back down to the bottom of Page 2. The 6 first sentence of the second paragraph after-- after
7 No. 2 in parens, Deb had that conversation with you
8 about having no contact not only with me but also having 9 no contact with the Court or other court personnel; is
10 that right?

11 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

12 Q. And then at the very top of Page 1, second 13 paragraph, Erin is telling you and Emily actually she is 14 looking forward to and has no problem talking to me; is
15 that right?

16 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

17 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, may I speak to Mr.
18 Cohen for a second?

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 (Government counsel and the Special Master
21 confer).

22 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, could we see the
23 Court at sidebar?

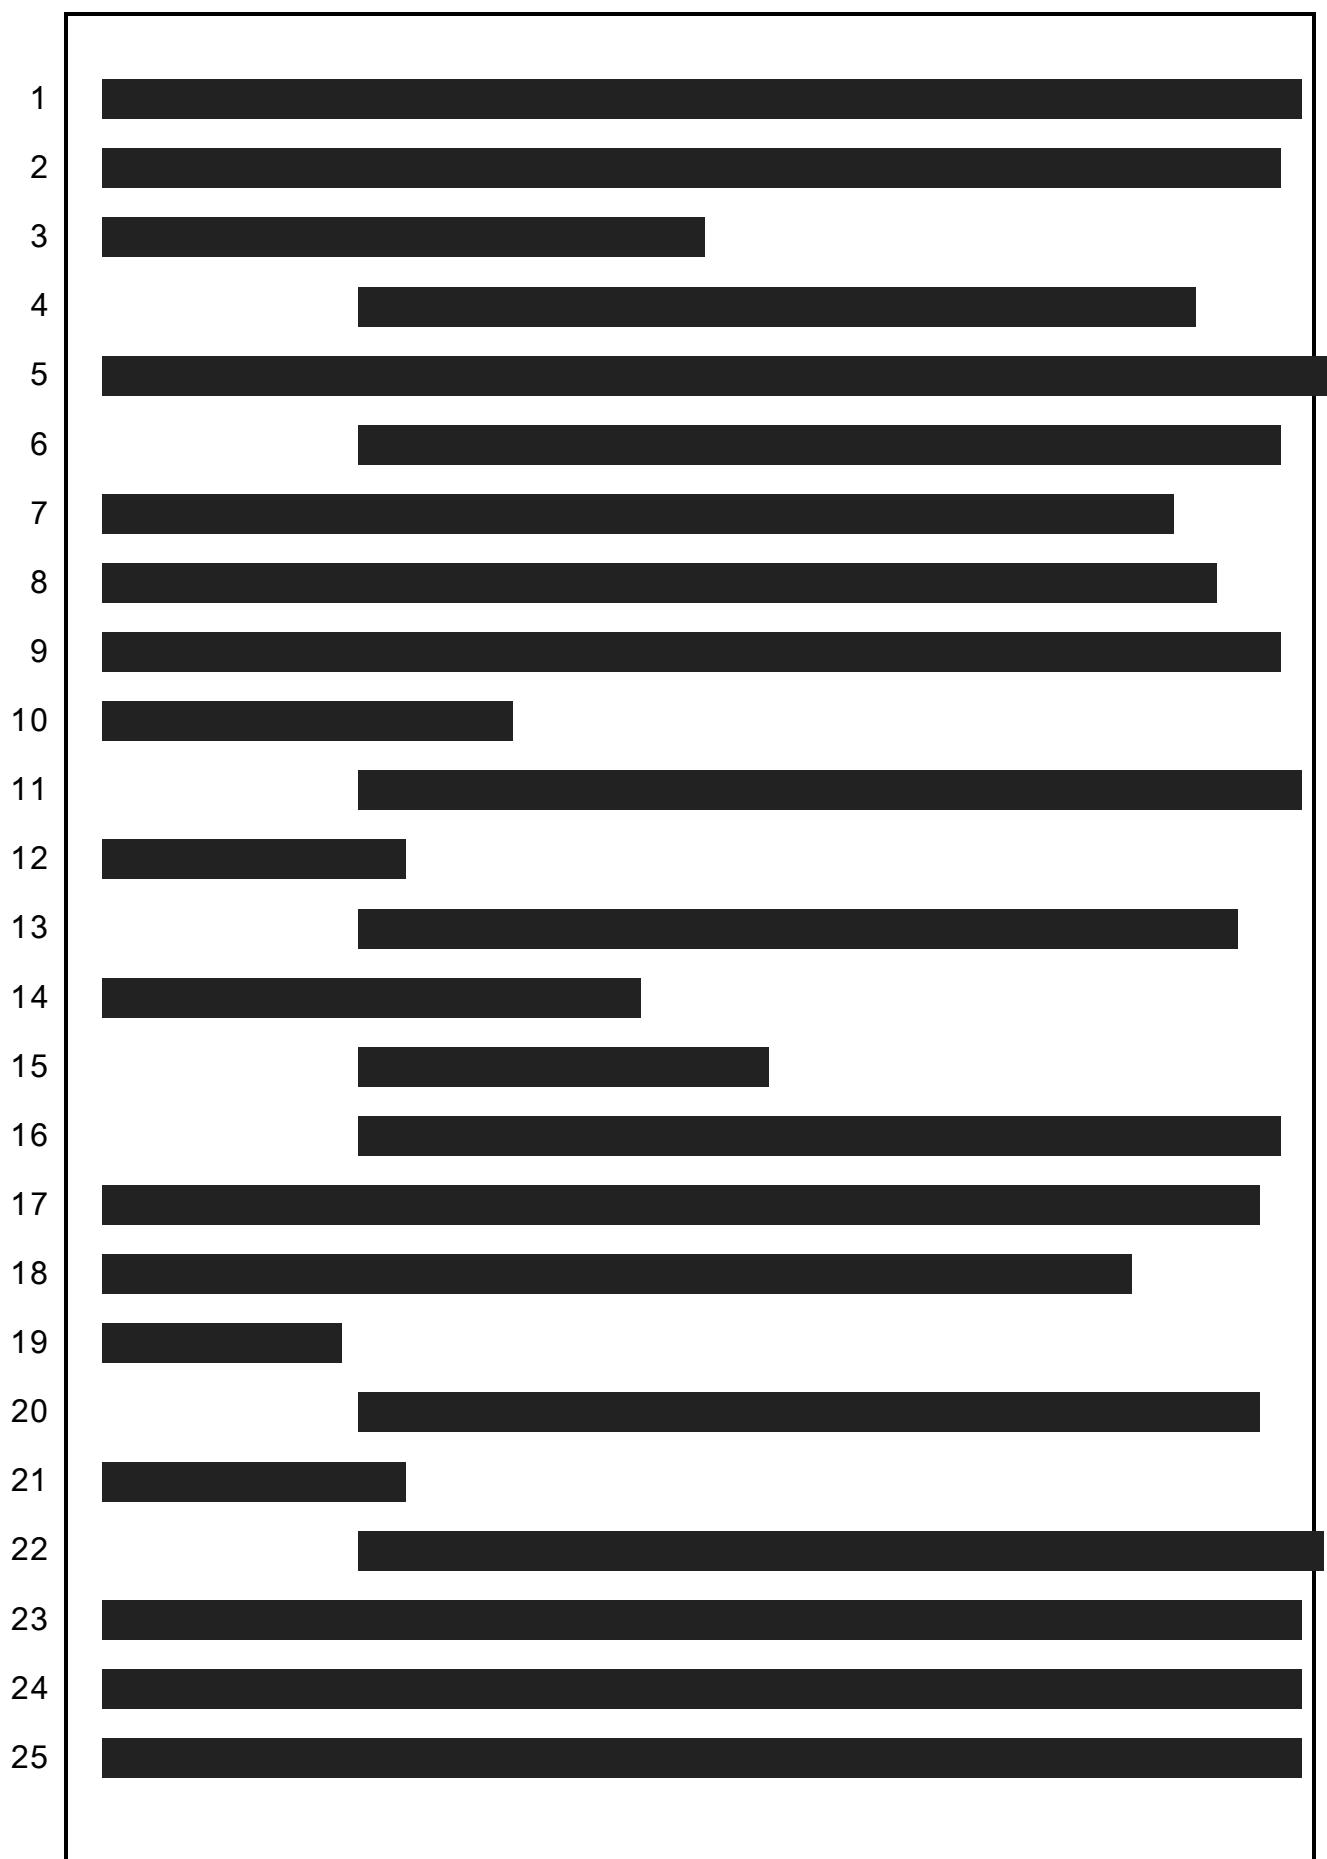

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 MR. CLYMER: I'm sorry to delay things,

1 Judge.

11 Q. Mr. Rask, I'm going to give you something marked
12 Special Master Rask 5 and again ask you to identify what 13 it is.

14 A. It's an e-mail chain on four pages.

15 Q. And are you a recipient or drafter of any of 16 those e-mails?

17 A. I'm a recipient. And I also-- I do see one spot
18 where I authored a couple sentences.

19 Q. Okay. And the very last e-mail in that thread,
20 which is the first one on the document at the top there
21 dated Monday, August 8th, you're a recipient of that.

22 Correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Is it fair to infer that you received the entire
25 thread?

1 A. As a result of that, yes.

2 Q. And the-- that last e-mail is from Kim Flannigan
3 to you and copying Erin Tomasic; is that right?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. And right below that is an e-mail from you to
6 Erin; is that right?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And you say that you understand her concern?

9 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

10 Q. May I--

11 THE COURT: It's not admitted yet.

12 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I would move to admit
13 this, please, Judge.

14 THE COURT: All right. Any objection?

15 MR. CLYMER: To admission, no, Your Honor,
16 no objection.

17 THE COURT: Exhibit 5, Rask Exhibit 5
18 admitted.

19 MR. CLYMER: And again, Your Honor, with 20 respect to this e-mail too, we never got notice of any 21 line of inquiry with respect to this e-mail.

22 THE COURT: I understand.

23 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

24 Q. And part of that thread, Mr. Rask, in the middle 25 there it shows on August 8th that Erin Tomasic is

1 writing to you and to Kim Flannigan and she's voicing a
2 concern she has with Deb's management. Who is Deb?

3 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

4 Q. Was Deb Barnett a manager in the office of Erin
5 Tomasic?

6 A. Yes, she was.

7 Q. Above that you write, "Erin, I totally understand
8 the concern." Is that right?

9 A. That's what that sentence says.

10 Q. I'm also going to hand you Exhibit Special Master
11 Rask 6. And can you tell me with-- this is again an 12 e-mail, who wrote it and to whom it was sent?

13 A. It begins with some portion of an e-mail from Ms.
14 Tomasic to me and Ms. Flannigan. I then responded to 15 Ms. Flannigan and copied Ms. Tomasic and Mr. Oakley.

16 Q. So the top part of this thread is an e-mail that 17 you wrote to Kim Flannigan. Correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Move to admit Rask 6,
20 please.

21 MR. CLYMER: I haven't had a chance to look
22 at it, Your Honor. May I take a look at it?

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I have an objection
25 to the relevance of this document. I'd like to discuss

2 THE COURT: Okay. Can I see the document?

3 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: And I-- I can answer

6 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

7 Q. Mr. Rask, do you remember when in 2016 Erin
8 Tomasic went into Judge Robinson's chambers to drop off
9 some materials after hours?

10 A. I don't remember the date.

11 Q. Is it fair to say it was early August?

12 A. I know it was August.

13 Q. Do you think it was before August 24th?

14 A. I don't know.

15 Q. Okay.

16 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I'm sorry, Judge.

17 This is admitted, am I correct?

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

20 Q. And this is an e-mail, Mr. Rask, from you to Kim
21 Flannigan. Am I correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. You're copying Erin Tomasic and Chris Oakley?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. Is it fair to say here that you're questioning

1 Deb's role and capacity?

2 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

3 Q. You state that she demonstrates a lack of 4 interest and involvement in the case.

5 MR. CLYMER: Judge, objection. The document
6 speaks for itself, it's in evidence. Mr. Cohen knows
7 the witness is not authorized to answer any questions
8 about this. I don't understand--

9 THE COURT: Sustained.

10 MR. CLYMER: -- the point.

11 THE COURT: I'll sustain as to questions
12 about what's said in this document. It does speak for 13 itself.

14 Why don't we take about a ten-minute break.
15 We'll take a ten-minute break.

16 (Recess).

17 THE COURT: All right. You can be seated.

18 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I want to go back
19 to Special Master Rask 6, the exhibit we went to sidebar
20 on. It's my understanding that your Phase III order
21 describes the entry into chambers as occurring on 22 August 25, 2016.

23 THE COURT: That sounds right.

24 MR. CLYMER: This-- this e-mail message is 25 August 24, 2016, which makes it irrelevant to that

1 topic. I renew my objection to this and ask that the
2 Court remove it from the record.

3 THE COURT: I'm going to admit it subject to
4 my thinking-- ultimately concluding whether it's-- it's
5 relevant or not. What Mr. Cohen said was that there
6 were other e-mails as well as perhaps testimony that
7 went-- surrounded the-- I guess the issue as to whether
8 Ms. Tomasic's entry into chambers was directed by Ms.
9 Barnett and was emblematic of her poor management. And 10 so this e-mail speaks to poor management.

11 I understand it precedes the entry, but I
12 assume what he's trying to show is that the 13 mismanagement preceded the entry as well and that the 14 entry was perhaps a consequence of that, I don't know.
15 But all subject to connection obviously. If ultimately 16 I don't see the connection, then I don't see what 17 relevance this will have, I'll just disregard it. But 18 I'll admit it for now.

19 MR. CLYMER: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Thank you, Judge.

21 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

22 Q. Just one question about this. So did Kim take a
23 meeting, the meeting you recommended?

24 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

25 Q. And the meeting that he recommends-- excuse me,

1 the meeting that you recommend Kim get with Tom, Emily
2 and Deb, is that Tom Beall, Emily Metzger and Deb
3 Barnett?

4 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

5 Q. Are Tom Beall, Emily Metzger and Deb Barnett at 6 that point in time senior management in the Office of 7 the United States Attorney?

8 A. Yes, they were.

9 Q. And, I'm sorry, that was August 24th of 2016,
10 correct, that e-mail?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. I'd like to show you Special Master Rask 7. And 13 am I correct this is an e-mail from Erin Tomasic to you
14 dated January 17th, 2017?

15 A. The top portion is.

16 Q. And besides sending it-- Erin sending that e-mail
17 to you, she also sent it to Kim Flannigan; is that
18 right?

19 A. That's correct.

20 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Judge, I just want to 21 give Mr. Clymer a second to look at it.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, again, we received
24 no notice of this-- any line of inquiry with respect to 25 this communication. As a result, we never had a chance

1 to give the witness instructions about authorization, so
2 he's not authorized to any questions about this.

3 THE COURT: I understand. I will admit
4 Exhibit No. 7, understanding that any questions about
5 the content of it this witness is-- is not authorized to
6 answer.

7 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Thank you, Judge.
8 I'd like to publish that document.

9 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

10 Q. Mr. Rask, in the second paragraph Erin writes
11 about Deb's misrepresentation. Do you see that?

12 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

13 Q. You can't tell me that you see or do not see the 14 sentence that says something about Deb's
15 misrepresentation?

16 MR. CLYMER: Judge, I'm going to object to 17 this because the document speaks for itself and Mr.
18 Cohen knows the witness is not authorized to answer. I
19 don't see the point in making him repeat that over and 20 over and over.

21 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: All right. I
22 withdraw the question and--

23 THE COURT: I'll sustain.

24 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I withdraw the 25 question and apologize.

1 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

2 Q. I'll ask one more question, Mr. Rask. Do you
3 agree that there was a misrepresentation by Deb?

4 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

5 Q. Two more. I'm going to show you what's been 6 marked as Special Master Rask 8. Can you tell me what 7 this is, please?

8 THE COURT: Did you say 8?

9 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Yes, Judge.

10 THE WITNESS: It's an e-mail from Ms.
11 Barnett to several individuals in the office.

12 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

13 Q. Including you. Correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. By the way, I'm sorry, going back to the last
16 document, that was dated January 17th, 2017. Correct?

17 A. The top portion of the e-mail string has that 18 date, yes.

19 Q. That's about five months after the e-mail that I
20 showed you before that, is that right, the August 24th
21 e-mail?

22 A. Almost five months, yes.

23 Q. And you said that-- returning to Rask 8. This is 24 an e-mail from Ms. Barnett to you and others. Correct?

25 A. Mine is not marked with a number, so is it the

1 most recent one that you gave me that you're referring
2 to now?

3 Q. Yeah.

4 A. I just wanted to make sure I knew which one you
5 were referring to.

6 Q. Thank you.

7 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, to expedite things,
8 we have no objection to the admission of this into 9 evidence and we had no notice of this. And again, the 10 witness is not authorized to answer any questions.

11 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 8, what's
12 the date of this e-mail again?

13 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: August 9th, 2016,
14 Judge.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

17 Q. In addition to you, Mr. Rask, Debra Barnett also 18 sent this e-mail to Chris Oakley, Erin Tomasic, Kim
19 Flannigan, Thomas Beall, Duston Slinkard, Emily Metzger
20 and Kay MacNeil; is that right?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And she's talking about a hearing with the Court
23 regarding CCA video?

24 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

25 Q. Do you see where-- the first sentence, it says,

1 "I believe it went very well"?

2 A. I see that.

3 Q. Do you recall receiving an e-mail in response to 4 this from Chris Oakley that said, "Right. And Waterloo
5 was a victory"?

6 A. I'm not authorized to answer that question.

7 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: One second, Judge.

8 That's all I have, Judge. Thank you, Mr. Rask.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Clymer.

10 MR. CLYMER: No questions, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. May Mr. Rask be 12 excused subject to recall for the reasons that we 13 discussed at the bench? Yes?

14 MR. BELL: (Nods head up and down).

15 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Rask, you are excused
16 but you are subject to recall.

17 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

18 MR. CLYMER: Before we bring the next
19 witness in, Your Honor, may I address the Court?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 MR. CLYMER: I'll wait until Mr. Rask
22 leaves. I made a mistake, Your Honor, I thought it was 23 a different witness next, I'm sorry.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Next witness.

25 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Just a moment,

1 please. Judge, we do have an issue with the next
2 witness that we should chat about before she's called.
3 It's my understanding that the Federal Public Defender
4 is going to call Ms. Tomasic, and it's further my
5 understanding that Mr. Clymer has not had any discussion
6 with Ms. Tomasic regarding her Touhy obligations.

7 MR. CLYMER: Can I clarify that?

8 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Yes, please.

9 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I have not spoken
10 to Ms. Tomasic personally to my knowledge ever. I did
11 speak with an attorney who I believe represents her, Mr.
12 Deatherage, and I communicated to Mr. Deatherage that
13 the Department of Justice's Touhy position with respect
14 to his client was laid out in a publicly-filed document,
15 which was the notice of-- the Touhy notice that I filed
16 with this court. I gave a copy of that to Mr.
17 Deatherage. That's the extent of our communication with 18 Ms. Tomasic's counsel regarding the Touhy obligations.

19 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: So, Judge, I guess
20 I'm just concerned or trying to understand if-- if I ask
21 a question of Ms. Tomasic that the government believes
22 she's precluded from answering pursuant to her Touhy
23 obligations, what happens? In other words, are you
24 going to object based on Touhy, is she going to answer
25 on her own?

1 MR. CLYMER: My understanding-- would the
2 Court like me to answer Mr. Cohen?

3 THE COURT: Well, all right, so as I
4 understand it, you filed your notice indicating the 5 bounds, the parameters under which all of these 6 witnesses, these government witnesses-- I guess I should
7 say Department of Justice witnesses could testify,
8 including Ms. Tomasic, who's no longer a Department of 9 Justice employee.

10 MR. CLYMER: Correct.

11 THE COURT: Nonetheless, it looks to me by 12 your notice that you are treating her as if she's under 13 the bounds of Touhy; is that fair?

14 MR. CLYMER: And the regulations so state,
15 yes.

16 THE COURT: All right. So I don't think we 17 know until she gets on the stand whether she's going to 18 honor that or not. Maybe you know, I don't know.

19 MR. CLYMER: I do not know.

20 THE COURT: And what-- what do the 21 regulations say about a former employee who chooses not 22 to honor that?

23 MR. CLYMER: They-- they don't say anything,
24 Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: What are the penalties

1 associated with that?

2 MR. CLYMER: I don't believe that the
3 regulations say that there's any penalties associated 4 with that.

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, we'll see--
6 we'll see what her position is I guess. Let's-- let's
7 get her started on the stand.

8 MR. BELL: Call Erin Tomasic.

9 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Judge, may I ask how
10 late the Court intends to go this evening?

11 THE COURT: Well, the building closes at 12 5:00 because we have limited funds for security, but 13 we'll try to go a little past that. I'm used to getting 14 in trouble for doing that, so it won't be the first
15 time. I would say no later than 5:30.

16 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: 5:30, Judge.

17 MR. BELL: Your Honor, just so you know, I
18 consulted Mr. Cohen. I think for this witness we're 19 going to go a little bit out of order. I think Mr.
20 Cohen will go first, we'll go after him and then the 21 other defendants.

22 THE COURT: All right. That's fine.

23 MR. CLYMER: Judge, there's a few matters
24 that I think would be helpful to discuss before we break
25 today. So if you wanted to stop this witness a little

1 before the time you wanted to call it quits for today,
2 it might be helpful.

3 THE COURT: Okay, will do.

4 ERIN TOMASIC,
5 called as a witness on behalf of the Federal Public
6 Defender, having first been duly sworn, testified as
7 follows:

8 MR. DEATHERAGE: Your Honor?

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 MR. DEATHERAGE: May I address the Court,
11 please?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MR. DEATHERAGE: My name is-- my name is 14 Bill Deatherage and I represent Ms. Tomasic. And we 15 would-- we request that Mr. Clymer on behalf of the 16 government tell her if she's not authorized to answer
17 something that's asked of her, just so there's no
18 misunderstanding. We do have the government's response
19 to the Touhy disclosures, but they're subject to 20 interpretation.

21 THE COURT: All right. We have-- I don't
22 think you were in here, but we had a colloquy just a
23 minute ago about this very issue. And, Mr. Clymer, I
24 think we ought to engage in that in the hearing of Ms.
25 Tomasic and Mr. Deatherage again.

1 As I understand it, the government is taking
2 the position that Ms. Tomasic, although she's a former
3 employee of the Department of Justice, is nonetheless
4 subject to the Touhy regulations; is that fair?

5 MR. CLYMER: That's correct, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: And you, in fact, as part of 7 your notice have included the bounds of what the 8 Department of Justice has authorized Ms. Tomasic to 9 testify to; is that correct?

10 MR. CLYMER: That's correct, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. And then I went
12 further and asked you if Ms. Tomasic as a former 13 employee decides that she can answer questions beyond
14 the authorization, what the penalties for that would be,
15 if any.

16 MR. CLYMER: And, Your Honor, I-- I want to 17 be very careful here because I don't want to be accused
18 of saying anything to deter testimony. My answer to you
19 was specifically the regulations do not speak to that.
20 So I am not-- I am not taking a position. And I will if
21 the Court asks me to, but I'm not taking a position
22 about whether there could be other sanctions or not.
23 I'm simply saying, to my knowledge, the regulations do
24 not speak to that.

25 THE COURT: All right. Understood. All

1 right. Mr. Deatherage, anything more?

2 MR. DEATHERAGE: Our understanding is that
3 there are certain penalties, Your Honor, possible
4 penalties. And that's why we want to be careful.

5 Ms. Tomasic intends-- at this point intends
6 to abide by the government's direction, and so-- but we
7 need to know what that is when a question is asked.

8 THE COURT: All right. Understood. All
9 right.

10 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I'm sorry, can I
11 make one suggestion then, Your Honor? I don't want to 12 keep jumping up and interrupting because things have 13 taken a long time already today. Can I suggest that if 14 Ms. Tomasic is uncertain, that she ask to speak to me
15 and Mr. Deatherage? That might be the easier way to do
16 it. If that's okay with Mr. Deatherage and the Court,
17 rather than me standing up.

18 MR. BELL: I-- I think the proper procedure
19 is for him to stand up and say. He's the one--
20 (reporter interruption). The proper procedure is for 21 him to stand up and assert it on behalf of the 22 government, not for her to have to confer with the 23 government about whether it is or it's not a privilege.

24 MR. CLYMER: It's not a privilege. They
25 keep saying that, Your Honor. It's not a privilege.

1 THE COURT: I know it's not a privilege, but
2 it's an-- I don't know what you call it, an invocation
3 of rights under a regulation. The way it's been
4 proceeding with the other witnesses is they're asked a
5 question and they understand the scope of what they've 6 been-- what they're allowed to testify to and what
7 they're not and they answer. If they have a question,
8 then they ask you. But the witness has been the one
9 that has-- has initiated that.

10 Why don't we-- why don't we stop and read
11 what-- what you have written in your notice about the 12 government's position about the scope of Ms. Tomasic's
13 testimony.

14 All right. So-- and this is-- you've given
15 two of these notices, one to the FPD and one to Mr.
16 Cohen. I don't know if they're exactly the same. But 17 the one I have in front of me is "her duties as the 18 lead--" these are permissible lines of inquiry.

19 Her duties as the lead prosecuting attorney
20 in the Black case; her duties as the lead prosecuting
21 attorney in Herrera-Zamora, along with AUSA Zabel; her
22 policy and practice in disseminating inmate phone calls
23 in discovery; communications by or between herself,
24 Flannigan, Rokusek in August 2016 relating to the 25 Dertinger matter. I won't read that verbatim.

1 Her conduct and circumstances in entering my
2 chambers to deliver materials related to this case as 3 discussed in the September 7th hearing; when, where,
4 how, why and what cases she listened to recordings of 5 attorney-client phone calls; her conversation with
6 defense attorneys in February 2017 where she and AUSA
7 Zabel demanded the defense withdraw their motions,
8 including her basis for their request, but this
9 authorization does not extend to discussions with other
10 U.S. Attorney Office employees when defense counsel was 11 not involved in those discussions.

12 The basis for and circumstances surrounding
13 the termination of her association with the U.S.
14 Attorney's Office; and any conversations she may have 15 had with, including instructions she or others gave, to 16 the interpreter assigned to listen to inmate calls in 17 the Herrera-Zamora case; the circumstances under which 18 the interpreter relayed any results of that 19 interpretation. This authorization is limited to 20 communications with the interpreter and not internal 21 U.S. Attorney Office communications.

22 So that's the parameters. Hopefully that
23 helps Ms. Tomasic recall.

24 All right. Mr. Cohen, are you ready to 25 proceed?

1 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Thank you, Judge.

2 THE COURT: And we'll go until about 5:15,
3 5:20.

4 DIRECT EXAMINATION

5 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

6 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Tomasic.

7 A. Good afternoon.

8 Q. Welcome back to Kansas City.

9 A. Thank you.

10 Q. I'm going to first begin asking you about my 11 order of appointment. Are you aware that when the Court
12 appointed me as Special Master in this case to pursue an
13 investigation that it ordered all United States
14 Attorney's Office personnel to, quote, "provide full 15 cooperation to the Special Master"?

16 A. Yes, I am.

17 Q. And did you believe that that order applied to 18 you personally?

19 A. Yes, I did.

20 Q. Did anybody in the United States Attorney's 21 Office ever suggest or direct that you not cooperate or 22 confer with me?

23 THE WITNESS: Can I answer that?

24 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I believe the 25 witness is asking me a question.

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 MR. CLYMER: And this might be part of the
3 package I need to speak to somebody about after court
4 because it's not listed on the authorization. And so
5 the answer is: Until we can talk about it, I can't say.

6 THE COURT: Well, I-- I sort of agree with
7 Mr. Bell's argument, which is that's what this hearing
8 is about, that's what I guess precipitated this hearing
9 was an order to show cause. And that's what's pending
10 in front of me as well as other motions; that the U.S.
11 Attorney's Office had ceased cooperating with the 12 Special Master. So I think this is within the scope of 13 what everyone knew was going to be testified to. You
14 know what--

15 MR. CLYMER: I couldn't agree-- Judge, I
16 couldn't agree with you more on that and-- but what we 17 have to operate on are the Touhy notices that we get.
18 And I-- I don't know why that's not in the Touhy notice
19 we got. I can't-- all I could operate on was what I was 20 given.

21 And so the problem is, Judge, I-- the
22 regulations apply to me too and I can only make 23 decisions based on what I'm given notice about. And the 24 reason I'm raising this is I understand why the Court
25 would want these questions answered, I don't take issue

1 with that. I understand why Mr. Cohen wants to ask the
2 questions. We were never given notice like we should've
3 been given notice about this. If we did, we wouldn't be
4 having this conversation. I'm sorry, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. You're advising Ms.
6 Tomasic to decline to answer that until further notice
7 from you?

8 MR. CLYMER: No, Your Honor. I am saying
9 that Ms. Tomasic does not have authorization from the 10 Department of Justice to answer this because we were not 11 given notice about this line of inquiry. And I'm also 12 saying that I am inclined to go back to the Department
13 to see if they will authorize this line of inquiry.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Understood.

15 THE WITNESS: So my response is: I've been 16 directed not to answer the question.

17 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

18 Q. Did you ever request to meet with me during my
19 investigation?

20 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, what would be 21 easiest for me is if I look to Mr. Clymer and if he 22 signals I'm not allowed to answer, if he would do so.
23 Otherwise I would like to answer.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 MR. CLYMER: I don't want to give signals to

1 the witness that are not part of the record, Your Honor.
2 I'm sorry. I-- I'm not comfortable having non-recorded
3 communications with Ms. Tomasic.

4 THE COURT: All right. So then you need to
5 give her a signal verbally on the record.

6 MR. CLYMER: I think the easiest--

7 THE COURT: If she looks at you, she's
8 asking for your advice is what she's saying.

9 MR. CLYMER: Very well. Your Honor, can I
10 just make a suggestion? There are certain areas of 11 inquiry that the public defender and the Special Master
12 gave us notice about. We--

13 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I agree. I'll
14 withdraw the question and move on.

15 MR. CLYMER: And by tomorrow we might have 16 an answer for this.

17 THE COURT: All right. Move on.

18 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

19 Q. Ms. Tomasic, I'm just going to ask you about some 20 documents. This is marked Special Master Tomasic 1, Tom 21 1.

22 A. Yes, I recognize it.

23 Q. This is an e-mail from Kim Flannigan to you dated
24 January 31st, 2017, is that right, on top?

25 A. Yes, that's correct.

1 Q. And it contains an e-mail from Emily Metzger to 2 Kim Flannigan, Debra Barnett and you. Correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. So before I ask you about this document, I'm 5 going to ask you some questions about your entry into
6 chambers. Do you remember that event?

7 A. Yes, I do.

8 Q. Early in the day you stopped by chambers and 9 dropped off some materials. Correct?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. Later in the day, around 5:30-ish, you also 12 stopped by chambers to drop off additional materials.
13 Correct?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. Did you ask any supervisors if you could do that?
16 This is-- the matter of chambers is explicitly something
17 you are allowed to discuss.

18 A. Okay.

19 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I-- I have to check
20 something here, Your Honor, I'm sorry. I'm trying to 21 read the e-mail so I wasn't paying attention. The 22 authorization does not extend to discussions about this
23 event within the United States Attorney's Office, 24 whether such discussions occurred before or after the 25 entry.

1 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Oh, okay.

2 THE WITNESS: Without going into any
3 discussions, I believed I had authorization to go up
4 there.

5 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

6 Q. From whom?

7 A. Authorization from Debra Barnett and Emily
8 Metzger.

9 Q. Had you tried to reach Ms. Barnett before 5:00 to 10 obtain authorization?

11 A. I had attempted to contact Ms. Barnett for 12 multiple days by e-mail and she was non-responsive. So
13 based on that and also with the knowledge that she was 14 not in the office, Ms. Flannigan and I made contact with 15 Ms. Metzger.

16 Q. When you made contact with Ms. Metzger, did Ms.
17 Metzger in turn say, we need to get ahold of Deb
18 Barnett?

19 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, again that goes to 20 internal conversations.

21 THE WITNESS: I've been directed not to
22 answer the question.

23 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

24 Q. Did you await authorization from Ms. Barnett
25 before you went to Judge Robinson's chambers?

1 MR. CLYMER: That would be internal
2 conversations.

3 THE COURT: Well, I tend to disagree with
4 that particular question. It's a yes or no question.

5 MR. CLYMER: But I-- implicit in the
6 question, Your Honor, is that there was authorization
7 given by somebody in the U.S. Attorney's Office.

8 THE COURT: She already testified to that.

9 THE WITNESS: Yes, I did await authorization
10 from Debra Barnett.

11 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

12 Q. Was there any discussion with Ms. Barnett and Ms.
13 Metzger about your having to obtain-- your having to 14 obtain access to chambers by getting a United States
15 Marshal to escort you?

16 MR. CLYMER: Again, Your Honor, I don't know
17 what my role is here.

18 THE COURT: Well, when she asks you for 19 advice-- are you asking him for advice on this 20 particular question?

21 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 MR. CLYMER: I don't believe it's within the 24 authorization, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. I would agree

1 because it goes specifically to a conversation, as
2 opposed to the prior question which is were you awaiting
3 authorization. That's not a conversation, that's not a
4 discussion.

5 MR. CLYMER: I understand, Your Honor.

6 THE WITNESS: I've been instructed not to
7 answer the question.

8 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Your Honor, I would
9 move to admit Special Master Tomasic 1.

10 MR. CLYMER: No objection, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Tomasic 1 admitted.

12 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

13 Q. This is an e-mail from Kim Flannigan where it
14 says "on August 26th." Is that correct?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. Did you believe that you would find chambers
17 locked when you went there at 5:30?

18 A. I did.

19 Q. Were you surprised when the door was open?

20 A. I was.

21 Q. What did you do when the door was open?

22 A. I, along with the Deputy U.S. Marshal, stepped 23 inside the threshold and he rapped on the door frame and 24 we began saying "hello, hello."

25 Q. Who answered the door?

1 A. It was a law clerk, and I don't recall her name.

2 Q. Meredith Schlachter ring a bell?

3 A. It does.

4 Q. Do you remember what you said to Ms. Schlachter?

5 A. I do not recall. I remember I made a joke and
6 she-- but I don't remember the exact language.

7 Q. Was the joke something along the lines of, "I
8 asked the United States Marshal to break us in"?

9 A. If that's what she recalls. I have no
10 independent memory of exactly the language I used. I
11 have read Judge Robinson's portion of the transcript
12 from September 7th, and that does ring a bell from Judge
13 Robinson's portion of the transcript.

14 Q. Is it fair to say that was a joke and you had no
15 intention to actually break in to chambers?

16 A. Absolutely.

17 Q. When you went into Judge Robinson's chambers
18 after hours, Deb Barnett and Emily Metzger knew that you
19 were going to do that. Correct?

20 MR. CLYMER: Objection. Outside the scope
21 of this witness' knowledge and it could only be known
22 based on internal communications.

23 THE COURT: So is this a Touhy objection?

24 MR. CLYMER: Yes. Well, part of it is and 25 part of it isn't. Part of it is outside the scope but,

1 in addition, there's also a Touhy problem because it
2 relies on internal communications.

3 THE COURT: All right. So it's not outside
4 the scope because she might have personal knowledge.
5 But if you're saying that you're advising her, not that
6 she asked for it, but that you're advising her that it's 7 within the bounds of Touhy, you've made your record on
8 that.

9 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Judge, I-- I ask the 10 court reporter to repeat the question. I don't believe
11 that I asked for internal communications.

12 (The question was read back).

13 MR. CLYMER: I guess I'll say it
14 differently, Judge, because I think you're right, it's 15 either/or. In other words, the only way she could know
16 that is based on internal communications. If there were 17 no communications, then it's outside her knowledge.

18 THE COURT: All right. So you're advising
19 her not to answer the question?

20 MR. CLYMER: Yeah, I am, Your Honor.

21 THE WITNESS: I have been instructed not to
22 answer the question.

23 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

24 Q. Did there come a time that there were press
25 reports with regard to your entry into chambers?

1 A. Yes, there did.

2 Q. Is it upsetting you today even, what the content
3 of those press reports was?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. What did the reports say?

6 A. Nationwide it said, it implied that I broke into
7 Judge Robinson's chambers to steal evidence.

8 Q. Was that true?

9 A. No, it was not.

10 Q. Did you seek to have that reported correctly?

11 A. Yes, I did.

12 Q. How did you seek to have it reported correctly?

13 A. I made a request of the U.S. Attorney.

14 Q. Who exactly?

15 A. Tom Beall.

16 Q. What did Mr. Beall do?

17 A. Nothing. To my knowledge at least.

18 Q. Did Kim Flannigan and Emily Metzger say anything
19 to Mr. Beall?

20 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I believe that that 21 again is outside the scope of the witness'
22 authorization.

23 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I'm sorry, you're
24 right.

25 THE WITNESS: I've been instructed not to

1 answer the question.

2 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

3 Q. I'd like to show you a document marked Special
4 Master Tom 2. Can you just tell me what this is,
5 please?

6 A. This is an e-mail-- this is an e-mail chain
7 between Kim Flannigan, Tom Beall. Copying Debra
8 Barnett, me, Emily Metzger, Chris Oakley and Jim Cross,
9 who was the media point of contact for the district.

10 Q. What is a media point of contact?

11 A. He works for the U.S. Attorney and he helped 12 issue press releases. And so if the U.S. Attorney wants
13 to focus on a particular subject, the media spokesperson
14 will drum up press releases along those lines.

15 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Move for admission of 16 this document, Judge.

17 MR. CLYMER: I'm not sure I see the
18 relevance, Your Honor, so I object on relevance grounds.

19 THE COURT: Overruled. Exhibit 2, Tomasic
20 Exhibit 2 admitted.

21 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

22 Q. And you said this is-- excuse me. You said this
23 is an e-mail from Kim Flannigan to Tom Beall and copies
24 you and others. Correct?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. Does--

2 A. And the portion you have up is responding to the 3 e-mail below from Tom Beall.

4 Q. Do you know whether Kim believed Tom or the
5 United States Attorney's Office owed you an obligation
6 to straighten out the record?

7 A. Yes, it was very clear that Kim Flannigan and 8 other AUSAs in the district believed that Tom Beall had 9 an obligation to correct the record.

10 Q. I'm going to hand you a document marked Special
11 Master Tom 3. Can you please tell me what it is?

12 A. Special Master Tom 3 is an exhibit containing an 13 e-mail exchange between Kim Flannigan and Tom Beall and 14 no one else is copied. And the e-mail contains an 15 attachment, which is a letter-- well, no, actually it
16 doesn't contain the attachment printed out.

17 Q. Am I correct that you are not listed as a
18 recipient?

19 A. Not that I see, no.

20 Q. So on this e-mail thread you are not listed as a
21 recipient or a-- an author. Correct?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. Have you seen this document before?

24 A. Yes, I have.

25 Q. Does it appear to be, in fact, an e-mail thread

1 between Kim Flannigan and Tom Beall?

2 A. It does.

3 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Move to admit Special
4 Master Tom 3.

5 THE COURT: Any objection?

6 MR. CLYMER: Objection, relevance.

7 THE COURT: All right. Subject to
8 relevance, I'm going to admit.

9 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

10 Q. Almost at the bottom of this document there's an 11 e-mail from Thomas Beall to Kim Flannigan marked
12 September 8th. Do you see that?

13 A. I do.

14 Q. And did Mr. Beall suggest-- do you know whether 15 Mr. Beall suggested to Debra Barnett and Emily Metzger
16 that they didn't know--

17 A. I was not--

18 Q. -- about your entry?

19 A. I was not privy to any communications in that 20 respect. I-- I do know that Ms. Flannigan was drafting 21 a letter and she had guidance from Mr. Beall as to how 22 she had to draft the letter to not damage the 23 reputations of certain people at the top of the 24 administration.

25 Q. Reputations of who?

1 A. Debra Barnett and Emily Metzger.

2 Q. I'm showing you again Special Master Tom 3 where
3 Mr. Beall writes at the top, "They did not understand
4 that aspect." Is that what you're referring to?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. So he is directing Ms. Flannigan there?

7 A. That's correct.

8 MR. CLYMER: Objection, calls for a
9 characterization. The document speaks for itself.

10 THE COURT: All right. I'll sustain.

11 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

12 Q. I'm going to show you a document marked Special 13 Master Tomasic 4. And if you would just look at the 14 bottom half of that and tell me what it is.

15 A. That is an e-mail from me to Tom Beall on-- sent
16 on September 9th, 2016.

17 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Move to admit this
18 document, Judge.

19 THE COURT: Any objection?

20 MR. CLYMER: Relevance, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. I'll admit it.

22 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

23 Q. The part where you're writing to Mr. Beall, you
24 state-- you say that, "The judge inferred I may have 25 accessed her chambers for nefarious reasons." Is that

1 true that you entered her chambers for nefarious
2 reasons?

3 A. No, I did not.

4 Q. Why did you enter her chambers after 5:30?

5 A. Because I was directed to do so by Debra Barnett
6 and Emily Metzger.

7 Q. Do you believe the record was ever corrected in 8 that regard in the press?

9 A. I do not. Well, I take that back. Recently at a
10 hearing in United States v. Dertinger, Kim Flannigan was 11 finally able to testify. And she acknowledged that she 12 had been involved in the decision to send me up to 13 chambers and that she was the one who actually called 14 the U.S. Marshals. But the decision, as were all
15 decisions in Black, was left to Debra Barnett and Emily
16 Metzger.

17 Q. Did the press ever correct its reportage?

18 A. No, it did not.

19 MR. CLYMER: Objection, relevance. Your 20 Honor, more generally with respect to this line of 21 inquiry, as I understand it, the purposes of this 22 hearing are with respect to the Rule 41 issue and the 23 issues regarding cooperation with the Special Master.

24 I'm not sure the relevance of getting the 25 differing views about whether the instructions were to

1 slip something under your door or into your chambers has
2 any bearing on those issues.

3 THE COURT: Well, this is within the scope
4 of the Touhy summary, it's within the scope of what you
5 allowed her to testify to. I-- I think it has 6 relevance. It's part-- it happened in the course of the 7 Black investigation. There was a lot of suspicion
8 surrounding that because the DVRs had just been 9 delivered to my chambers a couple of hours before this.
10 So I think it raised some suspicion that maybe there was 11 a nefarious reason.

12 This witness is now given the opportunity to 13 explain otherwise, and I think she should be able to do
14 so. I think it's highly relevant.

15 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Thank you, Judge. I
16 would also observe that I was specifically directed by 17 you in an order to pursue this line of inquiry.

18 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

19 Q. Ms. Tomasic, I'm going to show you Special Master
20 Tomasic 5, which is an e-mail thread I ask you to 21 identify for me-- well, just identify this document for 22 me, please.

23 A. This is an e-mail exchange between Dave Zabel and 24 Tris Hunt and Tom Beall that was forwarded to me from 25 David Zabel.

1 Q. You got this in the normal course of business?

2 A. I did.

3 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I move to admit

4 Special Master Tomasic 5, please.

5 THE COURT: Do you want a continuing
6 objection?

7 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I'll reiterate
8 without arguing my relevance objection.

9 THE COURT: All right. I'll note a
10 continuation objection to relevance on these e-mails
11 that pertain to this entry into chambers issue. I
12 assume that's what this is about. Overruled. Exhibit
13 No. 5 admitted, Tomasic No. 5 admitted.

14 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

15 Q. What's the date of the last e-mail?

16 A. With actual substance was September 8th, 2016.

17 Q. And the last e-mail is from whom?

18 A. Tom Beall to David Zabel and Tris Hunt.

19 Q. I'm sorry. So look at the very bottom of the 20 first page. Am I correct that that's actually an e-mail
21 from Dave Zabel to Tom?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And it's signed "Dave and Tris." Correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And so that means it's from Dave Zabel and Tris

1 Hunt?

2 A. Yes, they co-wrote it.

3 Q. And they're also in the United States Attorney's
4 Office?

5 A. Yes, in the District of Kansas. Would you like
6 me to--

7 Q. What is their characterization of what Deb said
8 about your dropping things off after hours at chambers?

9 A. Well, that it was incomplete and that important
10 parts had been left out that made it appear that I went
11 up there for a different purpose.

12 Q. And do you understand that they knew that you had 13 received approval?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And they're asking Tom to correct the record?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Do you think it was widely known in the office
18 that you were following directions when you went to 19 Judge Robinson's chambers?

20 A. I do.

21 Q. Do you think it was widely believed in the office
22 that upper management didn't support you?

23 A. I know that for certain.

24 Q. Did other people ever say that?

25 MR. CLYMER: Could you repeat the question,

1 Mr.--

2 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

3 Q. Did other people ever say that?

4 MR. CLYMER: I believe that's outside the
5 scope of this witness' authorization.

6 THE WITNESS: I do know of a conversation
7 that took place outside of work, so I don't think it
8 would count.

9 Leon Patton, who had been in the office for 10 some time, found a video of antelope being chased by 11 wolves. And he jokingly showed it to me and others and 12 said that Erin was the antelope that the first wolves
13 kind of-- or the mother antelope shoved down so the 14 wolves could get them. And the wolf was Deb. And he
15 sort of was making light of it, but he said it-- outside
16 of work he said it was the worst case of management not 17 supporting the people in the office and not being 18 truthful that he had seen in his 30-plus years.

19 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

20 Q. Did Mr. Patton ever say something like that to 21 Ms. Metzger?

22 MR. CLYMER: If the witness is looking at 23 you or me, Your Honor, without knowing the 24 circumstances, my suspicion is it's outside the scope of 25 authorization.

1 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

2 Q. Did you ever hear something along the lines of
3 Mr. Patton saying "we're terrified"?

4 MR. CLYMER: Same answer, Your Honor, from
5 me.

6 THE WITNESS: I know that we all were.

7 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

8 Q. I'm showing you something marked Special Master
9 Tomasic 6.

10 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I'm sorry, I only 11 have one copy of this. I'll let you look at it in just 12 a moment.

13 THE WITNESS: Yes, I recognize it.

14 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

15 Q. Can you tell me what it is, please?

16 A. This is the first complaint I submitted to the 17 Office of Professional Responsibility outlining what I
18 believed to be a violation of the ethical rules,
19 specifically duty of candor. And the complaint was 20 lodged against Tom Beall, Emily Metzger and Debra
21 Barnett, and a roughly 28-page document that outlines
22 what happened with respect to me being directed to go up
23 to chambers and then efforts to correct the record by 24 many people in the office and-- and the outcome of that 25 effort.

1 THE COURT: Given that it's a 28-page
2 document, I'm going to-- if you're going to offer it,
3 I'm going to make that subject to Mr. Clymer and others
4 having an opportunity to fully review it, which I
5 imagine will happen this evening.

6 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: That's fine, Judge.
7 I'm just going to point to two sentences in it.

8 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I'm going to object
9 to any use of this at this time. To have provided this
10 to Mr. Cohen in the first instance was likely a
11 violation of the Touhy regulations. I'm not threatening
12 or suggesting, I'm just stating my view about how the 13 regulations work.

14 People who are employees of the United
15 States Attorney's Offices have reputations. Typically 16 it's well-known within the Department that OPR matters
17 are highly confidential because they are accusations,
18 they are not findings of responsibility.

19 I'm troubled that Mr. Cohen did not notify 20 me about this ahead of time, that this was sprung on-- a
21 surprise. He chose not to make a copy of this 22 particular exhibit, unlike the rest of the exhibits he's 23 handed to me. So I had no opportunity to say anything
24 before the witness described what it was. I think
25 that's extremely improper, I'm very troubled by that.

1 I'd ask that the Court hold off on any
2 further discussion of this document until I've had time
3 to think about it and read a copy of the document.

4 THE COURT: All right. That's fair.

5 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I don't believe I've
6 moved for admission of it and I withdraw it.

7 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

8 Q. Ms. Tomasic, I'm going to change subjects on you.
9 With regard to audio-recordings of CCA inmates--

10 A. Uh-huh.

11 Q. -- did those audio-recordings reside anywhere
12 within the United States Attorney's Office computer
13 system?

14 A. I would think that they would be on-- there would 15 be no uniform answer to that because it would depend on 16 how each individual AUSA kept his or her calls. But 17 generally they would arrive to the office on disks and 18 then once they were prepared to go out in discovery,
19 they would be on the cloud.

20 Q. When you say "on the cloud," does that mean a
21 drive, computer drive within the office?

22 A. I don't know the answer to that. It was-- it was 23 set-- there were different drives on the system and one
24 was designated as cloud, and that's where all the 25 discovery was kept.

1 Q. I'm showing you your document marked Special
2 Master Tomasic 7. Can you tell me what that document
3 is, please?

4 A. That is an e-mail exchange between me and
5 Pauletta Boyd. And then lower down from Pauletta Boyd
6 to Debra Barnett and David Steeby, me, and Kim
7 Flannigan.

8 Q. And what is the subject matter of this e-mail?

9 A. CCA calls.

10 Q. Can you tell me what the--

11 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Well, I'd like to 12 move admission of this exhibit, please.

13 MR. CLYMER: May I have a chance to look at 14 it, Your Honor?

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I-- based on the--
17 what's on the document itself, I don't-- the relevance
18 is not self-evident, so at this point I have an 19 objection to it.

20 THE COURT: All right. Like the others that 21 have-- you've raised the relevance objections to, I'll 22 admit it, but subject to my determination later whether 23 it's relevant.

24 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

25 Q. If a call was on the cloud, does that mean that

1 any United States Attorney-- anybody in the United
2 States Attorney's Office could access it?

3 A. In the discovery drive, it's my experience yes.

4 Q. Do you understand that there were ways for
5 inmates to block the recording of a call at CCA?

6 A. That was my understanding.

7 Q. Did you know how that worked?

8 A. I did not. And based on your report, I know what
9 I suspected how it worked was wrong.

10 Q. I'd like to show you document Special Master
11 Tomasic 8.

12 A. This is an e-mail from Kim Flannigan to Debra
13 Barnett, Emily Metzger, Scott Rask, Erin Tomasic, Chris
14 Oakley and Tom Beall. Subject, CCA phone system. And 15 it was sent on August 17th.

16 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Move to admit.

17 MR. CLYMER: May I have a moment, Your
18 Honor?

19 THE COURT: Yes. This is No. 8 you said?
20 Tomasic Exhibit 8?

21 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Yes, Judge.

22 MR. CLYMER: No objection, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Exhibit 8 admitted.

24 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

25 Q. By the way, Erin, if you would have the press say

1 one thing, what would it be?

2 MR. CLYMER: Objection, relevance.

3 THE COURT: I'm not sure I understand the
4 relevance. I'll sustain.

5 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I'll withdraw it.

6 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

7 Q. Is it fair to say that this e-mail is between the 8 top supervisors in the United States Attorney's Office?

9 A. Yes, it is. And then Chris Oakley and I are 10 copied because we were counsel of record in Black.

11 Q. And is it fair to say that the e-mail is 12 expressing a lack of understanding about how attorney 13 calls are blocked?

14 A. Yes, it is.

15 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I just-- I have to 16 object to the characterization about the e-mail between 17 top supervisors. The e-mail is from one Assistant U.S.
18 Attorney to others. And the author is expressing some 19 uncertainty, not the remainder of the people on the 20 e-mail message. I'd just ask that it be characterized 21 properly if it's going to be characterized at all.

22 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I'm sorry if I
23 misspoke.

24 THE COURT: I don't know if I'm going to 25 accept your testimony about what this characterizes and

1 what it doesn't and who these folks are and whether they
2 were top management or not. Most of them-- they were
3 all in management positions with the exception of 4 whether Kim Flannigan and Scott Rask were both at the 5 same time. But other than Ms. Tomasic and Mr. Oakley,
6 everybody else had a supervisory position in the office
7 that's on this e-mail chain.

8 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

9 Q. Do you know anything about a link referenced at 10 the hearing? Do you know what that means?

11 A. I believe that one of the defense attorneys who's 12 not here today brought it up. It was an elderly
13 gentleman who represented-- I can't recall his name, but 14 he brought up the link and we didn't know what he was 15 talking about.

16 Q. Are you aware-- have you ever received an e-mail
17 that contained a clickable link, a link that you could 18 click on that would allow you to access phone calls?

19 A. I've never received an e-mail, no.

20 Q. Do you know whether that sort of link exists?

21 A. I know one legal assistant explained that she 22 obtained phone calls that way.

23 Q. From whom?

24 A. Someone at the U.S. Marshals Service.

25 Q. But the phone calls were made at CCA?

1 A. I don't know, I assume so.

2 Q. I'm showing you what's marked as Exhibit Special
3 Master Tom 9. Can you please tell me what that is?

4 A. That is an e-mail from Diana Shew, who was
5 in-house counsel for CCA, to Erin Tomasic and Chris
6 Oakley. And it's dated August 19th, 2016.

7 Q. Excuse me.

8 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Move for admission,
9 Judge.

10 MR. CLYMER: May I have a moment, Your
11 Honor?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MR. CLYMER: No objection.

14 THE COURT: Exhibit 9 admitted.

15 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

16 Q. This is an e-mail from you to Diana Shew; is that
17 right?

18 A. That's right.

19 Q. Diana Shew works for whom?

20 A. CCA corporate headquarters in Nashville,
21 Tennessee.

22 Q. Do you know what procedures there were at CCA to 23 make unrecorded legal calls?

24 A. Based on this e-mail, I learned that an inmate
25 could go to a counselor's office and place a call from

1 the counselor's office and that would not be on a
2 recorded line.

3 Q. Did you know that before you received this
4 e-mail?

5 A. I don't recall if I knew that.

6 Q. In fact, this e-mail suggests that the inmate
7 handbook doesn't explain that procedure; is that right?

8 MR. CLYMER: Objection, the document speaks
9 for itself.

10 THE COURT: Overruled. You can answer it if
11 you can.

12 THE WITNESS: Could you ask the question
13 again?

14 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

15 Q. This e-mail suggests that the CCA inmate handbook
16 doesn't say anything about that sort of procedure; is
17 that right?

18 A. That is what the e-mail suggests.

19 Q. When an inmate goes to a counselor's office to 20 use the phone, is the counselor still in the office?

21 A. I do not know the answer to that.

22 Q. If the counselor is still in the office, would 23 you consider that a private phone call between the 24 inmate and his attorney?

25 A. I suppose if the counselor is listening in, then

1 it wouldn't be private. I don't know-- I'm speaking in
2 the vernacular, not in a legal sense, because I don't
3 know what the law would be on that.

4 Q. I'm showing you what's been marked docket--
5 excuse me, Document No. Special Master Tom 11. I
6 skipped 10.

7 THE COURT: 10 or 11?

8 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: 11, I skipped 10.

9 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

10 Q. Can you please tell me what that is, Erin?

11 A. That is an e-mail from Matt Cahill to Glen
12 Virden, John Seubert, Jeff Stokes, Doug Younger, Erin
13 Tomasic, and Henry Herron and Craig Beam dated
14 March 31st, 2016.

15 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Move to admit.

16 MR. CLYMER: May I have a moment, Your
17 Honor?

18 THE COURT: Yes. I think we'll make this
19 the last line of inquiry for the evening.

20 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Thank you, Judge.

21 MR. CLYMER: No objection.

22 THE COURT: Exhibit 11 admitted.

23 BY SPECIAL MASTER COHEN:

24 Q. Who are all those folks you just mentioned; Matt
25 Cahill, Glen Virden, John Seubert, Jeff Stokes, David

1 Younger and Henry Herron and-- I'm sorry, and Craig
2 Beam?

3 A. Well, Craig Beam was not-- he works for the U.S.
4 Marshals Service and he's an upper-level supervisor.
5 Glen Virden is a KBI agent. John Seubert is seated here
6 in the courtroom, he's a Secret Service agent. Jeff
7 Stokes is a KBI agent. Doug Younger is a group
8 supervisor with KBI, and Henry Herron is an IRS agent.

9 Q. Why was Cahill writing all of those folks and you
10 this e-mail? What's their relationship?

11 A. They were all agents-- except for Craig Beam and 12 technically Doug Younger was also not on the case, but
13 everyone else was assigned to investigate the Black--
14 what eventually became known as the Black case.

15 Q. The body of the e-mail refers to Ms. Kinney?

16 A. Uh-huh.

17 Q. And CO Lajiness?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Who are they?

20 A. Ms. Kinney worked at CCA, and I don't believe she 21 works there anymore. And CO Lajiness-- Lajiness also 22 worked at CCA, but I don't think he works there anymore.

23 Q. Does this e-mail suggest that Matt Cahill
24 obtained from Mr. Lajiness information about phone calls
25 that were being made by an inmate?

1 A. Let's see. So it looks like he is asking for and
2 ordering a reverse to that phone number (816) 446-0772.

3 Q. So I just want to make sure I got an answer to my
4 question. Does it look like Matt Cahill is asking Mr.
5 Lajiness for information about phone calls made from an
6 inmate at CCA?

7 A. It does.

8 Q. It looks like he got it just by making a phone
9 call to Mr. Lajiness or an e-mail?

10 A. It looks like he called Ms. Kinney.

11 Q. And Ms. Kinney directed Lajiness to supply the 12 information requested; is that right?

13 A. I don't know about that. And then it says he 14 spoke with Lajiness, so it looks like maybe he spoke
15 with both of them, but I do not know.

16 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: This is probably as
17 good of spot as any, Judge, to stop for the evening.

18 THE COURT: All right. For I guess Ms.
19 Tomasic's purposes, how much longer do you think you're 20 going to be on your examination in the morning? And 21 I'll ask everyone else as well so there's some idea. I
22 know she's traveling from out of town.

23 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I'm bad at this,
24 Judge. I would say an hour-and-a-half or less.

25 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Bell?

1 MR. BELL: 30 minutes, maybe 45.

2 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So a good
3 chunk of the morning anyway.

4 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, could I ask that
5 Mr. Cohen provide to us all the remaining exhibits he
6 plans to show this witness? The public defender was 7 gracious enough to give us their exhibits. It makes
8 things go a lot easier. I don't have to read them as 9 the Court is waiting to decide whether I have an 10 objection or not.

11 THE COURT: All right. That's fair, if you
12 can do that, Mr. Cohen.

13 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I'm happy to do that,
14 Judge.

15 THE COURT: Yes. Mr. Bell? Well, let's go
16 ahead and-- and let Ms. Tomasic go for the evening.
17 Have her come back at 9:00 tomorrow. And then I know 18 there's some other matters we need to take up before we 19 fully recess.

20 All right. So Mr. Cohen is going to provide 21 copies of the additional exhibits you intend to offer
22 tomorrow to Mr. Clymer.

23 MR. GUASTELLO: Judge, and I would join in 24 that request on behalf of Mr. Carter. If we could go
25 ahead and get a copy of all the exhibits that Mr. Cohen

1 has-- has introduced and intends to introduce, that will
2 be helpful.

3 MS. DODGE: I'd motion the Court for that as
4 well because I don't have them.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: That's going to take
7 a little work, but I will do it.

8 THE COURT: All right. Anything more?
9 There was something else someone wanted to take up. Mr.
10 Clymer.

11 MR. CLYMER: May I approach?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MR. CLYMER: Your Honor, I represented to 14 the Court that I would try to make contact with the 15 Department of Justice as soon as I could about two 16 matters, as I recall. One was whether Mr. Rask could 17 have authorization to identify the AUSAs whom, to his 18 knowledge, had listened to attorney-client calls and 19 then reported it to their counsel. A couple in his 20
20 years. I think he said three to five in his 20 years.
21 And the second was about responding to questions from 22 Mr. Cohen based on the e-mail traffic regarding 23 discussions about not cooperating with Mr. Cohen's
24 investigation.

25 I am-- I want to talk about the second

1 topic, not the first. I am very mindful of the Court's
2 sequestration rule and I didn't need the reminder from
3 Mr. Cohen to know what it meant. I've been an attorney
4 a long time and so I well understood it.

5 It would be helpful for me in order to
6 discuss with people at main Justice what the issues are 7 for us to decide about authorization if I could talk to 8 Mr. Rask and the other witnesses who are involved in 9 those issues.

10 If the Court doesn't want me to do it, I
11 certainly won't do it, but I don't know enough about the 12 background I think to give a full description. So I'm 13 happy not to do it and I will follow the Court's orders.
14 But I'm just letting the Court know I will be a better
15 informed communicant with the Department of Justice if I
16 could speak to them about the e-mail traffic. And I
17 leave it to the Court to decide what-- which way it
18 wants me to go on this.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So obviously you would 20 want to ask Mr. Rask about the-- who the three to five
21 were. But who else--

22 MR. CLYMER: That's not what I would ask.
23 What I would do is-- Mr. Cohen wanted to question Mr.
24 Rask about some statements in e-mail traffic that
25 involved Mr. Rask, Ms. Metzger, Ms. Barnett, Mr. Beall,

1 regarding conversations regarding cooperation with the
2 Special Master. That all was news to me. I hadn't seen
3 those e-mails before I saw them in court today.

4 As I said at sidebar, if I had known-- if I
5 got notice under Touhy about that line of inquiry in 6 those e-mails, we might've gotten a different answer
7 about authorization. And so I'm going to go back and 8 see. But the more I know about that back-story, the 9 more information I can provide to DOJ.

10 So I just want to know if the Court is 11 willing to make an exception to the sequestration order
12 and allow me to talk to those AUSAs about those matters.
13 And I'm not-- I'm not asking you to, Judge, I'm just 14 telling you there's a choice here. I'm-- obviously 15 whatever the Court instructs me to do I'm going to do.
16 So if you want me to not speak to them about it, I
17 won't. If you are going to give me permission to speak
18 to them, I'll be more informed when I speak to the 19 Department of Justice.

20 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Bell.

21 MR. CLYMER: And I'm certainly not going to 22 coach them about how to answer questions or anything
23 like that. I wouldn't do that.

24 MR. BELL: Well, I'm a little surprised.
25 The caption for the order to show cause was about their

1 failure to cooperate with the Special Master. I'm sorry
2 to hear that these e-mails which are internal were never
3 shared with Mr. Clymer and now he's being surprised by 4 them.

5 That being said, I don't want there to be
6 any internal communications with these witnesses about
7 what they told who now that they're being surprised with 8 these e-mail communications or anything like that. If 9 that means they're going to decide not to answer
10 questions, then so be it. But I don't think that they
11 should have an opportunity to - for lack of a better
12 term - get their stories straight, which I think would 13 violate the heart of the rule and the sequestration
14 order in the first place.

15 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Cohen.

16 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: First I want to make 17 clear that my comment about sequestration was not for 18 Mr. Clymer's benefit. I'm quite sure he knows what 19 sequestration was. I saw that somebody came into the 20 courtroom who I thought had not gotten the word about 21 sequestration, so I stated it for the benefit of the 22 witness who came into the-- into the courtroom.

23 Also, honestly, Judge, this is not an easy
24 question, but I think I agree with the Federal Public
25 Defender that at this juncture it seems to me that--

1 that we should sit with things as they are. I don't
2 think that it would lead to a greater finding of the
3 truth, and I'm concerned about comments being shared
4 with witnesses.

5 And I also believe that-- it's, frankly, a
6 little hard for me to believe that the subject matters
7 that I'm asking about weren't on the United States
8 Attorney's Office's radar. It's been why I'm appointed
9 two years ago. So I really can't understand how it is 10 that these questions that I'm asking are a surprise.
11 Maybe the documents that I'm showing are a surprise, but 12 the subject matter can't be.

13 THE COURT: All right. I'm not going to 14 allow you to discuss this with the witnesses and to 15 essentially ask them more questions about the subject
16 matter of Mr. Cohen's questions. I understand that may 17 mean you don't get Department of Justice authorization,
18 I'm not sure you were going to get it anyway, I don't 19 think you know that either. But I know you'll-- you're 20 telling me that you'll seek it, but I don't think you
21 should talk to the witness in the meantime.

22 MR. CLYMER: Very well, Your Honor, then I
23 certainly won't.

24 Your Honor, am I correct in assuming that 25 Mr. Cohen is going to provide me the exhibits for all of

1 his witnesses, not just this particular witness?

2 THE COURT: Have you--

3 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Right. So, Judge,
4 let me explain what a poor job I've done. I was in
5 Cleveland without a paralegal and what I did was took
6 all of the documents witness by witness and put them
7 into folders and made copies, made the wrong number of 8 copies apparently, not realizing that I needed probably 9 three more than I made. Not only that, I only put 10 labels on the first one so all the copies don't have 11 labels.

12 Not only that, but some of the documents
13 that I have been proffering, for example-- and I'm 14 making this up. For example, Task 1 is actually the 15 same-- going to be the same as Barnett 3. It's the same
16 document. I did a poor job.

17 And so the only way that I know how to fix
18 that at this juncture is to take my folders, go through 19 them and-- and add the exhibit number and make more
20 copies and hand them out. That's going to take some 21 time. I apologize that-- that that happened. Frankly,
22 I've never done anything like this before and didn't 23 know how to do it correctly. And so that's where we 24 are.

25 THE COURT: How many documents are we

1 talking about do you think for the rest of the-- I mean,
2 as far as what you intend to offer?

3 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Two-thirds of that
4 (indicating).

5 THE COURT: All right. Well--

6 MR. CLYMER: I believe we can give Mr. Cohen
7 access to the U.S. Attorney's Office copy machine.

8 THE COURT: Well, I think what we can do is 9 have you scan them and then e-mail them tonight rather 10 than try to make copies. Now, they won't have the 11 exhibit numbers on them. You write the exhibits
12 numbers-- you have a set that has the exhibit numbers
13 written on them. I think what you need to do is scan
14 them and then just e-mail them, not try to make six sets
15 of copies tonight.

16 As long as that's accomplished this evening,
17 everybody can access them hopefully electronically and 18 print them out or whatever they're going to do before
19 tomorrow morning.

20 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: That's fine, Judge.
21 I just need--

22 THE COURT: What you're telling me is 23 there's duplication.

24 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: There is.

25 THE COURT: So I don't know how you want to

1 handle that, whether you want there to be duplication,
2 whether you're going to be able to figure out as you go
3 through here and only give them one.

4 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I don't think I can
5 do that, Judge. I think there will be duplication.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I apologize.

8 THE COURT: I mean, if you pull them all out
9 and scan them, that can be done pretty quickly.

10 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: I just need e-mail
11 addresses to send them to.

12 THE COURT: All right. So why don't we do
13 that. We have a high-speed scanner, we can get that 14 accomplished, so-- all right. What else?

15 MR. CLYMER: That's all I had, Your Honor.
16 Thank you.

17 MR. BELL: Your Honor, regarding the 18 sequestration order, we'd ask that you also direct the 19 potential witnesses not to read any media accounts of 20 other witnesses' testimony that may be reported in the 21 media.

22 THE COURT: All right. Well, I will ask
23 everyone who's had witnesses here so far, the FPD's
24 office and Special Master, to direct the witnesses who 25 have testified. And then the U.S. Attorney to direct

1 the-- or Mr. Clymer to direct everyone that's associated
2 with the U.S. Attorney's Office as well as the
3 investigative agencies to avoid media coverage as well
4 in case there are any reports about what witnesses said.
5 All right?

6 MR. CLYMER: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: You'll take care of all the
8 government and law enforcement witnesses. Well,
9 actually that-- Mr. Clymer, if you will talk to Ms.
10 Tomasic, I'll ask the FPD to talk to all the CCA
11 witnesses and anybody else that's not a government
12 witness. Okay?

13 MR. CLYMER: I'm not sure if Ms. Tomasic's
14 attorney is still here, Your Honor, I'll check.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Either you or Mr. Cohen
16 can get ahold of them and tell them that. All right.
17 What else?

18 MS. DODGE: I would just renew my objection
19 to the use of 28 C.F.R. that I-- I think that it's being
20 improperly used and I don't think that he's complied
21 with the rule completely in that I still haven't heard
22 on what grounds these Touhy objections are being made.
23 I don't know the factors-- I don't know the bases under
24 I think it's 16.23-- or 26, I'm sorry.

25 THE COURT: Well, I invited Mr. Clymer at

1 the outset of this hearing to give me the bases, he's
2 declined that. I don't know if I can force him to do
3 that.

4 You told me Rule 16 in general, but in terms
5 of the actual Touhy what you said was you didn't know
6 what the deliberative processes were of the ultimate
7 decision-maker, which is the Deputy Attorney General.
8 And as I understand it, that's why you weren't doing
9 that. Is that correct?

10 MR. CLYMER: No, Your Honor, I didn't
11 decline to give the Court the basis. I said that I
12 would be happy to explain what I think the factors are.
13 In fact, Your Honor, in the September 12th, 2017 letter
14 that I sent to Mr. Cohen I think describes in detail the 15 privileges that are at issue, the-- the rules of 16 procedure that are at issue, and other issues that are 17 in the Touhy regulations.

18 THE COURT: Well, that's in the form of the 19 brief, but now we're at an evidentiary hearing and there
20 are actual questions. And there are a lot of questions
21 that these witnesses have been directed to decline to 22 answer and we have not had a record from you on the 23 basis for those declinations.

24 MR. CLYMER: If the Court would like, first
25 thing in the morning I'll do my best to make a record.

1 THE COURT: Okay. And maybe going forward
2 as well. I mean, I-- you know, or maybe you can just do
3 it sort of in a general way, not-- rather than even
4 question by question. If you can say to the extent this
5 witness is going to testify or be asked about these 6 topics, this is the basis for why they've been told to 7 not--

8 MR. CLYMER: I'll do that in the morning,
9 Your Honor, if the Court gives me an opportunity to.

10 THE COURT: Okay. That's great.

11 MS. DODGE: Your Honor, one more thing.
12 Also I believe that the FPD-- at least I've seen it, I
13 can't tell you what document number it is, but I believe
14 that they have provided Mr. Clymer with the Touhy
15 questions and-- and information that they wanted from 16 Scott Rask, at least that's what I've witnessed. And I
17 believe this indicated questions that they-- or topics
18 that they wanted to cover, which Mr. Guastello and I
19 joined in on, absolutely were under the umbrella of what 20 he was being questioned about today. So I would also 21 just bring that just for the record purposes. Mr.
22 Clymer has got a copy of that.

23 THE COURT: All right. I should say this--
24 and you can have a continuing objection along these 25 lines. And, as I said, I will invite post-hearing

1 briefing. But the parameters of what I can rule on
2 contemporaneously are limited by virtue of the Touhy
3 regulations. I can rule that-- I can rule on the 4 question of whether a question is within the scope of 5 what the government has said they will agree the witness
6 can answer, I can rule on that. I am not going to rule
7 on whether they have invoked a valid Touhy basis.

8 So if he makes that record tomorrow or even 9 if he does it question by question, I'm not going to 10 rule on it because essentially what I would be doing is 11 trying to compel that witness' answer. That witness'
12 answer cannot be compelled. If they've been instructed
13 not to answer, they've been instructed not to answer.
14 And me ruling that, you know, they-- that that's not a
15 legitimate basis would essentially be the judge
16 compelling them to answer, which I can't do.

17 MS. DODGE: I understand.

18 THE COURT: I can ultimately, though, find
19 that the particular question there wasn't a proper
20 invocation of Touhy and maybe draw an adverse inference
21 from that or, you know, make a fact finding about it or 22 something. But I'm not going to be ruling
23 contemporaneously at least with respect to invocations
24 of Touhy. I will be ruling contemporaneously on 25 objections under the Federal Rules of Evidence. That's

1 pretty standard.

2 So I think the better practice is to make a
3 record, Mr. Clymer, and if we need to do that
4 prospectively with questions to some extent or another,
5 make a record. But the record is made, I'm not going to
6 be ruling at least at this point. All right?

7 Okay. What else?

8 MR. BELL: Last item. We are going to
9 release Patricia Cook from her subpoena or we've already 10 done so. The government stipulated to an e-mail which 11 is the only reason we had her here. I believe Mr. Cohen
12 is going to release her as well.

13 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Right.

14 MR. BELL: So it's on the record she's 15 released.

16 MR. SLINKARD: On that point, Your Honor,
17 the-- I discussed this with Mr. Bell earlier in the day,
18 but I think there was some confusion. It was indicated
19 to the Court at one point that FPD Exhibit 484 was being 20 admitted by stipulation. That was erroneous. It was 21 actually-- should've been FPD Exhibit 524 that we were 22 stipulating to the admission of. And that was the 23 e-mail that obviated the need for Ms. Cook to testify.

24 THE COURT: 524 is admitted by stipulation.
25 Okay.

1 MR. SLINKARD: And so--

2 MR. BELL: 484 is not admitted.

3 THE COURT: But 484 is not.

4 MR. SLINKARD: Is not admitted at this time.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Got it. Okay.

6 MR. CLYMER: One other very brief matter,
7 and I appreciate your patience, Your Honor. I want to
8 introduce attorney Todd Wallace, who's with counsel's
9 office with Secret Service who's present here today.
10 He'll be here tomorrow as well.

11 THE COURT: Thank you. Nice to meet you.
12 Okay. Million dollar question, are we going to finish
13 tomorrow?

14 MS. BRANNON: If not, Your Honor, do you
15 plan to go into Thursday?

16 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

17 MS. BRANNON: If we do not finish tomorrow,
18 do you plan to go into Thursday?

19 THE COURT: Well, it's a little problematic
20 as I'm supposed to be in Topeka at noon on Thursday.
21 We'll see.

22 Okay. All right. We'll be in recess.
23 Let's-- I have an 8:30 status conference actually with 24 you, Ms. Brannon, at 8:30 and we'll take that up here.
25 And then let's plan on all getting together here at 8:45

1 so if there's anything else to hash out, we've got 15
2 minutes to do that before we get Ms. Tomasic back on the
3 stand. All right?

4 So we'll recess until 8:45 for this case
5 tomorrow. All right. Have a good evening.

6 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Thank you, Judge.

7 MR. CLYMER: Thank you.

8 (5:39 p.m., proceedings recessed).
